

GIVES TWO TEAS

MISS MACAULAY HONORS FRESHMEN AND SENIOR GIRLS

"Alice in Wonderland" was the theme of the tea given last Saturday afternoon by Miss Minnie Maude Macaulay in honor of the freshman girls. The tea was held at the home of Mrs. P. O. Hegberg. The guests were greeted at the door by Amy Hanks, dressed to represent "Alice in Wonderland" and Margaret Morrison, the "Bunny". More atmosphere was created by Mildred Wilson and Thelma Henshaw, who represented the "Doormouse", and the "Mad Hatter". Miss Macaulay gave a review of Lloyd Douglas' book "Green Lights", and refreshments of punch and macaroons were served from a table with a spring motif of pink and blue colors. Dorothy Searcy presided at the punch bowl.

At 4 p. m. Miss Macaulay entertained the senior girls, some out-of-town guests and townswomen. Ivalani Gault was a special guest in honor of the position which she secured recently to teach in Hawaii next year. Viola Heitschmidt, accompanied by Mrs. Ruth Kerr, sang "Spring", and Miss Macaulay read some Hawaiian poems. Refreshments of coffee, cakes and nuts were served the guests with Josephine Dalton presiding at the table.

During both hours the guests were introduced to Mrs. Alfred Stout, Mrs. P. O. Hegberg, Mrs. Rollo C. Speer and Mrs. W. P. Behan. Mary Louise Harris and Marjorie Schober assisted Miss Macaulay in introducing these special guests to the girls. Mary Ruth Treat and Ruth Parrish assisted in the dining room.

Girls helping in the kitchen were Wilma Long, Rowena Butler, Pallas Krist and Glendora Fitzmorris. Mary Rockenbach; Cleeta Harsh, Lael Graber and Viola Whiteker assisted upstairs.
