

VOTE TO BUILD NEW DORMITORY AT OTTAWA U.

A Fund of Around $100,000 to be Raised

SET 1940 AS GOAL

Hoped to Have Building Ready for 75th Anniversary; College Lived Within Budget Last Year and Cut Debt $8,000.

Ottawa University plans to have a new dormitory for women, according to action taken by the board of trustees at their meeting yesterday. A committee was appointed with full power to make plans for the type of structure to be built, decide how the building will be financed, and determine who will be called on for contributions. It is expected that the new building will cost around $100,000, although no official estimate has been made. President Andrew B. Martin said this morning that it would be completed and dedicated not later than the 75th anniversary of the university in the spring of 1940, and perhaps sooner.

Committee Is Named

The committee named is composed of representatives of various parts of the O. U. constituency. They are: Dr. Martin, chairman, Dr. W. A. Elliott, R. M. Clogston, G. W. Cassidy of Wichita, Marion C. Hume who is president of the Alumni association, and Mrs. J. N. Atkinson of Kansas City, Kans., who is representing the Baptist women of the state.

More than likely the building would be a unit type of structure, with possibly three divisions so that the group housing plan instituted by the university recently may be continued. In that event each of three girls' organizations would have separate quarters in the structure.

When it was completed, Charlton Cottage and the Iota Psi house, the old Ward house at 7th and Poplar, would be converted into homes for men of the school.

Location for the dormitory has not yet been selected, but possibly it would be just south of Ward science hall, facing west.

Dr. Martin said the committee would have to determine just what portions of the amount needed would be raised by the various groups usually called on to support the school. A meeting of the committee will be held in the next few weeks.

The dormitory project was not the only significant action taken by the board yesterday. In the few hours in which the board met several important matters were discussed and decided upon favorably.

The department of music will become a school of music with Powell Weaver as the director and Everett Fetter as the dean. Once

RECEPTION FOR O. U. TEACHERS

C. OF C. SPONSORS AFFAIR
THURSDAY NIGHT

Students Also Will Attend During Evening At Nelson Hotel—Chance To Get Acquainted

The Chamber of Commerce will hold an informal reception in honor of the Ottawa University faculty next Thursday evening from 8 to 10 o'clock at the Nelson hotel. Invitation is extended to all friends of O. U. to call at the hotel during the evening.

Fred Brombacher, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, said the purpose of the reception is to get the university faculty and townspeople better acquainted.

Marion Hume is general chairman of the committee which is making arrangements for the affair. Other members are O. L. Hankins, Harry W. Woods, F. F. Fockele, Mrs. E. I. Pearce, Loren Latimer, Mrs. C. W. Hegberg, Miss Dora Jacobson and Fleming Ross.

In the receiving line at the reception will be faculty members and their wives and officers of the Chamber of Commerce and their wives. At intervals during the evening there will be a short musical program presented by the university music department.

Members of the committee are especially anxious that the people of the town come out for the reception. Mr. Brombacher pointed out this will be a fine opportunity for everyone to meet the O. U. faculty, many of whom have come to Ottawa in the last year or two. Students at the University have also been invited to the reception and while they will not be in the receiving line, people of the town will have a chance to see the excellent type of students which the school has this fall.

The reception has been made possible through the courtesy of Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Foote who are also providing refreshments and contributing the dining room.

CORRESPONDENCE SHOWER

A "correspondence shower" was planned yesterday for Miss Thelma Henshaw, who will be the bride of Mr. Allan Pett of Topeka tomorrow. Misses Naydeen Bowly and Glenva Horrell and Mrs. Homer Martz of Leavenworth were in charge of the shower, in which charter members of Kappa Tau Delta society of Ottawa University took part. In response to the "invitations," several shower packages were mailed to the bride-to-be yesterday by these society friends, the gift wrappings being carried out in the society colors, red and white. Shower presents were received from the following: Misses Wanda and Melba Janssen, Lorraine; Mrs. Don Coldren, Council Grove; Miss Mildred Wilson, Wichita; Miss Charlene Cheney, Selden; Miss Kathryn Proffitt, Denver, Colo.; Mrs. Howard Haworth, Louisville, Ky.; Miss Edith Clemmons, Clay Center; Mrs. Charles Johnson, Topeka; Mrs. Miss

Sport Reports

The Ottawa Braves meet McPherson College here Friday night in the opening conference game of the season. While the Ottawans have an edge in the dope, they had best remember that these same Bulldogs came up with a 26 to 7 victory a year ago. They have lost two games this season to Hastings and Kearney, Neb., Teachers, but these are two of the best small college teams in the middle west. Kearney beat Bethany 7 to 0 earlier this year.

