Record of Olympian Literary Society
1923-1924.

Called Meeting. Sept 12.

It was found necessary to elect a new vice president as Miss Hynes was not enrolled in school. Nominations presented were Neiland Hynes and Nora Clark. Miss Clark received a majority of the votes.

The president, Mr. Tietar, presented his resignation. Motion made and carried that it be accepted. Nominations for new president were Elsie Wood, Edgar Cook, and Theodore Palmquist. Miss Wood was elected.

Motion made and carried that the executive committee appoint a committee to meet with the Philals to prepare plans for the banquet.

Meeting adjourned.

Oct 6.

Meeting called together by chairman
Hymn
Devotionals - chaplain
Welcome address - pres.
Piano Solo - Dallie Davis
Achievements of Olympia - Frances Marshall
Vocal Solo - Don Smith
What has Olympia for us - Theodore Palmquist
Critic's Report - Miss Wenzelman
Gold and Blue - Society
Meeting turned over to Neiland Hynes and Romola Ireland.
No business meeting - social time!