

The joy of the Lord is your strength. Neh. 8:10

Shanta Bhawan, Kakumander, Nepal.

June 4, 1961.

Dear Bea:

Greetings from Kakumander! Wish we could send you some of the cooling rains we have here.

Although I am carrying a "full schedule," it is far less work than I usually do in Delhi, & it gives me some time to write letters. Thank goodness. I am also studying Nepali for the fun of it.

That very pretty dress you gave me just before I left was exactly what I needed. I have worn it to the staff dinner here, & to a party at Phil & Ann Bradley's, & on two other occasions all in two weeks' time. Many thanks all over again.

I am trying to persuade my husband to come up here for a couple of weeks. I'm sure he isn't getting a thing done in Delhi in the heat & with nobody home for company except the cat.

Around June 8-12 a regio friend, Miss Victoria
Schuster, & her German Companion, Miss Sophie Augenmann, will probably be at Maiden. If you should run across them, give them Delhi
Greetings on my behalf.

May June pass quickly & comfortably for you. I would like to prescribe Stanley Jones' latest book, "Christian Maturity". I hope you can get it in Delhi. Otherwise get it sent from the States. His best so far. "Psychotherapy makes no saints. Love for Jesus Christ does."

God bless & keep you.

Love,

Dorothy