Jack Ramsey, who was injured in the Chanute game, will not be able to play Friday night due to the condition of his ankle.

Two veteran O. U. linemen, Eugene Harding, end, and Harold Pitts, tackle, are seeing a lot of service these days and will be in the game much of the time

BRAVES TO OPEN CONFERENCE PLAY

FIRST LOOP GAME WITH McPHERSON HERE

Braves Hope to Avenge Last Season's Defeat Friday Night;
10 McPherson Vets

The Ottawa University Braves open the Kansas conference season next Friday night on Cook field against McPherson College. The Ottawans, successful in a 38 to 0 defeat of Haskell, are hoping to gain a victory but Coach Richard Godlove feels that his Braves have no reason to be favored in as much as they lost 6 to 27 last year and the Bulldog veterans number around 10 this fall.

McPherson has lost to Kearney, Nebr., teachers and to the Hastings, Nebr., college. Both of these teams, however, are reputedly strong this season.

Daugharthy

A dispatch from McPherson points out that Coach Pierce Astle is working his squad on passing and punting this week and that a special defense is being developed to stop the rampaging Ottawa backs.

Braves' fans around here feel that McPherson had better do something to get ready for that Ottawa line. Bulging with power from end to end, the forward wall led by Co-Captains Bob Harrop and Gordon Daugharthy is going to be a serious threat to the offense of the Bulldogs. Only two or three times did Haskell puncture the Ottawa line and usually its offensive was smothered completely, often by the Big Bertha blasting of Leonard Hofstra. Whether the McPherson line, which will be outweighed, can withstand the power of the Braves' line is a question.

No serious injuries have yet showed up on the Ottawa squad. Jack Ramsey got a twisted ankle out of the "B" game tussle with Chanute, but he is expected to be ready to go into the game if he is called on next Friday night. Elvis Berger had a shoulder injury, but is now recovered.

A few reserve seats are available for the McPherson game. These will be on sale at Davis-Wassner clothing store starting this afternoon. Fans who intend to purchase general admission tickets should get them downtown and avoid the rush and wait at the gate. Fans may still save $1.13 by purchasing season tickets.

BRAVES DRILL ON AIR FORMATIONS

PREPARE FOR McPHERSON'S PASSING ATTACK.

Special Entertainment at Inter-Mission in Game Tomorrow Night.

Pass offense and defense were the order of the day yesterday for the Ottawa University Braves, as Coach Dick Godlove drilled his men in fine points of the aerial attack. It is rumored that the McPherson Bulldogs, here Friday night, are going to let loose a lot of forwards, so the Ottawans are not going to be caught unprepared.

The first string backfield last night had Lyman Morgan at quarterback, Roy Fitzpatrick and Don Meek at the halfback spots, and Bill Mattis at fullback. While this quartet will not be unbeatable, it does have possibilities of becoming an excellent combination. Morgan at quarter is proving to be a smart field general, usually picking the right play at the right time. If there is a weak spot on the other side of the scrimmage line, he is likely to see it.

Morgan

Mattis at fullback has plenty of speed and fire to perform blocking assignments and to drive the ball through the center of the line. He would have had an excellent season last year had he not been cracked up so often. This should be his year, and the whole squad is hoping that he stays in the running all fall.

Meek and Fitzpatrick are two new men who as yet are untried in the stiff competition of the Kansas conference. They apparently have plenty of stuff and may untie a bundle of it Friday night.

All four of these men punt, run and pass, which is a mighty good all-around ability for any football team.

Tomorrow night will be another gala night of entertainment. The O. U. band will be on deck to furnish music and do a little marching between halves. There will be two steeplechase races between halves, one a bona fide intra-mural race, and the other a comic event.

