

CHRISTMAS PLAY MONDAY NIGHT

FINAL EVENT ON OTTAWA'S
JUBILEE PROGRAM

Two Presentations in Auditorium
Free to Public—Special Costumes, Music, Lighting

The Christmas play, "Why the Chimes Rang," will be presented Monday night in Memorial auditorium as the final event of the Christmas Jubilee program. The play will be given at 7:15 and again at 8:30 in order to assure everyone a chance to see it. Admission is free.

The play will be presented by the Ottawa Players under direction of Alice Gordon Wilson of Ottawa University. Scenery, costumes and lighting effects were designed and constructed by members of the Ottawa University dramatics production class.

The play is in the nature of a mystery, and elements of mystery are combined with the spirit of Christmas to make the production a fitting one for this season.

Speaking parts in the play will be taken by Bert Newland as Uncle Bertel, John Fowler as Holgar, Loretta Franks as the Old Woman, and Leon Paine as Steen. Other characters will be Howard Rounds as king, Bill Bowers as priest, Charlene Cheney as an angel, David Vancil as sage, Foster Rickenbacher as courtier, Marion Hogue as a young girl, Wilma Happy as a rich woman, and Robert Butler as a rich man.

Incidental music for the production will be under direction of Prof. Everette Fetter of Ottawa University. Stage assistants will be Paul Roten and Norman Lewis, with Gene Townsend in charge of lighting. Meldon Henshaw will be the prompter.

Fifteen minutes prior to each presentation of the play will be devoted to the singing of Christmas carols, under direction of Rev. W. I. Hastie of First Methodist church.

Play at K. C., Kas.—The Ottawa reserves will play Kansas City, Kas., junior college at Kansas City tonight. Coach Dick Godlove took a squad of 12 boys for the game.

BRAVES STAGE ROUSING FINISH

O. U. Defeats Morningside, 31-28, in Sioux City Tourney—Meets South Dakota U. Tonight.

Sioux City, Ia. (AP)—Ottawa, Kas., University and South Dakota University will play tonight for the championship in the annual Morningside invitational basketball tournament, each having won their encounters last night.

Ottawa staved off a last minute rally by Morningside to win 31 to 28. The Kansans led 13 to 11 at the half but near the finish dropped behind. Omer Brenton, giant center, tipped in a basket for a 1-point lead with only 45 seconds to go. For good measure the Kansans added another. Meek, Ottawa, was high with 10 points.

Going into the final minute Morningside held a 1-point lead, but with 30 seconds to go Brenton made a twisting pivot shot to drop the ball through the net. In the following wild scramble for the ball, Meek broke loose for a set-up in the last three seconds to put the game on ice.

Meek's first basket sent Ottawa into an early lead and by the end of the quarter his team led 9 to 3. A second period rally by Morningside brought the score to 13 to 11 for Ottawa at the half. Playing hard ball, both teams stayed in the nip-and-tuck game right to the finish. With five minutes to go, the Braves held a 26 to 22 lead. Michaleson, Maroon star, counted two in a row to tie the score before Bob Brenton swished a free throw to gain a 1-point lead. Shortly before the final minute Snyder dropped in a long one to give his team a margin that lasted until the stretch drive by Brenton and Meek.

South Dakota turned back Cornell, Iowa, 42 to 23 in the other game. The winners will play tonight at 7:30, the losers at 9 p. m.

South Dakota U., 37-30—Big Lead in First Half

Sioux City, Ia. (AP)—Ottawa University's clicking quintet walked away with the Morningside College basketball tournament, defeating South Dakota U. 37 to 30 last night in the finals.

The Kansans put the game away the first half, going into the intermission with a 22 to 12 lead. South Dakota reserves had more luck against Ottawa the second half and once came within four points of the lead.

Cornell, Ia., took third place by defeating Morningside 27 to 16.

Coach Dick Godlove's Ottawa Braves were to move on to Sioux Falls, S. D., tonight to play the Sioux Falls College team before returning to Ottawa. Dr. Warren P. Behan, formerly of O. U., is president of Sioux Falls College.

There is no doubt that Washburn, St. Benedict's, Pittsburg, Emporia State, Baker and Ottawa, would probably form a handy circuit. There wouldn't be over a 175-mile trip from rim to rim; bringing to a minimum the all-night expense. And the playing strength over a ten-year period probably would be as near equal as we have in our present conferences. Baker and Ottawa, smaller schools in this proposed set-up, are little giants in athletics and pretty apt to remain that way. Of course, there are present

O. U. SQUAD BACK, TIRED BUT HAPPY

Cleaned Up on Its Trip, Winning Final Game at Sioux Falls, 39 to 33—At McPherson Saturday.

A tired, though effective, Ottawa University basketball team made a complete sweep of its 3-game northern trip by trimming Sioux Falls (S. D.) College, 39 to 33, in a ragged, thrill-packed battle Saturday night. Previously the Braves had downed Morningside College, 31 to 28, and South Dakota University, 37 to 30.

After allowing the Sioux Falls Braves to break the scoring ice, the Ottawa Braves went to work and on five quick goals by Omer Brenton and counters by Don Meek and Lyman Morgan gained an 18 to 7 lead at the quarter. As the second quarter opened, the Northerners came to life and battled back into the game as the traveling Otta-wans noticeably felt the effects of their long trip. Screening and hitting the home basket effectively, they brought the score to 23 to 24 as the half ended. Omer Brenton went out of the game on fouls shortly before the melee reached the midway point. Four minutes after the third period started, Goodbarn, a taller center than Brenton, left the Sioux Falls lineup on fouls.

Coach Dick Godlove sent in Walt Reames to handle the center spot, and Reames, lacking in experience at the position came through for the boys, not with goals but with good defensive play. Early in the third period, the Ottawans pulled themselves together, perhaps profiting from a between-halves lecture by Godlove, and quickly had control of the game.

The reliable Morgan dropped in a neat one to set the boys in motion. Bob Schupbach and Reames dropped in free tosses; then Meek and Swetnam came through with sizzlers while the Dakotans were scoring a lone basket. As the quarter ended, Morgan iced the game with a long one at 35 to 27.
About all the boys did down the final stretch was to play conservative ball and hold off the driving Sioux Falls team.

The boys returned late yesterday from their long trip and were ready to start preparation for their next Kansas conference game, with McPherson at McPherson
Saturday night.

O. U. SPORTS NOTES

Ottawa University basketball settled down to a week of hard practice yesterday in preparation for a game with the McPherson Bulldogs at McPherson Saturday.
They returned last Sunday afternoon from their northern trip on which they defeated Morningside College, South Dakota University and Sioux Falls College.

