Soccer Coaching Staff

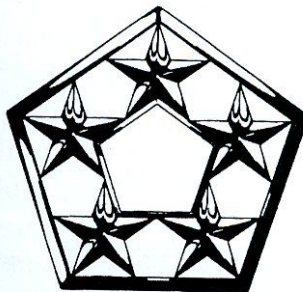

Coach Tony Carbaugh is originally from Pennsylvania. He graduated from Messiah College (PA) with a double major in Electrical and Mechanical Engineering. At Messiah, Carbaugh played varsity soccer for one of the top NCAA Division III programs in the country. He has appeared in three NCAA Division III tournaments, finishing as high as the Final 8. Besides a very good playing background, Carbaugh has been coaching many summer soccer camps over the years. He has also coached at the high school level. Coach Carbaugh took over at Ottawa University in 1998 and is excited about his second season. He is motivated and committed to establishing a strong soccer tradition at Ottawa University. Coach Carbaugh and his wife Christine live in Ottawa.

Assistant Coach Gary Dunda begins his first year here at Ottawa University. Dunda came to OU after being a four-year starter at Messiah College (PA), a national power in the NCAA III. During his career, Dunda played in two NCAA III National Tournaments, finishing as high as the Final 8. Dunda's coaching resume includes three seasons of coaching high school soccer, and one season of coaching collegiate soccer at Messiah College. Coach Dunda brings a tremendous soccer background as well as a lot of energy to the program. Bringing Ottawa University Soccer back to prominence in the KCAC is the focus of Coach Dunda.

Coach Dunda graduated from Messiah College in 1997. He graduated with a Bachelor of Arts degree in Sports Administration. He is currently working towards his Masters Degree at Emporia State University. Coach Dunda and his wife Heather live in Ottawa.

1999 SEASON OUTLOOK

The Ottawa University Lady Braves are ready to improve on their 1998 season where they went 8 and 10 and made the Conference playoffs. The goal for this year is again to put ourselves in a position to make the playoffs. We have a solid group of returning players that are ready to face the challenge . . . the challenge of returning to the playoffs. Coach Carbaugh says, "We have recruited a very good class of players and we need them to step up in many areas for us to be successful. The upperclassmen need to push and motivate the freshmen to catch the spirit. If we can stay healthy and come together as a unit . . . we should have a very good year!"

1999 SEASON OUTLOOK

The Ottawa University Braves are coming off a tough 1998 season where they went 1 and 17. The record, however, does not reflect the effort and determination of this group of men. They have worked extremely hard this off-season and are ready to re-establish themselves. Coach Carbaugh says, "This season will be very different from the first. We have worked with the returning players and they know and understand what we expect from them. We have also recruited players that we want here and we know that they will make an impact both on and off the field. We will have to continue to work hard at practice and come together as a team. If we stay healthy, we should have a good year!"

Braves Mascot

Giego is a very prestigious figure and is a symbol that represents the actual spirit of the Ottawa Indian tribe. Giego shows up at many OU sporting events and ceremonies to insure good luck, safety, and fortune to all who gather.

Coming later during the season, OU will be adopting a "gameday" mascot to be used solely for sporting events and community appearances. This animal will be the Otter, which is the Ottawa Indian Tribe's sacred animal. The addition of this gameday animal will not change our school name. Rest assured we will always be the Braves! The Otter's job will be to add some extra fun, life, and pizzazz to our sporting events. This furry woodland water creature's zesty personality and crazy antics will be sure to bring smiles to the faces of all ages.

Senior, Scott Maid, enters his fourth year serving as the Braves mascot, Giego. Presently a senior from Harrisonville High School in Missouri, Scott came to Ottawa with a great deal of mascot experience. His impressive resume includes three years as high school mascot "Wil'e the Wildcat" and two years as KC Blades' mascot "Chilly the Chipmunk" and "Scraper". With a love for making people smile, Scott has also made several appearances as McGruff and the Easter Bunny.

When not entertaining audiences with sideline antics, Scott has been very involved on campus. His activities and honors include working on the campus radio station, Students Activities Force (SAF), two years varsity baseball Academic All-Conference and Homecoming Royalty as a junior. Scott is a psychology major and plans to attend graduate school after graduation in May 2000. Future plans are to become a psychologist and work with individual and group therapy and someday have his own business.