LIST ODD JOBS FOR STUDENTS

O. U. EMPLOYMENT OFFICE FUNCTIONS WELL.

Persons Having Part Time Work For College Men or Women Asked To Call.

The Ottawa University employment office is putting on a campaign to obtain odd jobs or part-time employment for students who must earn part of their way through school. The office is open every day from 8 to 5 o'clock, and persons desiring to make inquiries may do so by calling the university and asking for the employment office.

Cards are being distributed to homes and business houses urging that college students be called for when there are odd jobs to be done. Boys are available in the afternoons, evenings, and on Saturdays for work around homes or stores. Girls are available for housework or to take care of children.

This is the second year in which the office has functioned under the present plan. A total of 269 jobs were arranged for students last fall, winter and spring. Already 75 students are registered at the office.

Carl Kingsley, a student, is in charge of the service and is assisted by Merna Carter, another student.

O. U. BRAVES WIN LOOP OPENER

McPHERSON EASY, LOSING 0 TO 30 IN MUD.

Godlove's Men Outplayed Opponents in Every Phase of the Game—Crowd Defied Rain.

Playing on a rain-soaked field the Ottawa University Braves sped their way last night to a 30 to 0 victory over the McPherson College Bulldogs in the first Kansas conference game of the year for both teams. Several hundred fans defied the weather and sat through the rain to watch their team outblock and outrun the hard fighting boys from McPherson.

Two long Ottawa runs for touchdowns were highlights in the muddy melee. Midway of the third quarter Bill Mattis burst through a hole over the McPherson left guard behind good blocking, faded to the right and outran the McPherson safety for a touchdown with a 57-yard dash. At this point Coach Dick Godlove sent in the second string to replace his mud-covered crew of starters.

The younger boys kept on marching. Jack O'Neil, brilliant freshman back, took the ball around the Bulldog left end early in the fourth quarter for a 58-yard sprint to the goal line and the last Ottawa touchdown. O'Neil got his start by virtue of good blocking, but thereafter simply outran everyone else on the field. The last McPherson chaser made a desperate dive near the goal line and barely touched the heel of the speeding Brave.

The Ottawans started scoring early when Don Meek carried the ball through the McPherson left side of the line for 10 yards and a touchdown. The Braves' scoring march began when McPherson fumbled on the first play after the initial kickoff and Ottawa recovered on the McPherson 35-yard line. Meek went around end for 9 yards and Mattis made it first down with a 2-yard plunge. Here the Bulldog forward wall crashed in to throw Meek for a 9-yard loss and Fitzpatrick for a 5-yard setback. It seemed the touchdown threat of the Braves was completely stifled, but Meek put the boys back in the marching with a 22-yard breeze around left end and then made a first down with a 3-yard off-tackle smash. Two plays later he went over the goal line.

After the touchdown the game became a punting duel between Meek and Don Barngrover, Bulldog tackle. The brawny McPherson boy had the edge until Meek let one loose that traveled 50 yards to go outside on the 5-yard stripe. Barngrover stepped back to punt, fumbled the slippery ball and was downed in the end zone for a safety and two points for Ottawa.

After the safety the Bulldogs free-kicked from the 20-yard line and Bill Mattis brought the ball back to the Ottawa 44-yard line. From there Norman Gerhold and Meek swung around the ends and through the tackles to place the ball on the 1-yard marker, a 22-yard dash by Meek being the feature. Mattis plunged the ball across right tackle for the score.

The second half except the two long runs by Mattis and O'Neil was a sodden affair, the well soaked ball being something like a greased pig. Three times the Braves fumbled to lose the ball and twice the Ottawans intercepted McPherson passes as the two teams churned back and forth in the midfield mud.

McPherson found the Braves' forward wall too powerful for running plays and for the most part were bottled up. They did take to the air for a few effective gains in the second half, but the ball was too slippery for efficient passing for the most part.

The Ottawans kept to the ground all evening and confined their offensive to running plays. The Braves found the McPherson side of the line fairly weak and kept the Bulldog defense in hot water as they alternated their plays through the tackles and around the ends. The McPherson secondary defense was forced to pull in to stop the Ottawa plunges and then had difficulty in stopping the hard Ottawa end runs stopped.

