

Amnesty International
presents

Darryl Burton

Sponsored by: The Innocence Project

After being robbed of 24 years of his life by the judicial system, he recently was exonerated of the crimes for which he was wrongly convicted. In 1985, Burton was convicted for the murder of 26 year-old Donald Ball; a shooting at an Amoco gas station that changed his life forever.

7:00 p.m.

University Chapel
November 12, 2009

Ottawa University™
1001 South Cedar Street • Ottawa, KS