"Do nothing from selfishness or conceit, but in humility count others better than yourselves. Let each of you look not only to his own interests, but also to the interests of others. Have this mind among yourselves, which you have in Christ Jesus, who though he was in the form of God, did not count equality with God a thing to be grasped, but emptied himself, taking the form of a servant, being born in the likeness of men. And being found in human form he humbled himself and became obedient unto death, even death on a cross."

Motion -- Bill Knight
Second -- John Coarpen

TEACH ME THY WAY, O LORD

*Anthem — Christ, Whose Glory Fills The Skies" ..... Willan
Senior High Choir

Christ, whose glory fills the skies, Thou, the true, the only Light, Sun of Righteousness, arise, triumph o'er the shades of night. Day-spring from on high be near; Day-star, in my heart appear. Dark and cheerless is the morn unaccompanied by Thee; Joyless is the day's return till Thy mercy's beams I see, till they inward light impart, glad my eyes and warm my heart. Visit, then, this soul of mine, pierce the gloom of sin and grief; fill me Radiancy Divine, scatter all my unbelief. More and more Thyself display, shining to the perfect day.

**Anthem—"Psalm 150" ..... Cesar Franck
Sanctuary Choir

Allelulia! O Praise Ye the Lord: praise God in His temple: Praise Ye the Lord in the firmament of His power. O praise Him for His might, and the greatness of His wonders: Praise Him according to His majesty. Praise the Lord with the sound of the trumpet . . . lute . . . and the harp . . . the timbrel and the dance . . . the organ and instrument of strings . . . the loud cymbals . . . the high sounding cymbals. Let everything that hath breath praise the Lord! Allelulia!