The Ottawa line completely outplayed a lighter McPherson forward wall. The mud was so bad that it was hard to pick the stars of the line play, but it is certain that the Ottawans kept all holes effectively blocked.

The punting on both sides was unusually fine for so rainy a night. Don Barngrover kept his team out of danger time after time with long punts, once getting a 60-yard boot down the field. Don Meek and several other Ottawans averaged 36 yards in the kicking department.

The score was incorrectly announced as being 29 to 0, it being understood that the try for point after the second Ottawa touchdown was not good. Referee Thomas, however, ruled that it was over the bar, making the score 30 to 0 at the end of the game.

Next Friday Ottawa goes to Liberty, Mo., to play William Jewell. The next home game is with Baker on October 29.

Last night's starting lineups:
Ottawa—Von Arb, LE; Hofstra, LT; Hough, LG; C. Smith, C; Daugherty, RG; Harrop, RT; Harding, RE; L. Morgan, Q; Meek, LH; Fitzpatrick, RH; Mattis, P.

LONG RUN GIVES OTTAWA U. GAME

JACK RAMSEY RETURNS A
PUNT 73 YARDS TO SCORE.

Jaunt in Fourth Period Provides Winning Margin for Local Team—Mattis Injured.

Jack Ramsey, fleet Ottawa University ball carrier, returned a William Jewell punt 73 yards for a touchdown early in the fourth quarter and paved the way for his team to defeat the Cardinals, 21 to 14.

Taking one of Norman McDonald's long spirals on his own 27-yard line Ramsey quickly dodged behind rapidly forming interference, eluded two or three tacklers and sped up the sideline for a touchdown. It was a beautiful run and perhaps the one sparkling play of the afternoon.

Bill Mattis, ace Ottawa full-back, was injured in the first half. On the return through Kansas City he was left at Research hospital for examination. Doctors had not yet determined the extent of his injuries this morning.

The Braves ran into plenty of trouble as was expected. True to predictions Jewell cut loose a long range air attack with Jack House and McDonald doing the firing. Practically every pass the Cardinals flung was for keeps. Both of the Jewell touchdowns were the result of long distance flings.

The Ottawa running offensive shone brilliantly in the first few minutes of the game to score the Braves' first touchdown after four minutes of play. A tight Ottawa defense forced Jewell's McDonald to punt and Don Meek took the ball and returned it to his own 49-yard line before being downed. On the first play he circled the Cardinal left end for 12 yards. Jack O'Neal and Mattis then assisted him in punching the ball down to the 4-yard line from where Mattis went over center for the touchdown after two plays had failed to advance the ball.

Thereafter the Ottawa attack folded up and crept away somewhere into the dark afternoon, for try as they would the Braves could never again get a touchdown drive under way, at least on the ground.

Jewell tied the score late in the first quarter on a 20-yard pass, House to Blanchard. After that the game was turned into a punting duel with neither threatening until Ottawa unleashed a scoring attack late in the first half.

Lyman Morgan was the boy who made the touchdown on as nice a bit of running as the game provided. McDonald of Jewell paved the way for the Ottawa score when he got a short punt that came down on the Cardinal 36-yard line. Two Ottawa passes were incomplete, Meek gained 6 yards around end and it was fourth down and four yards to go. Meek then shot a short pass to George Von Arb which was good for 10 yards and placed the ball on the Jewell 20-yard line. On the next play Meek

COLLEGE DEANS, REGISTRARS HERE

BETWEEN 60 AND 70 VISITORS
EXPECTED MONDAY

Student Counseling, the Summer School Standards, Student Enlistment, Other Problems Up

The Kansas Association of Collegiate Deans and Registrars will hold its annual fall meeting Monday at Ottawa University with 60 or 70 representatives from Kansas institutions of higher education being present.

The one-day convention will be a busy one for the college officials. Among the problems listed for discussion are those of student counseling, and the establishment of summer school standards.