The big victory of the trip was chalked up over South Dakota, a team which is doped to win the North Central conference championship. In that game the Otta-wans for 14 minutes were a great ball club running up an 18 to 3 score. Then they let down and Dakota came within one point of catching them in the third quarter. In the stretch, the Braves poured on the power and came through the winner, 37 to 30.

Interpretation of rules in the north seems to permit more body contact than in this section. The Morningside game was particularly rough, more like a football game. It was in that fray that Jack Ramsey, forward, sustained a shoulder injury and will be lost to the Ottawans for several weeks.
The Iowans apparently were proud of their rules interpretation and were particularly sensitive about even mild objections, as if to say,
"We can't help it, if you Kansans have the wrong interpretations."
Well, when in Rome, play as rough as the Romans, and do the Romans up brown when they come to your bailiwick.

"Curly" Woodward, freshman forward from Melvern, broke into the lineup only once on the trip and swished the first shot he tried, but about that time he lost his man, the latter scoring on a setup; so he went to the bench after two minutes of participation. Anyway, said "Curly", it was a good trip. An opinion which was held by all the trippers, except that no one appreciated the "normal" winter weather up there with the thermometer dropping below zero.
Roads were fine, and the squad drove in perfect weather encountering no rain or snow.

Sensation of the week was the fact that Hoff of Bethel made 33 points to send his team to a non-conference victory over Kansas Wesleyan, 50 to 44, the Graymarooms thereby capturing the invitation tournament at McPherson.
The Braves are justly glad that they have a victory chalked up over Bethel.

ADDRESSED COLLEGE GIRLS

Miss Elizabeth Bement of the Business and Professional Women's Club spoke before the Kappa Tau Delta College, girls' group last night on "Vocations for Women in the Business World." She explained how a girl should prepare for the chosen field, what to expect in the field, how to succeed, and where to get information about new fields open to women.
Each girl wrote what she was preparing to do and also what she really wanted to do. An interesting discussion was held on this information. Copies of the national magazine of the B. and P.
W. Club, the Independent Woman, were distributed for study.

The Kappa Tau meeting was held at the home of Mrs. F. E.
Burris 812 South Main. The committee in charge of the supper was Misses Byrene Messer, Wanda Janssen and Elizabeth Richard.

Dr. R. H. Ritchie gave a talk on parliamentary law and supervised a practice meeting according to Roberts Rules of Order.

Miss Astrid Carlson is president of the group and Miss Min-

O. U. RESERVES GET MUCH WORK

Godlove Conditioning Them For Extensive Service in the McPherson Game.

Coach Dick Godlove this week has been giving his Ottawa University Reserves long hours of drill, aiming at conditioning several of them for extensive use in the Kansas conference basketball race, which gets under way again this week with the Braves going to McPherson Saturday night.

After the workout, he seemed to think that maybe some of his protoges had shown some progress. Bob Brenton, freshman center prospect, seems better able to work under the basket than before.
Willard Beaman, a smooth ball handler always, seems to be coming through with needed drive and could easily be a valuable asset as the race progresses. T. C. Bundy, a scrappy, short sophomore, is again teasing Godlove with apparent ability to do things on the basketball court minus his customary slam-banging all over the floor. Once he steadies down, he is apt to see service aplenty.

Godlove will probably take a dozen men on the trip with him to the west, making the jaunt in cars. He is confident that the Bulldogs will put up a fairly good scrap with their so-called "precision" type ball. Up to now Coach Pierce Astle's boys have not been able to hit the basket effectively.
Once they get the range, they may make it tough on any opponent, and where else could they better start than on their own court?
Dave McGill, sterling Bulldog guard, will be the focal point of the western team's play.

Unbeaten Braves Invade McPherson Camp Saturday

Ottawa, Kan., Jan. 4.—(Special) —Undeclared in six starts this season, the Ottawa University Braves journey to McPherson Saturday night to meet McPherson college in their second conference encounter of the year. They have already defeated Bethel College in an early season conference game, 40 to 24.

LYLE SWETNAM

The Braves returned Sunday from a Northern holiday trip, during which they defeated Morningside College, South Dakota University and Sioux Falls College, minus the services of Jack Ramsey, sophomore forward who suffered a knocked-down shoulder in the Morningside contest. He will be out for a least a week.

Coach Dick Godlove considers the game at McPherson a tossup, since his charges are not yet in the best of shape, and the new "precision-type" of ball which is played by the Bulldogs makes it necessary that opponents be in top physical trim. Add to that the fact that Ottawa and McPherson always play close, hard-fought games, the teams having tied along with Kansas Wesleyan for the conference crown last year. Godlove expects to start Lyman Morgan and Don Meek at forwards, Omer Brenton at center, and Lyle Swetnam and Bob Schupbach at guards.

Others making the trip include Gonser, Woodward, and Beaman, forwards; Reams, Bundy, and Pendergast, guards; and B. Brenton and MacMurray, centers.

Jan. 5

On Trip.—President Andrew B. Martin of Ottawa University left early this afternoon for Louisville, Ky., where he will attend meetings of American Association of Colleges, Council of Church Related Colleges, and presidents of Baptist colleges. He expects to return to Ottawa on Friday or Saturday.

BRAVES TO PLAY McPHERSON TEAM

Meet in Conference Game at McPherson Tonight—Bulldogs Have Always Been Tough.

Ottawa University basketball will reopen their Kansas conference season tonight against a team that has always given the Braves trouble, McPherson College, at McPherson. Dating from far back when tall, slim Melvin Miller led the Bulldogs in close victories over Ottawa at the time when such men as Cliff Binns and Frank Kepner were on the local roster, most of the tussles have been close and hard fought.

Tomorrow night might find a repetition of any one of those historic games, for the Bulldogs have shown flashes of power and might manage to pull enough of those flashes together to make out a full game.

Fans here still recall a great ball game of 1930 when the Bulldogs defeated Ottawa here, 38 to 26, but only after a terrific battle in the first half. Frank Kepner, ace Ottawa forward, was a hot shot in the first five minutes, standing far out on the court and dropping six long shots through the net from a favorite spot over on the east side of the university gym. He cooled off, however, and Melvin Miller and his cohorts went to work and finally overcame the big lead to win the game, displaying some of the form which made the Bulldogs that year one of the "greats" of all-time conference basketball.

There is that game in 1935 which the fans will recall, played in the junior high gym. Ottawa bristled with the charge that was to make them a championship team. Led by Gerald Barker, the Braves turned back the Bulldogs, 33 to 30, at a time when the McPherson team was slated to go through for the title.

Fans will remember any number of other games of such calibre that all contests between the two teams can be counted as conference court classics.

