Holy Father, by whose hand

1. Holy Father, by whose hand There appeared sky, sea, and land,
2. Holy Jesus, Savior, Lord, Light from Light, Be thou adored!
3. Holy Spirit, move our frame, Burning Bush and Tongues of Flame;

Creation's winning loveliness--And our souls that we may bless:
Ceaseless radiance, loveliest ray, Shine within our minds, we pray--
Dove Divine, possess our hearts, Gentle strength, love's truth, impart;

Grant a portion of thy grace That we may now see thy face.
That redeemed by thy pure life We may conquer the world's night.
Sanctify the all we bring As Thrice-Holy now we sing.

Today is Trinity Sunday. For forty-five Trinity Sundays ago in the church of which he was pastor, Willis composed this hymn in connection with the dedication of the cross window over the altar. The hymn refers to elements in the window, which is reproduced in today's bulletin. The tune is the same as No. 34 ("For the beauty of the earth").
