label), two CD's of composer Oscar Haugland's Door County Suite and Petite Suite for My Grandchildren (HOA label) and duos with Chinese violinist Wei Mei-Mei, recorded in Shanghai. His extensive collaborative experience also includes appearances in Chicago, Maine, Lake Placid,, and California. He has collaborated with leading composers such as Pulitzer Prize winner Shulamit Ran, Ralph Shapey, Larry Austin, Joyce Mekeel, Hugo Weisgall, and Wang Jian Zhong, all at their invitation.

Mr. Goldenberg earned the doctorate from Indiana University where he was appointed Personal Assistant to Menahem Pressler, and the Master of Music degree from Juilliard on Fellowship with Martin Canin and Rosina Lhevinne. Other advanced study included work with Gilbert Kalish, Theodore Lettvin, Charles Rosen, Josef Gingold, and Felix Galimir.

Dr. Goldenberg attracts students from around the world to the piano program at Northern Illinois University, where he is also Chair of the Piano Department and Director of the Collaborative Piano Program. Northern Illinois University awarded him two of its highest honors, the Presidential Teaching Professorship and the Graduate School Research and Artistry Grant, followed by promotion to Distinguished Professor. Goldenberg's Research and Artistry Grant provided funding to integrate performances and scholarly study of music by composers of Asian heritage.
