The Editor Signs Off

If the attendance at the Pi Kappa Delta meeting held during the sessions of the Speech Association of America on December 29 is any indicator, interest in the National Convention next spring is at an all-time high. Ashamed as I am to say it, normally these Pi Kap meetings during the Christmas season are participated in by a half to a dozen faithfuls. But this year, the usual attendance by Council members and the "Order of the Beard" was supplemented by a room full of interested delegates.

President Harvey Cromwell reviewed plans that had been made for the Convention and led a discussion on problems that might possibly arise in connection with it. Reporting on progress from the Oklahoma State campus was Dr. Leslie Kreps, our local Convention chairman. "It may be," said Dr. Kreps, "that we are just ignorant and don't see now some problem that may arise. But as it stands, we don't know of a thing that will prevent a successful convention. We think we have all the difficulties licked as of now. And if new ones develop, we'll go to work on them. I can assure you that the whole University will make an all-out effort to give Pi Kappa Delta a great convention."

Full information on such details as housing, meals, transportation, registration, early arrivals, etc., will be sent out at a later date to all chapters by the National Secretary, D. J. Nabors. Anticipating one possible difficulty, Dr. Kreps said that Oklahoma State would make arrangements to meet trains which do not come directly to Stillwater. If trains or busses connect with Perry, with Oklahoma City, or with other places in the Stillwater vicinity, and if transportation from those places is awkward by public conveyance, the University will make special arrangements when requested to do so.

Elsewhere in this issue Dr. Thomas Fernandez reviews the history of the Dobyns Oratorical Contest at Westminster College. Westminster is fairly sure that it has the only contest endowed in honor of a boarding house, but comparison on other points is more difficult since little is published about such items outside of local journals. THE FORENSIC, therefore, would be interested in hearing from its readers about the following items of historical interest: 1. How many oratorical contests are older than the Dobyns, and how much older are they? 2. Are there other endowed contests which compete with the Dobyns in age? 3. Are there endowed contests which yield a greater prize than the $50.00 paid to the winner of the Dobyns? 4. Are there special points of interest about your contest which you think ought to be called to general attention?

Here is an opportunity for local historians to spread the word to all the nation. Let us know what traditions your school has in this field of collegiate oratory.
