

Some 200 volumes. Our great need here is costly Standards of reference in the various departments of study. By the hearty cooperation of the bodies of Ottawa B. of. Ch. a library room has been fitted up and furnished at an expense of about $150.

- Discipline -

No case of violence has occurred. In the main the bearing of students has been dignified and courteous. A commendable disposition to do honest work has generally prevailed. The only incident looking toward disorder or insubordination seems to have been due to a failure to recognize the existence of law and to appreciate the motive and application of authority as more than an advisory principle. - due rather to a lack of the proper sense than to perverseness. This closes the history of the school as I have known it. Permit me now to make a few points in my judgment worthy your attention at this time.

Fixing Calendar - The best research I have been able to make discovers no rule for fixing the calendar of the institution. The date of annual commencement and of opening of the fall term should be fixed by some general action of this Board.

24 Payment of tuition. - Some trouble to various officers of the Board and of the institution and no inconsiderable detraction from the best efficiency of the school has been occasioned
