

to go ahead and formulate plans
to raise the needed amount.
meeting adjourned.

E. F. Lee.

Apr. 11 Literary Session.

Song.

Special solo - - - - - Mr. Smythe

Devotionals - - - - - Frank Cooper.

Burds - - - - - George Saip.

Value of Birds to Man - - - Genevieve Gillette

American Audubon Ass. - Kathryn Lawrence

Critics report - - - - - Carrie Hattan.

Business Session.

Minutes of last meeting read and approved.

Charles Dunt was voted into the Olympian Literary Society.

Arthur Phelps reported for the Committee on extemporaneous speaking declamation. A motion was made and carried that two contests be held and that the committee decide which two contests it shall be.

Motion made but not passed;
that people taking first in college contests or in Olympian contests be barred from these contests.

Miss Hart and Lois Johnson were selected to represent the Olympian Society in the Olympian-Philalethean Debate. The date of the debate was set for May 2.
E. F. Lee.

May 6. Special Meeting.

Motion made and carried that the matter of the new brass plate be left to the Society and