President Andrew B. Martin of Ottawa University will open the meeting at 9 o'clock with a brief speech of welcome. The official business of the association will be opened with a report by Dean Leslie B. Sipple of Wichita University on the work of a joint committee which has been studying summer school standards. Later in the morning Dean Ellis B. Stouffer of K. U. will lead in a discussion of the work of the North Central association and Miss Louis Lesslie of Topeka will talk on the new requirements for state teaching certificates.

At noon the group will have luncheon at North American hotel. The O. U. department of music will furnish special entertainment.

In the afternoon the registrars and the deans will hold separate meetings. For the most part the registrars will confine their discussions to routine problems giving especial attention to student counseling. The deans in their meeting will have up for consideration such problems as student enlistment, extra-curricular activities and student personnel work. The meetings will adjourn at 4 o'clock in the afternoon.

P. J. Wedel of Bethel College is president of the registrars group and Dean Emil Deere of Bethany is president of the deans. Dr. W. B. Wilson and Dr. Allen Wikgren of Ottawa are hosts at the convention. They will be assisted by Mrs. Harry B. Armsby of Rolla, Mo., formerly Miss Ruth Bundy, registrar at O. U.

SPECIAL TRAIN TO WESELYAN GAME

OTTAWA FANS TO LEAVE
HERE AT 10 A. M. FRIDAY

Round Trip Fare of $2.85 Arranged—Salina Team To Be Plenty Rough and Tough

The Ottawa University football team, band and a large crowd of rooters will journey to Salina for the Ottawa-Wesleyan game Friday night in a special train according to arrangements put under way yesterday. The train will leave here at 10 o'clock in the morning and return immediately after the game which is scheduled to start at 7:30. Townspeople may make reservations by seeing Claude Webb or calling the treasurer's office at the university. The round trip fare will be $2.85.

It is a fact not to be denied that the dope in this particular game will favor Wesleyan. The Coyote teams have always been built on a base of rugged power and this year is no exception. They have a line that will outweigh that of Ottawa and the backfield, to which has been transferred the big Watson as fullback, will be much heavier. The entire Wesleyan team has speed, too. Haslouer and Chartier in the backfield for instance are a pair of speedy, hip-twisting backs that will give no end of trouble.

Last week Bethany downed the Coyotes 7 to 0 in one of the classic struggles of the season. Wesleyan bore down on the Swedes three times only to be stopped on the scoring brink. Observers of the game reported that Baer, Wesleyan guard, was in the Bethany backfield all evening and the work of the tackles Van Cleef, all-conference last year and a 228-pound freshman was outstanding. Tough, rugged and hard to move, said the reports.

The injury to Bill Mattis has put the Ottawa team on the spot. Last night Coach Richard Godlove pulled Kenneth Hough out of the line to work out at the fullback position. He and Phillip Palmer will probably handle that job in the Wesleyan game.

The Jewell game proved two things: that the Ottawa line is not airtight and that the Ottawa backs can be stopped. As a matter of fact, the Braves did not make a first down in the second half, the one flash of brilliance being the run by Jack Ramsey for a touchdown.

Nevertheless, the Braves are pouring on the practice this week. There is no fooling for they realize, even if the fans do not, that the Wesleyan outfit is rough and tough. They cannot easily forget that scorching and bitter defeat 0 to 38, that they suffered last year.

Braves Realize They Are Facing Real Odds

ON A SPECIAL TRAIN

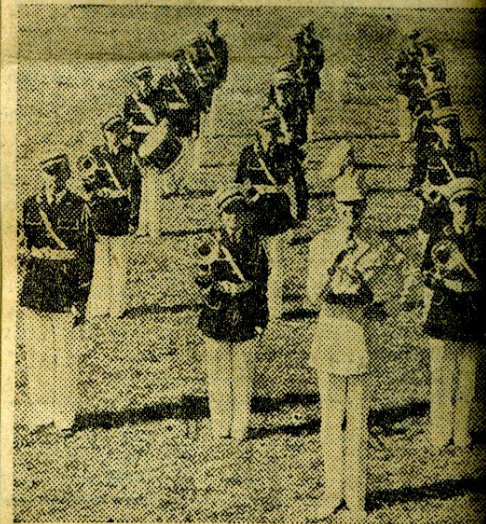

About 150 Players and Rooters
Including the College Band,
Will Travel to Salina by Missouri Pacific, Leaving at 10 Tomorrow Morning.

