

Dr. Woodard has provided through his column that avenue of expression which allows us to examine our faults with good humor and begin to see ways to overcome the problems. Dr. Woodard has long been a contributor of multiple scholarly articles to various professional journals, but he has spent the last two years in finding clever ways to let us take a long look at our foibles and to discover how we have gotten to this point in time with regard to some of our techniques and other developed methodologies and strategies. I found myself enjoying thoroughly the quips and comments of Dr. Woodard even when I did not always share his total commitment to an idea or concept. Whether we all accept the divergent view or not, all of us in Pi Kappa Delta have long accepted the need to express that view and to give hearing to all ideas that might provide change and improvement for the organization. I hope that Larry will continue to poke fun at the ludicrous and to hold up to the light the extreme practices which we all see but too few of us bother to give our professional attention.

Working with both of these gentlemen has been a pleasure and a genuine learning experience. I wish that I could have demonstrated the ability and the comprehensive knowledge that either of them possesses. I am indeed grateful for their time and talents which were given freely to contribute to the quality of The Forensic over the past eight issues. The organization owes them a debt of thanks for work well done in a competent and professional manner.

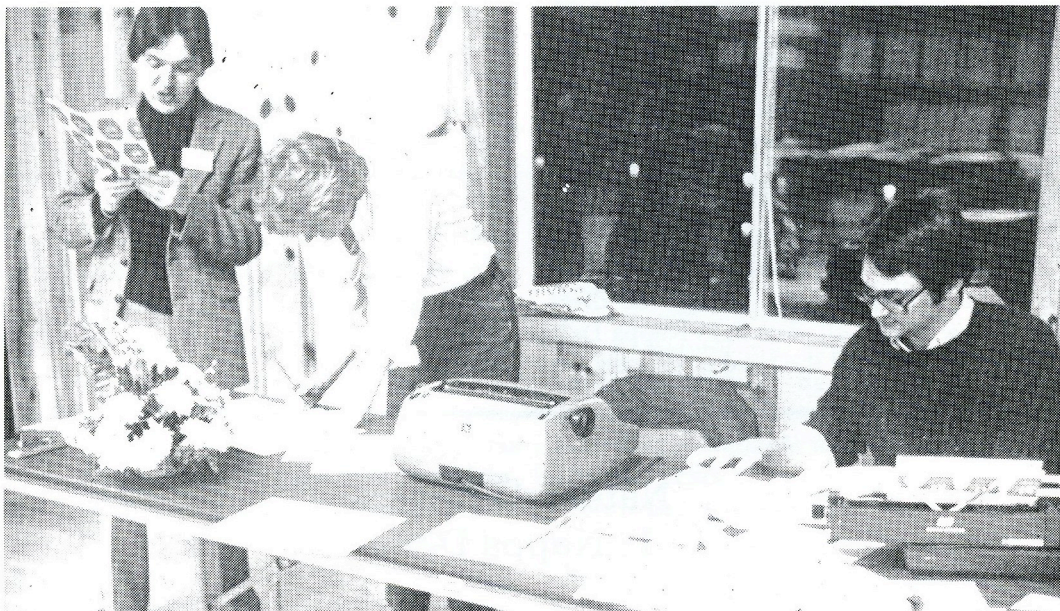

National Officers Pi Kappa Delta

Penny Swisher	President	William Jewell College Liberty, MO 64068	816-781-3806 ext. 439
Gary Horn	Vice-President, Constitutional Revision	Southwestern College Winfield, KS 67156	316-221-4150
Tony Allison	Secretary-Treasurer	Cameron University Lawton, OK 73505	405-248-2200 ext. 359
Anthony Schroeder	Editor of The Forensic	Eastern NM University Portales, NM 88130	505-562-2415
Terry Cole	Charter and Standards	Appalachian State Univ. Boone, NC 28608	204-262-2221
Robert Littlefield	Tournament Director	North Dakota St. Univ. Fargo, ND 58105	701-237-7705
R. David Ray	Province Coordinator	Univ. of AR-Monticello Monticello, AR 71655	501-367-6811
Martin Glendinning	Student Council Member	Central State Univ. Edmond, OK 73034	405-341-2980
Stephanie Isaacs	Student Council Member	Univ. of Arkansas Fayetteville, AR 72701	501-573-5953
Larry Norton	Historian	1010 N. Heading Court Peoria, IL 61604	309-676-4762
Jack Starr	Immediate Past President	Univ. of Wisconsin LaCrosse, WI 54601	608-785-8528

THE 33rd NATIONAL CONVENTION:

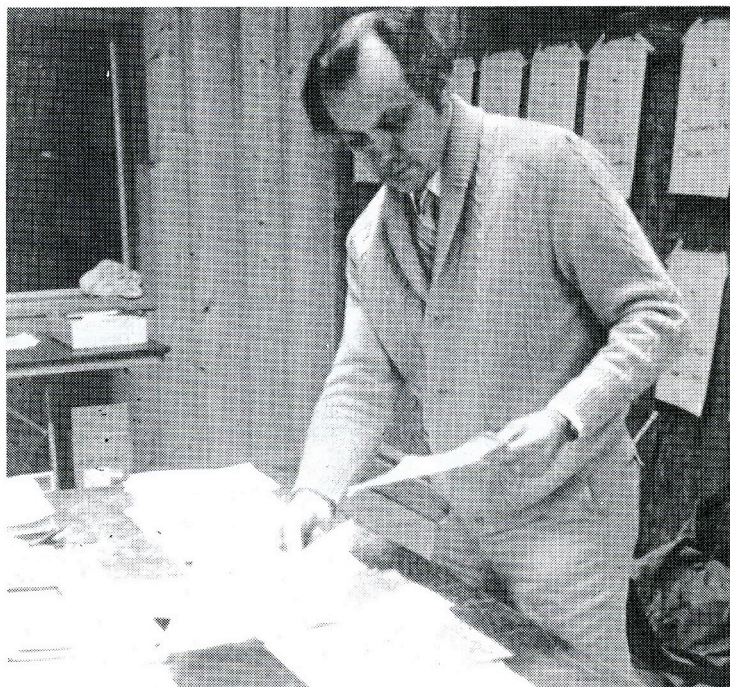

The Tournament Committee Gets The Job Done

Penny Swisher, Tournament Director, said she couldn't have done it without her staff. Here's a few of the willing workers.

Ron Hartley, Clarion State, gets student workers on the track.

*Bill Roberts,
Gustavous Adolphus, intent on
the job at hand.*

FRANTIC FUNNY FORENSIC FELLOWSHIP

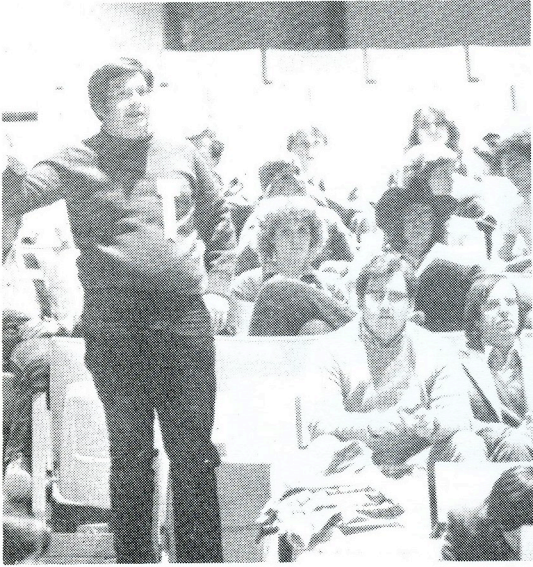

Robert Littlefield and James Zeman were smiling over ballots on the first day.

*James Zeman,
Northern State
[South Dakota], keeps finding more ballots to sort.*

Tournament Meetings, Rounds and Reasons

Business meetings bring issues out in the open.

Duo partners push for perfection.

Committees and Province meetings take too much time.

Old and new presidents convene.

Now here is a salient point.

Pres. Starr and Parliamentarian Fred Goodwin put their heads together to provide leadership.