FILIPINO DINNER

Prof. and Mrs. Edgar Kerr and daughter Betty Ruth entertained a few friends last evening at their home at a Filipino dinner. The dinner was prepared and served at 7 o'clock by a native of the Philippine Islands, Miss Anita Aurelio. Miss Aurelio is a junior in Ottawa University, and after she finishes her course here next year she will return to her native land. She is engaged to a young doctor, who spent eleven years studying in the United States and is now on the staff of a hospital there. The articles prepared for the dinner by Miss Aurelio were sutfanghon (sea food), portamayo (rice and shredded cocconut) and mongo (Filipino beans), and according to Filipino custom, this food was eaten with spoons. The guests were Dr. and Mrs. Harold Conrad and Prof. and Mrs. Everett Fetter.

Jan. 7

The Delta Phi Deltas entertained their dates to a theater party at the Plaza last night to see "The Citadel." After the show the group went to the home of the Rev. J. E. Woods where refreshments were served. Mr. Ernest Woods is social chairman of the club. The following couples were present: Misses Peggy McCartney, Pearl Woolfolk, Wanda Janssen, Virginia Holman, Maxine Barber, Grace McWilliam, Wilma Apgar, Jane Woodworth, Ruth Lare, Esther Pinson, Virginia Wise, Jean Griffith, Julia Fowler, Mary Lister and Velma Heitschmidt; Messrs. Loren Noren, Ernest Woods, Wallace Hutchins, Raymond Gray, Earl Lancaster, Warren Adams, Glen Betschart, Jesse Teel, Ross Ryan, Willard Beaman, Fred Meinen, Bob Fisher, Bobby Noren, Earl Arnett and George Hendrixson.

ANOTHER LOOP VICTORY IN BAG

O. U. Beat McPherson, 47 to 35—Haskell Here Wednesday, O. U. at Emporia Thursday.

Scoring 26 points in the first 13 minutes of play, Ottawa University defeated McPherson College, 47 to 35, Saturday night at McPherson for the second conference victory of the season. It marked the seventh triumph for the Braves in as many starts. Wednesday night, the Ottawans will meet Haskell in a game at 7:30 on the junior high court.

The Bulldogs opened the scoring at McPherson with a quick basket counted within 10 seconds after the opening whistle, and immediately set out upon a stick-to-your-man type of offense, with close guarding almost all over the entire court. The Braves messed around a bit and then settled down to work. Taking advantage of the scattering Bulldog play they fast-broke or effectively screened to allow Lyman Morgan, Omer Brenton, Don Meek, T. C. Bundy and Bob Schupbach to pile up a 26 to 5 count in the first 13 minutes of play.

At that point Coach Dick Godlove, desiring to give his reserves a chance to benefit from actual game experience, sent in the entire second string. They played the rest of the first half, failing to score but holding the shell-shocked McPherson team to five free throws, the count being 26 to 10 at the halfway mark.

The first string came back into the Ottawa lineup to open the second half but were ineffective in holding down a sharpshooting Bulldog team which started hitting the basket quickly and kept it up for a few minutes, running the score to 29 to 23 before the Ottawans collected themselves and found the range to ride on to victory. The Bulldogs in that rally also changed their defensive tactics, shooting a zone at the Ottawa offensive thrusts. Momentarily it upset the Braves, but not for long as they soon solved the set-up and punctured it for enough points to keep in a safe lead, although they were completely off their scoring eye and missed a large number of baskets.

Omer Brenton up to his best with 16 points scoring. Morgan Meek 10 points ing into the g nam who had ed three baskets. The game w 9:30, giving S ers a chance to over until 10:4 of many irate tions as fans c can coffee shop was not forthc 11 o'clock.

PRIMING FOR HASKELL

O. U. Braves Meet Indians Here Tomorrow Night.

Haskell Indians invade Ottawa tomorrow night for a basketball game with Ottawa University on the junior high school court at 7:30. The locals have already registered one victory over the Indians and are expected to come through again, but competition is expected to be stiffer due to Haskell having back in the lineup two or three who were home on Christmas vacations at the time of the last contest.

High point of interest to fans will be the activities of one "Chicken" Big Bear, a little Indian who seems to have what it takes to amuse the crowd. His style of play is a bit unorthodox but extremely effective at times. Long shots, fired from way back while "Chicken" is on the move in his own particular manner, excite the crowd. And it might be said that Big Bear seems to be the answer to every Indian maiden's prayer. The feminine section of the rooting stands at the game in Lawrence called and shouted to him constantly. So long as "Chicken" is in the game, there are no dull minutes, score or no score.

Coach Dick Godlove indicated he will probably start the same crew which has been working in most of the games of late: Meek and Morgan at forwards, Omer Brenton at center, and Swetnam and Schupbach at guards.

Thursday night the Braves go to Emporia for a game with College of Emporia Presbies.

Jan. 10

It will be Haskell Indians standing in front of the undefeated Ottawa University Braves tonight on the junior high school court in a basketball game scheduled to start at 7:30. Once before the two teams met and Ottawa emerged the victor by a lop-sided score. That story will not be repeated, because the Lawrence team will have services of two or three more players than they had last time.

Bob Schupbach has come up with a foot injury which may keep him out of the contest tonight, and if he does not play, the chances are strong that T. C. Bundy, who has been moving out in recent games, will take his place. In the McPherson game, Bundy counted three baskets. He registered six in the reserve game against Iola junior college Monday night.

Others in the opening lineup will probably be Omer Brenton at center, Lyman Morgan and Don Meek at forwards, and Lyle Swetnam at guard.

The game tonight will be the last home appearance of the Ottawans until January 27 when C. of E. comes here for a game.

Tomorrow evening the Braves go to Emporia for a conference encounter with C. of E. Last night the Presbies poured a 51 to 27 defeat over Baker, one of the favored teams in the cage race. In accomplishing the victory, the Emporians displayed a cannonball fast-break coupled with accurate shooting, especially on the part of Frazer and Steve Sharpe. On defense they held to a rigid zone which puzzled Baker. Definitely, they are a threat to the Ottawans.

A high-geared Ottawa University team swept through a scattering Haskell Indian defense last night and piled up a 56 to 17 victory on the junior high court in a non-conference game. Lyle Swetnam, firing from long range and going in for set-ups, led the Ottawa scoring parade with 12 points. It was the first time in his college career that the senior guard has been high point man of a game.

Most of the scoring was fairly well evened up as far as the Braves were concerned. The boys started their barrage early and kept firing away all during the game. After running up a 22 to 2 lead in the first quarter, their pace slackened and Haskell held the scoring even at six points each in the second period.

Returning to the last half, the Ottawans put on a bit more pressure and the score was pushed up to 39 to 12. Led by Swetnam, who counted three set-up baskets in quick succession, they sailed through the last quarter scoring almost at will.

