

THE RESIGNATION OF THE PRESIDENT.

Again Ottawa is called upon to be self-sacrificing. Dr. Riggs has been called to a position which offers him better opportunities than he has here, and, after due consideration, he has decided to avail himself of them. As President of Ottawa in times of great and urgent need he has proved himself well worthy of the loyal support, the heartfelt sympathy and the unstinted praise of all of Ottawa's sons and friends. We wish for him in his new field of labor and usefulness a world of friends, a multitude of opportunities, more than the ordinary number of honors and responsibilities, and unbounded success.

‘ The Souvenir Number will contain a sketch of Dr. Riggs’ work in Ottawa, and her growth under his guidance.
