NEWS FROM THE NORTHWEST PROVINCE OF PI KAPPA DELTA

Reporter: Larry K. Hannah

At the April meeting of the Northwest Province of Pi Kappa Delta held at the Shore Lodge in McCall, Idaho, a province constitution was ratified by the province members. Unique to this constitution was the creation of the office of Student Lieutenant Governor of the Province. After a considerable amount of heated campaigning, the membership elected Allan Louden of Montana State University as its charter Lieutenant (student) Governor. Allan, a native of Kalispell, Montana, is now beginning his junior year at Montana State University, Bozeman, majoring in government and history with the eventual intent of attending law school. He has been a member of the Montana Beta chapter of Pi Kappa Delta for two years. In addition to his work in Pi Kappa Delta, he is a member of the MSU Student Senate holding the office of Commissioner of Forensics and recently was campus chairman for the "Choice of '68" national college primaries.

Allan's initial statement includes the following comment, "As a student officer it is my hope that I can be a link between the coaches and the participants; I hope that I will be approachable at all times in hearing the students' problems and perhaps will be able to get some results."

Allan has set the goal for himself of contacting all Northwest Province chapters to secure their suggestions and comments for improving the 1970 Province convention. The best wishes of the Province go with him in establishing worthwhile precedents as the charter Student Lieutenant Governor Allan's forensics coach is former Forensic editor, Professor L. A. Lawrence.

Province of the Plains

Nineteen colleges and universities competed in the Pi Kappa Delta, Province of the Plains Tournament and Convention held at Fort Hays Kansas State College, March 29 and 30. Dan Miller, Director of Forensics at Fort Hays, was elected Governor of the Province for 1968-69.

Other new officers for the Province include Bob Kunkel of Kearney (Neb.) State College, Lieutenant Governor; and Don Swanson of Southern Colorado State College, Secretary-Treasurer.

Winning the Sweepstakes Trophy in Men's Division was Southwestern College of Winfield, Kansas. Top point getter in Women's Division and winner of the Sweepstakes trophy was Southern Colorado State College, Pueblo, Colorado.

Additional awards of Superior in Sweepstakes went to: Men's Division, Adams State College, Alamosa, Colorado, and Southern Colorado State College, Pueblo, Colorado. Women's Division, Kansas State College at Pittsburg, and Western State College, Gunnison, Colorado.

A total of seventeen Superior awards were given in debate, discussion, and individual events. In debate, two men's teams ranked Superior: Southwestern College and Fort Hays Kansas State College. The Superior women's team award went to Western State College, Colorado.

National Vice President of Pi Kappa Delta Francis Short, Kansas State College, presents Women's Sweepstakes Trophy to Southern Colorado State College.

In discussion, Miss Osborn of Midland Lutheran College, Fremont, Nebraska, Gutjahr of Adams State College, and Ferro of Colorado State College won Superior ratings.

Schlee of Kansas State College and Barber of Fort Hays Kansas State College were the two Superior women extempers. In men's extemp, Superior awards went to Farmer from Kansas State College and O'Neil from Western State College at Gunnison, Colorado.

In women's oral interpretation, Superior ratings were won by Pastory from Southern Colorado State College and De Mai of Western State College (Colo.). Taking the Superior honors in men's interp were Campbell of Southern Colorado State College and Klassen of Bethel College, Bethel, Kansas.

The Superior award in women's oratory went to Salerno of Southern Colorado State College and in men's division, the same rating was won by Schmidt of Midland Lutheran College and Unruh of Bethel College.

An executive committee was appointed by newly elected Governor Miller to complete the revisions of the Province Constitution, and planning is already underway to assure strong participation by the Province of the Plains in next year's National Convention and Tournament.

The Men's Sweepstake Trophy goes to Debate Coach Don Ewholm of Southwestern College at Winfield, Kansas, as presented by National Vice-President H. Francis Short.