It was a good game to watch as far as the fans who like their basketball were concerned. It gave Ottawa a chance to work in smooth fashion numerous single and double screen plays which sent men into the basket for wide-open shots. Against stronger teams, a squad cannot work the screens so smoothly because defensive men either slide off the blocks or trade men whom they are guarding. Consequently, last night it was easy to see just how the Ottawa plays are supposed to work.

Tonight Ottawa goes to Emporia for a game with the uprising C. of E. quintet. It is apt to be an important Kansas conference tilt as Emporia might easily come up to make a bid for the championship. In trouncing Baker Tuesday night, the Presbies sounded a warning that they will be tough and difficult to handle in the pinches tonight. Frazer and Steve Sharpe are the big guns on the team and will be problem-children as far as the Ottawa defense is concerned.

Coach Dick Godlove will probably start the customary five in the game which starts at 7:30, Brenton at center, Meek and Morgan at forwards, Swetnam and Schupbach at guards. After the varsity game, the reserves will battle the Emporia Reserves.

GODLOVE WHIPS TEAM IN SHAPE

Morgan, Ramsey, Brenton, Swetnam, Meek, Harding and Others Will Play Against Bethel.

Coach Dick Godlove sent his Ottawa University Braves through a long, tough and rough workout yesterday afternoon in preparation for the game with Bethel College in junior high gym next Friday evening at 7:30. The game will open the Kansas conference season.

Many combinations were used in the latter part of the practice session as Godlove looked on in an effort to spot a workable crew. One five which clicked had Morgan and Ramsey at forwards, Omer Brenton at center, Swetnam and Meek at guards. Two new forwards, who also will see service at the center spot, got into action, Willard Beaman and Durl Gonser, and looked to spectators as if they might have something.

Harding worked out at a guard spot to good advantage. Three guards who numeraled last season also saw service with what could be called the first team, Bob Schupbach, T. C. Bundy and Walter Reames.

Bob Brenton, a freshman, was used at a center and a guard post. Another yearling, Don Pendergrast, was tried at guard and forward. Glen Woodward, also a freshman, worked out at forward. Wendell McMurray, son of Guy McMurray who is now Fort Scott junior college coach and was once an O. U. athlete, took a try at center and forward.

In other words, Godlove was doing a bit of talent scouting last night. He finished rather definitely of the opinion that there is a lot of talent around, but that it has a long way to go before Friday night.

KAPPA TAU DELTA PARTY

Freshman members of Kappa Tau Delta of Ottawa University entertained the other members of the club and their dates at a party last night following the basketball game. It was held at the First Baptist church, where the decorations were red and green balloons and streamers and a lighted star in the east. Games and securing humorous gifts from a Christmas tree formed the diversion. Holiday ideas were also carried out in the refreshments of sandwiches, cakes and hot chocolate, and the favors were red lighted candles in white marshmallow holders. Miss Alma Maude McWilliams was the general chairman in charge, and other committees chairmen were: Program, Misses, Velma Heitschmidt and Byrene Messer; refreshments, Misses Nelle Koons, Darlene Rasmussen and Virginia Edwards; invitations, Misses Thelma Graves and Barbara McNeel. Miss Minnie Macaulay, sponsor, and the following other members and guests were present:

CENTER POST PLAY BACK IN GAME HERE

New Rules Permit Return to Old Style—Bethel To Be Tough for O. U. Tomorrow Night.

Basketball fans who used to like the old center post style of play may get a chance to see it come back Friday night when Bethel College and Ottawa University open the Kansas conference season on the junior high court.

For several years it has been against the rules for a member of the offensive team—the one with the ball—to stay in the free throw circle or lane for more than three seconds. A revision this year permits an offensive player to stay in the outer half of the circle as long as he desires so long as he does not have possession of the ball in which case he can stay in the circle for the customary time. But the new ruling does permit a return to an extent, at least, of the center post style of play.

Another rule, among many minor changes, refers to the center line division. A team on offense may keep the ball in the back court, as usual, 10 seconds. Under the rules this year he must be completely across the line within that time. He still will be in the back court if he is astride or on the dividing marker.

The Braves had another long workout yesterday and will finish preparation with a light one tonight. Maybe they have not had enough, says Coach Dick Godlove, but they will do the best they can.

That Bethel will be a tough foe there can be no doubt. The Gray-maroons were good last year, enough so to beat Ottawa, and this week they will be playing their first Kansas conference contest since they were admitted to the circuit last Friday. That will be enough fire to boost any team up a few notches.

General admission to the game will be 50 cents. Tickets may be purchased at the Davis-Wassmer clothing store or North American coffee shop. Children will be admitted for 10 cents and high school students for 25 cents.

Ottawa Opens Loop Play With Bethel

Ottawa, Kan., Dec. 7.—(Special)—Ottawa University will open its Kansas Conference season Friday night against Bethel College in Ottawa. The early season conference game was made necessary due to the circuit extending membership to Bethel at a meeting last week.

Coach Dick Godlove has seven lettermen available for his squad this season and has several possibilities in the way of new candidates. The veterans are Lyman Morgan of Leavenworth, Omer Brenton, Jack Ramsey, and Llye Swetnam of Kansas City; Eugene Harding of Leocompton, Don Meek of Fort Scott, and Quincy Seymour of Ottawa. In addition to these, three squad men who numbered last year are available: Robert Schupbach of Ottawa, Walter Reames of Leavenworth, and T. C. Bundy of Drexel, Mo.

New men out who show promise are Willard Beaman of Leon, Durl Gonser of Kansas City, Don Pendergrast of Topeka, and Glen Woodward of Melvern.

The schedule:

Dec. 9—Bethel at Ottawa.
Dec. 15—St. Benedict's at Ottawa.
Dec. 26—Haskell at Lawrence.
Dec. 28—Tarkio at Tarkio.
Dec. 29—Sioux City tournament.
Dec. 30—Sioux City tournament.
Dec. 31—Sioux Falls, S. D., College at Sioux Falls.
Jan. 7—McPherson at McPherson.
Jan. 11—Haskell at Ottawa.
Jan. 12—College of Emporia at Emporia.
Jan. 18—Baker at Baldwin.
Jan. 27—College of Emporia at Ottawa.
Feb. 2—Kansas Wesleyan at Salina.
Feb. 3—Bethany at Lindsborg.
Feb. 10—McPherson at Ottawa.
Feb. 16—Kansas Wesleyan at Ottawa.
Feb. 18—Bethel at Newton.
Feb. 22—St. Benedict's at Atchison.
Feb. 25—Bethany at Ottawa.
Feb. 28—Baker at Ottawa.

