

Mr. and Mrs. Barre Barrett, instructors of art, will be teaching art at the University of Jacksonville. At the end of eight years at Ottawa University, Barrett said, "The thing we have liked and loved is the kind of intimate fellowship of faculty and students.

The.. school, which was very conservative when we came, has become fairly liberal in outlook. Student involvement has become quite good. We hope that they have not lost sight of the intimate relationships we need between people.”