"On to Salina," will be the favored slogan tomorrow as the Ottawa University Braves and football fans move westward for a night football game with Kansas Wesleyan. About 150 football players, members of the university band and rooters will leave at 10 o'clock in the morning on a special train over the Missouri Pacific for Salina, and a large number of other fans will drive to the game. It is also reported that many Ottawa alumni in the central part of the state are expected to be on hand for the battle.

The game is scheduled to start at 7:30 and fans are advised not to be late, for in five out of the last six Wesleyan-Ottawa games the winner has been named in the first few minutes of play. With both teams anxious to win and each also capable of registering a victory, the game tomorrow night is apt to be decided according to the established custom.

Of all Ottawa games in the past few years which have been interesting to watch, the Coyote game has usually been tops. For some reason the two outfits traditionally throw caution to the wind and play with an abandonment that is right down the alley of the spectators. Hard driving, reckless, breathtaking football has been the keynote of these games, and there is no reason to believe that the melee this year will be anything different.

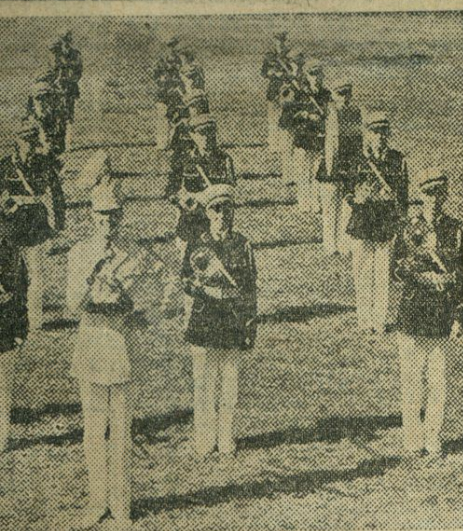

Wesleyan after having lost a tough battle 0 to 7 to Bethany last week will be in no mood to

INJURIES WEAKEN BAPTIST BRAVES

SEVERAL HAVE BAD KNEES
FOR WESLEYAN TILT.

But They'll Give All They Have
at Salina Tonight—Special Train Takes Team, Rooters.

Old Man Injury has caught up with the Ottawa University Braves, Coach Dick Godlove announced this morning as he left with his team for Salina where tonight the Ottawa will play Kansas Wesleyan in a Kansas conference game. An epidemic of knee injuries has hit the squad taking as victims Eugene Harding, Walter Reames and Jack French. Since Harding is regular right end, his loss for the game tonight will be a hard blow to the Ottawans.

tonight the Ottawans will play over station KSAL, 1500 kilocycles, Salina, starting at 7:30. Ottawans, however, report that this station cannot be heard in this vicinity.

The special train bearing nearly 150 rooters and the team left at 10 o'clock this morning and will start home immediately after the game. Other Ottawans are driving there so the Braves will have plenty of backing as they punch at the Salina defense and offense.

All eyes of the conference are turned on Salina tonight to see a game that may point a definite finger to the champion-to-be. Right now it would seem that Bethany, Wesleyan and Ottawa have an edge in the running with Baker being a possible strong dark horse. Should Wesleyan beat Ottawa tonight, Bethany will be the favored team to win the crown, as the Swedes have already won over the Salina team.

Godlove had no comments to make other than, "All I know, is that this is going to be a hard game and that we will be out there using everything we have to win."

Scores may be had by calling the North American coffee shop.

BRAVES FACING TOUGH SCHEDULE

ALMOST TOO MUCH TO EX-PECT ALL VICTORIES.

Wesleyan, Baker, Bethel, Bethany
and C. of E. All Strong Elevens.

Could it be that the Ottawa University Braves, playing superb football in their initial two encounters, played themselves into a hole with local fans? Maybe folks around these parts are expecting too much of the spritely playing team coached by Dick Godlove.

Everyone might well hope for five more victories for the Ottawans, but no one can actually expect the Braves to down Wesleyan, Baker, Bethel, Bethany and C. of E. on successive Fridays. Each of these teams is capable of registering a victory over any good ball club, and as a matter of fact each has already won a few games to prove the point.