Government money the past few years has sprouted many needed basketball courts thruout Kansas and the game will improve as a result. A few football stadiums in state schools also are in evidence but these could be doubled and still be insufficient. Ottawa U., for instance, is badly in need of a stadium to replace its poorly appointed field. And since the money would have to come from contributions alone, this might be the year to start such a project. The alumni have fresh memories of that undefeated, untied season. C. of E., Bethany and Kansas Wesleyan also could use modern plants.

O. U. WINS ITS COURT OPENER

Bethel Held Braves in First Half,
But Locals Pulled Away—
Final Score 40 to 24.

The Ottawa University Braves, after an all-victorious football season, rang up the curtain on their 1938 basketball season by trouncing Bethel College, 40 to 24, last night on the junior high school court. It was Bethel's first appearance as a member of the Kansas conference.

The Bethel team made a game of it during the first half, which ended with the Braves leading, 22 to 20. However, in the second half the Ottawa quintet tightened its defense and the Graymaroons failed to register a single field goal while the Braves built up a comfortable lead.

The game started cautiously. Nearly two minutes had elapsed before Horst registered the first goal of the game for Bethel. Jack Ramsey scored the first Ottawa goal four minutes after the game started, and from then on it was nip-and-tuck until the end of the half.

Bethel led only once during the game, in the first quarter when the Graymaroons took a brief 6 to 5 advantage. Several times they pulled up within one or two points of Ottawa, but could go no farther.

At the start of the second half Bethel knotted the count at 22-all on free hrows by Horst and Friesen, but from then on the Braves went to work and pulled steadily away.

Omer Brenton, Ottawa center, took high scoring honors with 13 points. Brenton scored most of his points on rebound shots and played a good game under the basket. Hoff was the spark plug of the Bethel team, caging 11 points. Lyman Morgan and Jack Ramsey were the other big guns in the Ottawa scoring.

Coach Dick Godlove played numerous substitutes in the last half. Two seniors who played regularly last season, Harding and Mattis, are missing from the squad. They elected not to play this season.

Ottawa Cagers Romp Over Bethel, 40-24

Ottawa, Kan., Dec. 9.—(A. P.)—Bethel College, of Newton, made an inauspicious debut in Kansas conference athletics tonight, dropping a basketball game to Ottawa University, 24 to 40.

The first half was fairly even, ending with a 22-20 Ottawa advantage, but in their second half the Braves pulled away with superior floor work and marksmanship, holding the visitors to but four points.

BENEDICTS TO MEET BRAVES

A Basketball Game Scheduled For Thursday Night—Last Home Game Until January.

For the first time in several years, three to be exact, Ottawa University athletes will meet a basketball team from St. Benedict's College Thursday night on the junior high school court. It will be a doubleheader attraction with the Braves reserve team meeting Iola junior college in a preliminary at 7 o'clock. The main go should get under way at 8:30.

The Ravens over a period of several years have established in Kansas an enviable athletic record. Perhaps their basketball has not measured up to their football, but in two years they have come up considerably as a hoop squad and so should be in a position to give the locals quite a battle.

This is the last home game for Ottawa until far down the schedule in the month of January. After meeting the Ravens the squad will have a brief vacation and then return to practice for a game on December 27 with Haskell at Lawrence. The next day the boys will leave for Sioux City, Ia., where they will participate in a 4-team tournament with Morningside, South Dakota University and Cornell College. January 7, the Braves will resume Kansas conference competition against McPherson at McPherson.

Right now the Braves by virtue of their victory over Bethel stand at the top of the Kansas conference and will remain there for about three weeks.

The crowd at the Bethel game was one of the largest opening-of-the-season groups ever to give the Braves a sendoff.

FOR RHODES SCHOLARSHIP

Robert Steiger of O. U. Interviewed As A Candidate

Robert Steiger, Ottawa University senior from Eldorado, was one of 18 students being interviewed in Lawrence today by the state Rhodes scholarship committee. Two men will be selected from the group to represent Kansas in district competition to be held in Des Moines, Ia., in mid-January. From that contest, in which six states will be represented, four men will be selected for scholarships in Oxford, England.

Members of the committee are: Chancellor E. H. Lindley, chairman; W. D. P. Carey, Hutchinson; Emory Lindquist, Lindsay; F. B. Bristow, Salina; W. E. Sandelius, Lawrence, and Robert Lasch, Omaha, Nebr.

SMOOTHING OUT BRAVES' PLAY

St. Benedict's Here Thursday Night—Braves Like Return of Pivot Post.

Ottawa University will make its second basketball appearance Thursday night against the St. Benedict's Ravens on the junior high court at 8:30, the O. U. Reserves opening the evening's entertainment at 7 o'clock with Iola junior college furnishing the opposition.

The Braves were not satisfied with themselves in the Bethel game, and neither was Coach Dick Godlove. So yesterday afternoon the squad worked out hard and long and will continue the same idea today. Not that the squad is discouraged, not at all. They figure that their play was ragged and that only crisp workouts will remedy the situation.

Fans and football experts seem to be all riled up about the return of the pivot post in the free throw circle to the game of basketball. For years upon years, teams stuck a center in the free circle or lane and then ran plays around him. Then some of the idealists of basketball, figuring against rough play, got together and abolished that pivot post idea by making it illegal to stay in the free throw circle on offense longer than three seconds.

Fans observed last week that the rule of five years' standing had been modified and that the Ottawa University center or the Bethel pivot man, whichever team had the ball, was allowed to remain in the outer half of the circle as long as he wanted to so long as he did not have the ball in which case he could stay only the usual three seconds.

The Braves like the new idea, or modification, and will make use of it again in the game against St. Benedict's and more than likely the Ravens will do the same. Ottawa will not use it exclusively, but will vary offensive tactics considerably.

The big game will be prefaced by the O. U. Reserves playing Iola junior college at 7 o'clock. Completely away from the practice of having a preliminary game, the Ottawa athletic department decided to play the Juco game first in this case in order that the Iolans might be on their way a bit earlier as they have a game the following night.

The Ottawa University girl students who live at the Iota Psi house held a Christmas dinner party last night at 6:30 o'clock. Red candles in crystal candelabra were the decorations, and a red and green color scheme was carried out. The evening was spent with an exchange of gifts, arranged about a Christmas tree, and games. Beside Mrs. J. J. Bay, house matron, those present were: Misses Martha Brown, Evelyn Huber, Grace McWilliams, Anita Aurelio, Juanita Brent, Ruth Wimmer, Dorothy Herrin, Jewell Briggs, Florence Lewman, Marlee Fishburn, June Deakin, Ruth Rynners, Virginia Wise and Juanita Henderson.

