SALUTATION

*Music it was we brought from Heav'n,
On an angel's breath so pure,
And it alone may we carry back,
As a thing which shall endure.*

*And thus uplifted do we mount,
Like some celestial throng,
To realms of world-forgotten joy.
On wings of living song!*

Opening Material

PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING Edward Kremser

We gather together to ask the Lord's blessing;
He chastens and hastens His will to make known;
The wicked oppressing cease them from depressing,
Sing praises to His name, He forgets not his own.

Beside us to guide us, our God with us joining,
Ordaining, maintaining His kingdom divine;
So from the beginning the fight we were winning,
Thou Lord, wast at our side, let the glory be Thine.

We all do extol Thee, Thou leader in battle,
And pray that Thou still our Defender wilt be.
Let Thy congregation escape tribulation;
Thy name be ever praised! And Thy people be free.

FROM "THE CREATION" Haydn

In the beginning	A new created world
Now vanish before the Holy Beam	Most beautiful appear;
Despairing cursing rage	The Lord is great.

WHEN GOD PAINTS THE SUNSET (Norse Folk Song)

When God paints the sunset with radiant finger,
And glories eternal on mountain tops linger,
The turbulent streamlets in silence surrender,
And spirit relenting grows gracious and tender.

A mantle of bliss from the highest descending,
Subdues ev'ry chiding when twilight is pending,
And vistas unveil in their delicate motion.
A scene that transcends ev'ry thought and devotion.

O how shall I meet Thee, Thou Infinite Wonder,
How rise in my worship to heights of Thy splendor?
When summits, enraptured like altars are burning,
And sending Thy peace o'er the spirit in yearning?

When God paints the sunset with radiant finger,
And glories eternal on mountain tops linger,
In mute adoration I worship and ponder,
The love and the lustre of Him who is yonder.

THE BROOK Arkhangelsky

Through a vale streamed a brook, gently flowing, in its waves reflecting all the shaded foliage bending low upon its banks,
And the pure, lovely blue of the heavens in its waves reflecting all the picture of the landscape.

As I stood there thus admiring, o'er the surface of the brook,
Came a breeze, soft and light, gently moving, all was blended, all had disappeared;
So in dreams, our dearest image, do we oft-times vainly seek,
But one gust of life's stern prose, and all is ended, all has disappeared.
