

PROF. B. A. MAY

Dr. Pady is a graduate of the University of Toronto in Canada. He obtained his early work in McMaster University. His Ph. D. from Toronto was obtained in 1933. From 1933 to 1935 he was a fellowship student at Columbia University. Last year he was a special lecturer in biology at McMaster teaching several courses in Botany. During several summers he has been associated with Canadian government field laboratory work in doing botanical research especially at Lake Temagami in Ontario. According to his references Dr. Pady has an excellent teaching ability and has already accomplished much in research work. He is 30 years old and is married.