Dec. 14

The annual Christmas formal dinner for Ottawa University girl students who live at Charlton Cottage was given last night at 6 o'clock, with Mrs. Maud Goll as hostess. Small Christmas trees were used as centerpieces. The place cards were attached to blue and silver streamers, leading to the foot of a Christmas tree and the gifts presented the girls by Mrs. Goll. Blue and white candles provided the illumination. The invited list included: Misses Roberta Harrill, Helen Foote, Helen Adams, Lucille Wright, Adeline Valando, Ethel Mae Schober, Harriet Gault, Hazel Marie Ward, Lois Billett, Beth Gault, Bette Jo Krehbiel, Julia Fowler, Charlene Chaney, Betty May Smith, Joy Balyeat, Maxine Clark, Juanita Harrill, Anna Mary Hale, Ruth Wedepohl, Edith Wilson, Grace Erion, Dorothy Coad, Edith Moffatt, Eleanor Edwards, Miriam Kinderdick, Florence Noble, Virginia Hutton, Lela Burd, Geneva Anderson, Lucille Childers, Frances Gentry, Jeanne Abels, Helen Duvall, Mrs. Ralph Harris, Mrs. A. O. U. RESERVES LOOKING GOOD Show Up Well in Practice For St. Benedict's Game Here Tomorrow Night.

For the first time in three years Ottawa will meet St. Benedict's College of Atchison, Thursday evening on junior high school court at 8:30. Athletic contests in recent years have not been many between the two schools. In eight years the football teams have met twice and basketball teams have met three or four times. St. Benedict's holding the supremacy in football and Ottawa in basketball. The Reserves will play Iola junior college starting at 7 o'clock.

Tonight in Atchison the Ravens meet Pittsburg Teachers in the first game of the year, and so the Braves will learn something of the power which they are up against. Reports indicate the Ravens have a team of big, fast men capable of playing good basketball.

Some of the younger Braves who numeraled last year have been playing the type of ball which will take spectators' eyes this winter. Walter Reames is one. He is big, plays tackle on the football team, and is not considered the gentle type on the court. He gets the ball a lot, passes well and up to now seldom scores, but there will come a day, says Walter. Robert Schupbach, the fellow with a flaming red crest, is booming along as a guard who can stick with his man, check when necessary and is improving right along from the scoring angle. T. C. Bundy is the third of the group. He is a quick starter, guards well and scoots about the floor like a wire-haired terrier.

From these, Coach Godlove will draw heavily this year and should not be disappointed. These, of course, do not eliminate the new men of whom Willard Beaman and Durl Gonser are the most outstanding.

Two hundred students and members of the Ottawa University faculty attended the annual Cosmopolitan banquet last night at the Ottawa Country Club. It was sponsored by the modern and ancient language departments of the university, under the supervision of Miss Lula Brown, Miss Neile R. Buchanan and Dr. A. P. Wikgren. Mr. Leonard Fergus was general chairman in charge of arrangements and acted as toastmaster.

The program was featured by the giving of Christmas greetings in twelve different languages by various students and group singing in three different languages, Latin, French and German. Three short skits were given; a Latin skit, "Seven Dwarfs in Ottawa," led by Mr. Melvin Erickson, a German skit, "The Barber's Apprentice," and a short one-act play given by the O. U. Players, under the direction of Miss Dorothy Madtson, entitled "Love in a French Kitchen." Musical numbers were furnished by a French choir of twelve voices, singing "Cantique Noel"; several members of the University choir, singing a Latin number, "Hodie Hodie Christus Natus Est"; and by Anita Aurelio, who sang "La Estrellita."

Decorations followed the Christmas theme, and were in charge of Miss Donna Lee Hamm. Other committee chairmen were: Mr. Warren Adams, tickets; Miss Dortha Miller, dinner; Miss Juanita Henderson, program; Mr. Everett Sugarbaker, publicity; and Miss Nelda Budde, transportation.

When Ottawa University basketball team steps out on the court to meet St. Benedict's College tonight at 8:30 at the junior high school gym, fans will see that Santa Claus has not forgotten the Braves. He may not give them the game, but he has already produced a new outfit of suits and warm-ups.

You will see the warm-ups first. The tops are gleaming black silk trimmed here and there with yellow silk, and the pants are black knit with a wide yellow stripe down the legs.

The playing suits are similar to the customary black trimmed in yellow riggings always worn by the Braves, but they have a touch of red edging which sets them off in class, if not classic, style. Altogether, you can figure that the Braves are to be one of the best dressed teams on the court this season.

St. Benedict's in losing, 31 to 40, last night, to a great Pittsburg Teachers team, definitely placed itself in the realm of good teams and is expected to be a stiff test for the Braves. Foran, forward, and Andrews, guard, led the Raven attack. The Atchison school has come a long way in basketball the last three years and will bring to Ottawa tonight a team which can play ball with any college quintet in these parts.

Coach Dick Godlove will probably start Jack Ramsey and Lyman Morgan at forwards, Omer Brenton at center, and Lyle Swetnam and Don Meek at guards. He will probably hold out about five subs from the Reserve game for use in the varsity game.

Reserves Lost to Iola J. C.
Ottawa University Reserves lost a razzle-dazzle basketball game to a flashy Iola junior college team last night on the junior high court, 39 to 47. The Iolans went into an early lead and were never headed in the free scoring melee. Herring, Nokes and Plough led the scoring for the Jucos assisted by the fine floor game of King.

The feature of the Ottawa play was the basket flipping of the freshman, Glen Woodward of Melvern, who collected eight neat pokes at the basket and two free throws. Most of his shots were from long range. He flipped one basket seated on the floor.

O. U. STUDENTS LEAVE

Departed For Homes Today For Christmas Vacation

"Heigh ho, heigh ho and off to home we'll go," was the song of the day at Ottawa University as students attended last class sessions of 1938 and hustled out of town for homes throughout Kansas and other middle-western states. The students will return January 2.

Most of the faculty members will remain in Ottawa during the vacation period, at least until after the faculty Christmas dinner to be held next Monday evening.

Locals Erratic on Shots But Show Fine Defense and Offence—Reserves Lost to Iola Jucos.

An Ottawa University basketball team, intermittently finding the scoring range, drove its way to a 39 to 25 victory over St. Benedict's College of Atchison last night on the junior high school court.

The Braves were not exactly hot at the basket, but linked close guarding and a confident offensive to put the game on ice in the second quarter after having a tight tussle with the Ravens in the first period which ended with the score knotted at 6-all.

Tall Omer Brenton led the Ottawa scoring with 11 points, getting that many before he went out on fouls in the middle of the last quarter. The rest of the Ottawa scoring was fairly well divided among the others of the squad. Lyman Morgan ranked next to Brenton with seven points. Corbett with seven points led the scoring for the Atchison school.

The game started with both teams playing cautious ball, Ottawa jumping into an early lead. Near the end of the second quarter Ottawa shook loose in a scoring spree with Morgan and Brenton leading the way to a 16 to 8 margin at the half.

