

CALL FOR CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENTS

Any member of PKD may submit constitutional amendments to be considered at the 1997 Convention and Tournament which will be held at Northern Kentucky University. In order to be considered, the proposed amendment must be received by the Chair of the Constitutional Revision Committee by May 1, 1996. Amendments received after this date cannot be considered at the 1997 convention. Persons proposing a constitutional amendment should send the amendment (4 copies) in final form to:

Dr. Don Brownlee
Chair, Constitutional Revision Committee
Department of Speech Communication
California State University
Northridge, CA 91330

CALL FOR PAPER AND PROGRAMS 1997 PI KAPPA DELTA DEVELOPMENTAL CONFERENCE

"WALKING THE TIGHTROPE: BALANCING MISSION AND PRACTICE IN FORENSICS"

MARCH 19, 1997
DRAWBRIDGE INN, FORT MITCHELL, KY

Submissions are now being accepted for the 1997 Pi Kappa Delta Developmental Conference. Contributors are encouraged to prepare papers, panels, and programs along the theme "Walking the Tightrope: Balancing Mission and Practice in Forensics." Contributors are encouraged to propose panels that focus on an issue relevant to the theme of the conference. Complete panels should include panel chairs, presenters, and respondents. Student and Pi Kappa Delta alumni proposals are encouraged.

All presenters are expected to provide a final copy of their paper/responses after the conference for inclusion in The Proceedings. In addition, presenters will be given the opportunity to submit revised manuscripts for review and possible inclusion in a special developmental conference issue of The Forensic.

The deadline for conference submissions is October 15, 1996. Please forward submissions and queries to:

Scott Jensen
Speech and Theatre Arts
PO Box 90420
McNeese State University
Lake Charles, LA 70609

(318) 475-5046

(318) 475-5922—fax

sjensen@mcneese.edu

CALL FOR PAPERS

SOUTHERN JOURNAL OF FORENSICS

by Jack Rogers

The Editorial Board of the Southern Journal of Forensics issues a call for manuscripts related to the theory/practice of forensics, tournament administration, public argumentation and debate, and the interpretation of literature (IE's). The SJF will begin quarterly publication on or about December 1, 1995. Subscriptions will be $35.00 per year. Articles which focus on issues of central concern to the forensics community will be given primary consideration. In addition, book and software reviews, scholarly exchanges (forums) and editorials on current issues are solicited. Manuscripts should be prepared in accordance with either current APA or MLA guidelines. An abstract of not more than one-hundred words should accompany each manuscript. As SJF employs a system of blind review, the manuscript itself should contain no reference(s) to the author(s) or institution(s). Include a detachable cover sheet. Submit four clean copies to Dr. Jack E. Rogers, Editor, Department of Theatre & Communication, The University of Texas at Tyler, 3900 University Blvd., Tyler, TX 75799. Interested parties may call (903) 566-7099 or e-mail to Jack_Rogers.UT_Tyler@notes.worldcom.com.

Superiors in impromptu.

Superiors in after dinner speech.

Superiors in open parliamentary debate.

Part of National Council at work.

Superiors in open CEDA.

UPS gives a toast at PKD banquet.

Superiors in dramatic interpretation.

Superiors in junior CEDA.

Registration PKD Nationals
at Shreveport.

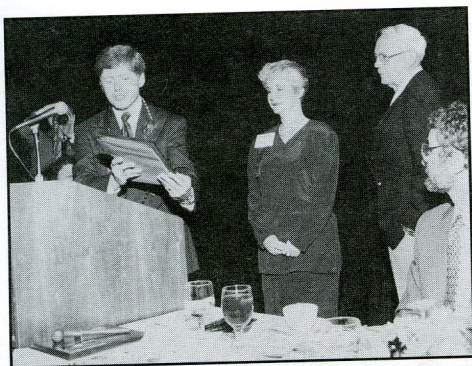

Superiors in duo interpretation.

Superiors junior – Lincoln-Douglas.

Superiors in extemporaneous.

Robert Littlefield presents
Hall of Fame Award. Bill Hill looks on.

Superiors in prose.

Superiors in poetry.

Superiors in experimental debate.

Superiors in persuasion.

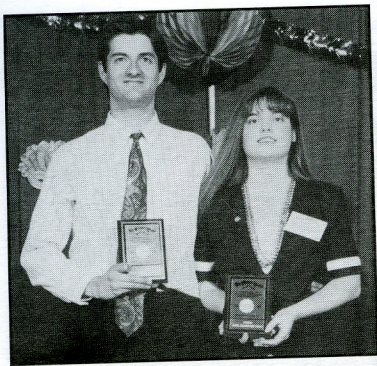

Superiors in program oral interpretation.

Superiors novice CEDA

Cajun delicacies no longer wriggling.

Superiors in junior parliamentary debate.

Superiors in novice parlimentary debate.

Superiors in communication analysis.

Superiors in open
Lincoln-Douglas.

Sally Roden PKD President checks out in province meeting.

Four PKD Presidents:
Sally Roden, Robert Littlefield,
Terry Cole, David Ray.

PKD banquet celebration...Rolling on the Red.

Superiors in informative

BETWEEN ONE AND MANY

by Steven R. Brydon and Michael D. Scott reviewed by Glenda Jenkins Treadaway
Assistant Professor and Director of Forensics
Appalachian State University

Finding a textbook which meets all the desired requirements of all the different instructors that teach a particular course can be challenging. This becomes a more difficult task when one is searching for a public speaking textbook. This course at many universities is a three-hour course, while the other universities offer public speaking as a two-hour course. The instructors of the numerous sections of this course also may vary from the graduate assistant to the part-time instructor to the full-time instructor. So finding a textbook that all students and instructors find appropriate and useful is a challenge. Brydon and Scott have attempted this feat with their public speaking textbook, Between One and Many and for this, I applaud them. However, having taught public speaking for the last 11 years, I, too, have my idiosyncratic view of what I want in a public speaking textbook. So I will first point out the numerous strengths of this textbook, then I will discuss the elements that I would like to see changed.

Overall the author's writing styles are clear, vivid and the examples used are current and interesting. The book is written in such a way that students will find it easy to understand and useful for them when they are preparing speeches. The overall organization and content of this book is excellent. The organizational pattern of this textbook, with few exceptions, follows the