Christmas Vespers

The Christmas vespers given under the direction of Prof. Edgar Kerr, by the music department of Ottawa University, was held at the First Baptist church Sunday, December 13. The choir, ensemble, trio, and soloists, with Ruth Starns Kerr at the organ brought a richness of presentation and depth of interpretation to the numbers which ranged from the reflective, somber mood of "Madame Jeanette" to the joyous notes of the solo, "Joy to the World", written by Powell Weaver. The reading of the Christmas story by Dr. Ritchie was a satisfying ending for a time of spiritual exaltation in music.