The second period found the Ravens abandoning their first half conservative defense to come out and tag the Braves wherever the ball was in play. This proved to the Ottawa liking, for after a few minutes spent in overcoming a Raven rally, they started hitting baskets and taking advantage of numerous free throw opportunities. Midway of the last half, St. Benedict's made a desperate bid and succeeded in coming within nine points of the flying Ottawans. That rally was quickly muffled and the Braves went on to win, going away at the finish.

Coach Dick Godlove announced that his squad will be excused for next week, but since most of the boys are working in town regular practice sessions will be held and it is expected that practically all of them will be well attended. On December 27 the team meets Haskell in Lawrence and leaves the next day for the 4-team tournament in Sioux City, Ia., December 29 and 30, and a single game with Sioux Falls College in Sioux Falls, S. D., December 31. The latter school has as its president Dr. W. P. Behan, formerly of Ottawa U.

O. U. TEAM IN COURT TOURNEY

Will Meet Three Teams at Sioux City December 29 and 30—Schedule Near Completion.

Coach Dick Godlove announced yesterday that the Ottawa University basketball team will participate in a 4-team tournament at Sioux City, Ia., on December 29 and 30. Other teams will be Morningside College, Cornell College and South Dakota State College. The trip will be the longest that an Ottawa team has taken in several years.

Godlove is not sure about the rest of his schedule but expects to complete dates while at the Kansas conference meeting in Kansas City this week-end. The conference schedule is complete but non-conference tilts have not yet been arranged as to dates. The team has tentatively agreed to meet Bethel, St. Benedict's, Haskell and Emporia Teachers in non-conference games.

The squad has been working out daily and will continue to do so until Christmas vacation at which time the players will have a few days' rest before returning to prepare for the Sioux City tournament. Godlove hopes that a game with St. Benedict's may be arranged for week after next.

BRAVES TO OPEN AGAINST BETHEL

First Court Game Here Friday Night With Newest Member of Kansas Conference.

Ottawa University will open its Kansas conference season next Friday evening at 7:30 in the junior high gym against the newest member of the Kansas conference, Bethel College, admitted at the meeting of the circuit in Kansas City last week-end. Coach Dick Godlove had planned, as usual, not to play a conference game before Christmas, but found that with the addition of Bethel it was impossible to arrange any other time.

The Bethel team defeated Ottawa in a single game last season and Bethel has the entire squad back for the team this year. In addition most of their boys have been working out six weeks or more. That sort of dope will place the locals in the spot of the underdog. As a result the Braves moved into practice today with a determined effort to get in shape. The big problem which they will face is that of finding a forward to take the place of Ad Miller who left the squad by the graduation route last spring. Godlove did not have any idea this morning who would be in the starting lineup, preferring to sound out his boys in the first three practice sessions of the week.

Dec. 5, 1938

At the Kansas City week Godlove finished conference schedule announced that his team will play Sioux Falls Tarkio College on the which the Sioux City will be taken on.

STRONG INTEREST IN BETHEL GAME

Early Season Conference Tilt With O. U. Here Friday Night, First for New Loop Member.

The Ottawa University hoop Braves hit the practice trail with a vengeance yesterday afternoon as they set out in intensive workouts for their tilt with Bethel College Friday night at 7:30 on the junior high court. The game being a Kansas conference affair makes all the difference in the world to the Ottawans.

Bethel will come to Ottawa with the inspiration that only their first contest as a Kansas conference member will warrant. If a burning desire to make a good impression will help, spectators will see a fiery exhibition of basketball handling. And that the visitors have some ability to go along with their inspiration will be a certainty, for they have all of a good squad back from last season, and they were perk enough then to bowl over Kansas conference teams, including Ottawa.

The Braves, however, are not in a bad way themselves. Maybe they have not had much practice yet, but definitely they have possibilities. They have three veteran guards: Don Meek, Eugene Harding and Lyle Swetnam, all of whom are seniors which means that they should know a little about their business. At center Omer Brenton should have his best year. Yesterday afternoon he was rolling them in during a practice session. Helping him will be Quincy Seymour who also doubles at a forward spot. Lyman Morgan is a veteran forward of the outfit and it is likely that Jack Ramsey, a sophomore, will start with him. Two new forward candidates, Durl Gonser and Willard Beaman, are also working out nicely.

It is seldom that an early season game carries so much weight as does this one. All conference eyes will be turned on the contest because both teams have possibilities of coming up as title contenders.

Dec. 6, 1938

GODLOVE WHIPS TEAM IN SHAPE

Morgan, Ramsey, Brenton, Swetnam, Meek, Harding and Others
Will Play Against Bethel.

Coach Dick Godlove sent his Ottawa University Braves through a long, tough and rough workout yesterday afternoon in preparation for the game with Bethel College in junior high gym next Friday evening at 7:30. The game will open the Kansas conference season.

Many combinations were used in the latter part of the practice session as Godlove looked on in an effort to spot a workable crew. One five which clicked had Morgan and Ramsey at forwards, Omer Brenton at center, Swetnam and Meek at guards. Two new forwards, who also will see service at the center spot, got into action, Willard Beaman and Durl Gonser, and looked to spectators as if they might have something.

Harding worked out at a guard spot to good advantage. Three guards who numeraled last season also saw service with what could be called the first team, Bob Schupbach, T. C. Bundy and Walter Reames.

Bob Brenton, a freshman, was used at a center and a guard post. Another yearling, Don Pendergrast, was tried at guard and forward. Glen Woodward, also a freshman, worked out at forward. Wendell McMurray, son of Guy McMurray who is now Fort Scott junior college coach and was once an O. U. athlete, took a try at center and forward.

In other words, Godlove was doing a bit of talent scouting last night. He finished rather definitely of the opinion that there is a lot of talent around, but that it has a long way to go before Friday night.

Well Dressed Outfit Will Meet St. Benedict's Tonight—Reserves To Open Against Iola Juco

When Ottawa University basketball team steps out on the court to meet St. Benedict's College tonight at 8:30 at the junior high school gym, fans will see that Santa Claus has not forgotten the Braves. He may not give them the same, but he has already produced a new outfit of suits and warm-ups.

You will see the warm-ups first. The tops are gleaming black silk trimmed here and there with yellow silk, and the pants are black knit with a wide yellow stripe down the legs.

The playing suits are similar to the customary black trimmed in yellow riggings always worn by the Braves, but they have a touch of red edging which sets them off in class, if not classic, style. Altogether, you can figure that the Braves are to be one of the best dressed teams on the court this season.

Before the big game gets under way, the Ottawa Reserves will play the Iola junior college five, starting at 7 o'clock. This will give fans a chance to see all the new boys in action.