The vicissitudes of football were well exemplified last week-end when Oklahoma tied Nebraska, Carnegie Tech beat Notre Dame and Syracuse took the measure of Cornell. Dope does not always pick the winner. A mediocre team may rise to its best strength, get the breaks and beat a team that is doped heavily to win. A supposedly weak team may have the right sort of setup that is hard for the favored school to handle. For years Nebraska fought Minnesota to a standstill. Minnesota always won over Pittsburgh, but the latter team regularly ran roughshod over the Cornhuskers. The Nebraska team found the Gopher offense the kind that could be slowed down, but the fast, deceptive and shifty Pittsburgh offense has been something else again.

In the four remaining conference games the Braves will find it necessary to be at tip-top form each night and that may be asking too much, for five weeks is a long time for a football team.

Fans may count on this bunch of Braves doing their individual best to win every game, but no one should count it a disaster should the Ottawans get bumped once or twice.

Plans are shaping up for the special train to Wesleyan at Salina Friday. Students who are promoting the deal said late yesterday that they still needed quite a few more reservations in order to reach the required 100. The train is scheduled to leave Friday morning at 10 o'clock and return immediately after the game that night.

Godlove sent his men through a stiff workout last night and gave special attention to the backfield. The line was sent in early and Godlove remained on the field with the ball luggers for some time giving them fine points

Kansas City, Oct. 18.—(AP)—

Two Kansas conference games are scheduled this week, with Ottawa meeting the slipping Kansas Wesleyan eleven, and Bethany meeting a College of Emporia team which turned in the major upset last week.

The Kansas conference campaign began to offer a problem, with three teams undefeated. The defending champion Kansas Wesleyan eleven lost in its first start last week, bowing to Bethany 7 to 0. A second half march climaxed by a Warren-to-Gianangelo pass brought the lone score and the first Bethany victory over Wesleyan since 1928.

Baker turned in its second loop victory at the expense of McPherson, 9 to 0. McPherson outscrimmaged the winners, but a 23-yard gallop by Delafield and a field goal by K. Brown brought a Baker victory.

The startling 7 to 0 victory of C. of E. over the favored Pittsburg Gorillas was the week's upset. Melvin Vobach, C. of E. freshman, took a lateral for a 25-yard touchdown run in the first four minutes of play.

Emporia Teachers and Pittsburg Teachers open their Central conference football campaigns this week, and there was every indication the Emporians would join Fort Hays State and Wichita in the undefeated class, and Pittsburg would join Southwestern in the cellar.

Powell Weaver In Faculty Recital

Annual Music Treat by O. U.
Teachers Monday Night in First M. E.

The annual Ottawa University music faculty recital will be held next Monday evening at 8:15 in First Methodist church. The event this year is of unusual interest due to the fact that it will be a formal introduction of Powell Weaver, new head of the music school.

Mr. Weaver, who was employed this fall by the university has attained a wide reputation over the entire nation for his concert work and for his compositions which have been played and sung by leading orchestras and artists. On the concert program Monday evening he will play two groups of organ numbers.

Prof. Everett Fetter and Prof. Edgar Kerr will also be heard on the program. Mr. Fetter will play a group of violin numbers and Mr. Kerr will sing a group of baritone solos.

Since this is the first appearance here of Mr. Weaver, a large number of out-of-town persons are expected to be present. Mr. Fetter, who is arranging the program, said he believes the occasion will be as enjoyable as any music event which the university has ever presented to the community.

No admission is to be charged and the public is invited.

OTTAWA NEWSREEL

Ottawa's first newsreel pictures will have their first run tonight at the Plaza theatre at 9:10. The newsreel shots were made by Jimmie Fitzgerald of the Missouri Film Laboratories in Kansas City and include the Ottawa University football team, High school bands, orchestras and High school athletes. The local police force came in for their share of the picture taking as did nine of Ottawa's merchants including: Blum's market, Smith's Shoe Store, the Home Furniture Store, Hankins Drug Store, Lamb's Funeral Home, Nuzman Lumber Co., North American Hotel and Coffee Shop and Lawrence Fowler's Conoco station on North Main.

The pictures will have a week's run and will be accompanied by complete picture programs.