Province of the Missouri plots a winning strategy

Other Provinces plan their approach

*Joel Hefling,
Province of the Sioux*

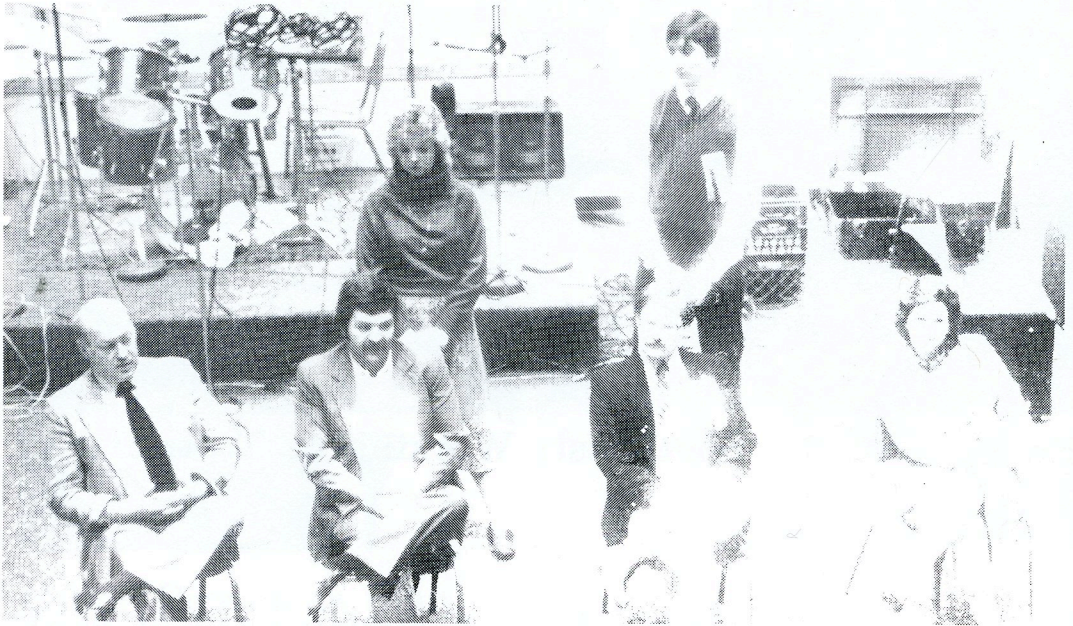

Province of the Southeast: Working or Worrying

Province of the Colonies hard at work

THE ELECTION PROCESS FROM BEGINNING TO END

Candidates keep their cool in a hot spot. Council Members answer questions from the assembled participants about their candidacy for President and Vice President. L. to R. - Larry Richardson, Western Washington, Gary Horn, Southwestern, Terry Cole, Appalachian State, Penny Swisher, William Jewell. Presiding over the session are Student Council Members Michelle O'Daniels, Southwestern, and David Small, Pittsburg State.

Praise pours forth in support of Council Candidates.

"My coach really is a very special man and he would add a lot to the National Council."

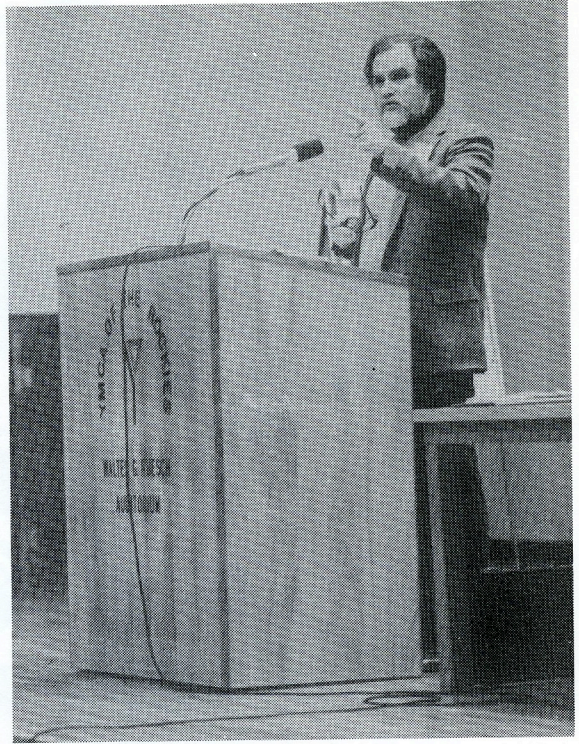

Dr. Keefe explains the voting process.

Election Officials Carolyn Keefe and Bob Derryberry complete plans over breakfast or contemplate the meal; one can never be sure at conventions.

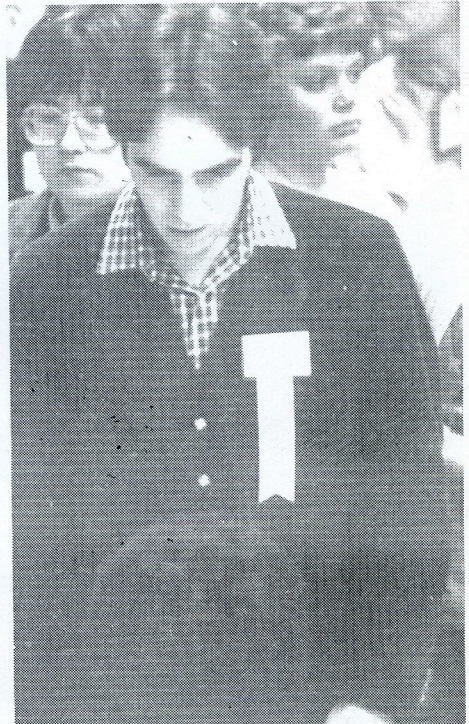

"That's my name right there!"

"Yes, Ma'am, I know you just explained that."

"I hope she's made the right choice."

"I'm casting my vote for a winner."