St. Benedict's in losing, 31 to 40, last night, to a great Pittsburg Teachers team, definitely placed itself in the realm of good teams and is expected to be a stiff test for the Braves. Took Early Lead and Were Never Headed, Winning Game 31 to 22.

The Ottawa University Reserves downed Kansas City, Kas., junior college, 31 to 22, Saturday night at Kansas City. The young Braves stepped into an early lead and were never headed, although at times they relaxed so much that the Blue Devils threatened to overtake them.

Glen Woodward with 11 points led the Ottawa attack. Peterson and Kennedy led the Jucos with nine points each. Coach Dick Godlove used 11 men in an effort to see what his reserves could do under pressure.

Genser and Wood-

Faculty members of Ottawa University last evening attended their annual Christmas dinner at the North American hotel. Entering the dining room, which was lighted by red candles in brass candelabra on the tables, the guests found their places by parchment place cards ornamented with golden candles. The tables were decorated with long center rows of evergreen, fruit and chestnuts. After the dinner, Miss Annette Haworth sang "Cantique de Noel" by Adam and "Joy of the Morning" by Ware. Miss Jane Geiger played a violin solo, "Schon Rosmarin" by Kreisler. Dr. W. B. Wilson concluded the program with a short talk on "Christmas in Merrie England." The committee in charge included: Mrs. Richard M. Godlove, Mrs. Everett Fetter, Mrs. Harold Conrad, Mrs. W. A. Elliott, Mrs. G. H. Marshall, Miss Marjorie Barber, Dr. Allen P. Wikgren, and Rev. J. E. Woods. Others present were: Dr. and Mrs. Andrew B. Martin, Dr. and Mrs. Karl S. Bergstresser, Dr. and Mrs. Alvin V. Pershing, Dr. and Mrs. B. P. Heubner, Dr. and Mrs. F. A. Dec. 20, 1938

Tuesday They Meet Haskell, and Leave Next Day for Tourney at Sioux City, Ia.

Ottawa University Braves will resume basketball operations next week. Tuesday they will go to Lawrence where they will meet the fast improving Haskell Institute squad. Early the next morning they will leave for Sioux City, Ia., where on Thursday evening they will meet Morningside College and on Friday University of South Dakota. From Sioux City the Braves will jump to Sioux Falls, S. D., to play Sioux Falls College.

There will be no set-ups for the Braves. Every one of the teams is supposed to be above average this year. The district has always been known for its good basketball.

Coach Dick Godlove has selected 10 players to make the trip. Four forwards, two centers and four guards are included. Lyman Morgan, Jack Ramsey, Durl Gonsen and Glen Woodward are the front men. Omer Brenton and his brother Bob will be centers. The guards will be Don Meek, Lyle Swetnam, Bob Schubach and Walter Reames. Godlove and Claude Webb will drive cars.

After having worked out three days this week, the squad was dismissed last night and sent home for Christmas to return for a practice session at 4 o'clock Monday afternoon. It is a short vacation for the boys, but the coach believes the trip will make up for its lack.

Dec. 23, 1938

The Alpha Phi Beta and Pi Theta Chi, housing groups at Ottawa University and the T. C. C. Games were played and the following program was presented: tap dance and accordion solo, Johnnie Stockmyer; saxophone solo, Dorothy Jeanne Webster and tap dance, Wanda Jackson. Following the program, the children sang Christmas carols and a Christmas treat celebration was held, at which each child was given a gift and candy. Miss Lucile Nelson was chairman of the committee in charge of the party. She was assisted by Miss LeNore Tomorrow the Braves Move to Sioux City for Hard Tourney—Game at Sioux Falls, Too.

With four games in five days on schedule, the Ottawa University Braves open a busy, and maybe dizzy, week of basketball by playing Haskell in Lawrence tonight. Early tomorrow morning Coach Dick Godlove will take his boys in tow and head for the great north, stopping first at Sioux City, Ia., where on Thursday his team will meet Morningside College, and University of South Dakota on Friday night. Saturday night the Braves hop over to Sioux Falls, S. D., to meet Sioux Falls College New Year's eve.

The Haskell team, after starting out poorly this season, has shown rapid improvement and are expected to extend the Ottawans tonight. The locals should win, but may not find matters particularly easy.

The trip to the north will provide plenty of stiff competition as the three teams to be met are considered right fair aggregations this season. Probably topping the group is South Dakota U. which holds a 6-point win over Creighton, one of the teams doped to be in the money of the Missouri Valley conference race. South Dakota holds a 2-point victory over Morningside while Sioux Falls College won by two points over Morningside.

That sort of dope would indicate that the Braves have more than a handful of opposition. Godlove scheduled the trip with an eye to giving his players some weathering experience, and it looks as if he had succeeded in double-barreled manner: the weather is going to be cold and the competition stiff.

The squad is in fine shape except for a slight infection on Omer Brenton's right leg. It is not bad, and should not handicap him much unless it gets worse.

Rev. J. E. Woods will visit his daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. George Stephens in Wichita.

Few trips were planned by the students, the majority of them preferring to visit with their families during the vacation.

HASKELL EASY FOR O. U. FIVE

Free Scoring in Second Half Ran Count Up to 60 to 17—Off for Sioux City.

Scoring almost at will in the second half, Ottawa University defeated Haskell Institute at Lawrence last night, 60 to 17. Haskell held the Ottawans even during the first part of the game, but wilted near the half-way mark to allow Coach Dick Godlove's crew to forge to a 20 to 10 lead at the intermission. The deluge of points fell quickly as the second half got under way.

The Braves returned from the game, picked up a few hours' sleep and left at 7 o'clock this morning for Sioux City, Ia., where tomorrow night they will meet Morning-side College in the first game of a 4-team tourney. Friday night they will meet South Dakota U. and then hop over to Sioux Falls, S. D., for a game with Sioux Falls College on Saturday night. The team will return to Ottawa January 1. The squad of 10 is making the trip in cars driven by Godlove and Claude Webb.

Omer Brenton, tall Ottawa center, led the scoring against the Indians last night. He collected six baskets and four free throws for a total of 16 points. Don Meek counted six baskets and one free throw to be second while Jack Ramsey counted four field goals and three free tosses. Durl Gonser got three and three, and Lyle Swetnam counted three and one.

One of the big features of the game occurred in the second half when a small dog which someone had brought to the game bit Robert Schupbach, Ottawa guard, on the leg. The dog did no damage, however, except to pull down Schupbach's sock.

The feature of the Indian play was long shots attempted by "Chicken" Big Bear. He flung several long heaves all of which came near the basket. The longest one which he shot while on the run in the center of the court slipped through the net cleanly. Whatever it takes to stimulate a basketball crowd, Big Bear has.
