WELCOME - This morning we welcome our new pastor, Dr. Roger L. Fredrikson, to the pulpit. Dr. Fredrikson comes to us from the First Baptist Church at Sioux Falls, South Dakota. His coming marks the beginning of a new religious and spiritual epoch in the history of First Baptist Church--an epoch of inspired Christian leadership of a congregation challenged to accept commensurate responsibilities. Along with Roger we welcome his lovely wife, Ruth, and their son, Joel, who will assume the responsibilities of Minister of Youth and Music. A sincere WELCOME to First Baptist Church to the Fredrikson family.

The beautiful flowers in the sanctuary this morning are given "with love from the members of First Baptist Sioux Falls."

Billinger's Beliefs Kept Him at WSU

By GARY OWEN
Staff Writer

Jim Billinger played football for just one year at North Kansas City, Mo., high school. He was an instant success and was named to the all-conference second team.

The Wichita State coaching staff made Billinger into a high school hero when they gave him a football scholarship. Obviously a young man bound for big things.

But college stardom did not come for Billinger. He was injured his freshman year and missed the season. His sophomore year, when things looked brighter, he suffered another injury.

Then a new coaching staff entered the picture and things could have been very bleak for Billinger. After all, a player who has suffered two injuries in two years does not have an impressive record.

But Jim Billinger is a Christian. He didn't take the easy way out and give up. His Christian experience and life made him into a stayer. Shocker head coach Jim Wright was one of the first to find this out.

"A player who has faced an assortment of injuries can lose confidence in himself," Wright said. "Jim and I had many talks about this and through his hard work and repetition and improved confidence in himself, he has become much better ball player."

Billinger was voted the 'Most Improved Player' at the conclusion of last spring's practice. The 175-pound junior started his first varsity game last Saturday at split end.

"Jim is the type of player who will make the big play," said Wright. And Wright's praise did not end with his playing ability.

"Jim is a fine young man, a very good, stable Christian athlete," he said. "His Christian attitude is very evident on and off the field."

Billinger plays down his own talents while giving all the credit for his current status to God. "My faith in God helped me stay here," he said. "There were times when I wanted to give up, but I believe God sent me here for a purpose. I give him all the credit for my increased confidence in my ability."

It was after he was injured Billinger really turned to his Christian beliefs for strength. "That was when I really needed help so I turned to God and He got me straightened out. Now I don't try to come on too strong about my Christian belief, but I try to be a leader in my own way. I want my teammates to respect me for what I am, not what I try to be."

Billinger, who is the first in his family to attend college, displays the affection he has for his teammates when he speaks about them.

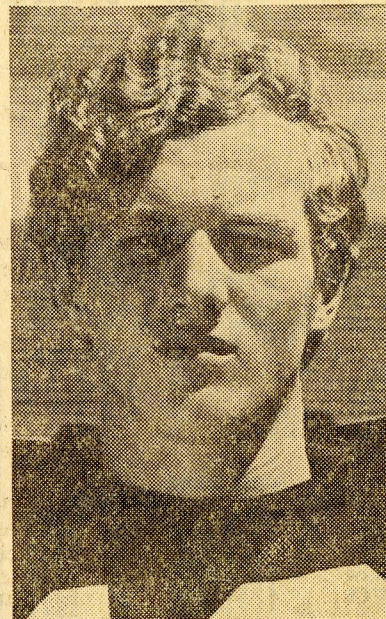

"Sam Adkins and all the quarterbacks are really willing to help me out," he said. "Anytime I want them to stay after practice to throw to me they do it."

"The offensive line is doing a great job this year. They are giving Sam more time to throw and this gives us (receivers) more time to run our patterns."

But Billinger's admiration for his teammates doesn't stop when they leave the field. He said the highlight of his career at Wichita State is finding out what people are really like. He said he has made a lot of friends.

"It really makes me feel good when someone you least expect comes to talk to you about a problem because you are willing to listen," he said. "There are a lot of guys on the team close to making a full commitment to God. If someone can see what I have and maybe that helps their lives in some way, I have reached my goal."

Stardom on the field for Jim Billinger, not yet. But off the field and in the eyes of his teammates he is on top.

JIM BILLINGER

Break Thou the bread of life, Dear Lord, to me,
As Thou didst break the loaves Beside the sea;
Beyond the sacred page I seek Thee, Lord;
My spirit pants for Thee, O living Word.

Bless Thou the truth, dear Lord, To me--to me,
As Thou didst bless the bread By Galilee:
Then shall all bondage cease, All fetters fall,
And I shall find my peace, My All in all.

Discerning the Body

At the Center of Our Faith Life

- Baptism
- The Lord's Supper.
 - Simple Act taking the basic realities of life.
 - Yet the Gospel is in It.

Paul's Teaching About It.

① Came from the Lord Himself

- Performed Ate the Night of his Betrayal
- After the Passover Meal - thank and praise
- A New Covenant - God redeeming us.
 - Not the blood of animals - his blood
- Join to his Table - Not being

2.

② "A Memorial of Me"

- Body and Blood
- The Holy Spirit Brings to Mind.
- Who He Is and What He Has Done

③ Until He Comes

- The Risen Lord Will Return
- Unseen - The Eschatological Community.

④ "A Man Must Feed himself"

- "unworthy" - "Guilty of desecrating the body and blood of the Lord."

- "I became the cheater or lied or became discouraged."

- "If he does not discern the body"

- Eating and eating carelessly

- Gorging himself

- But deeper

- fail to understand these are my brethren and sisters.

- Who they are.

- Grander or better men

Wiser and true men - Jesus

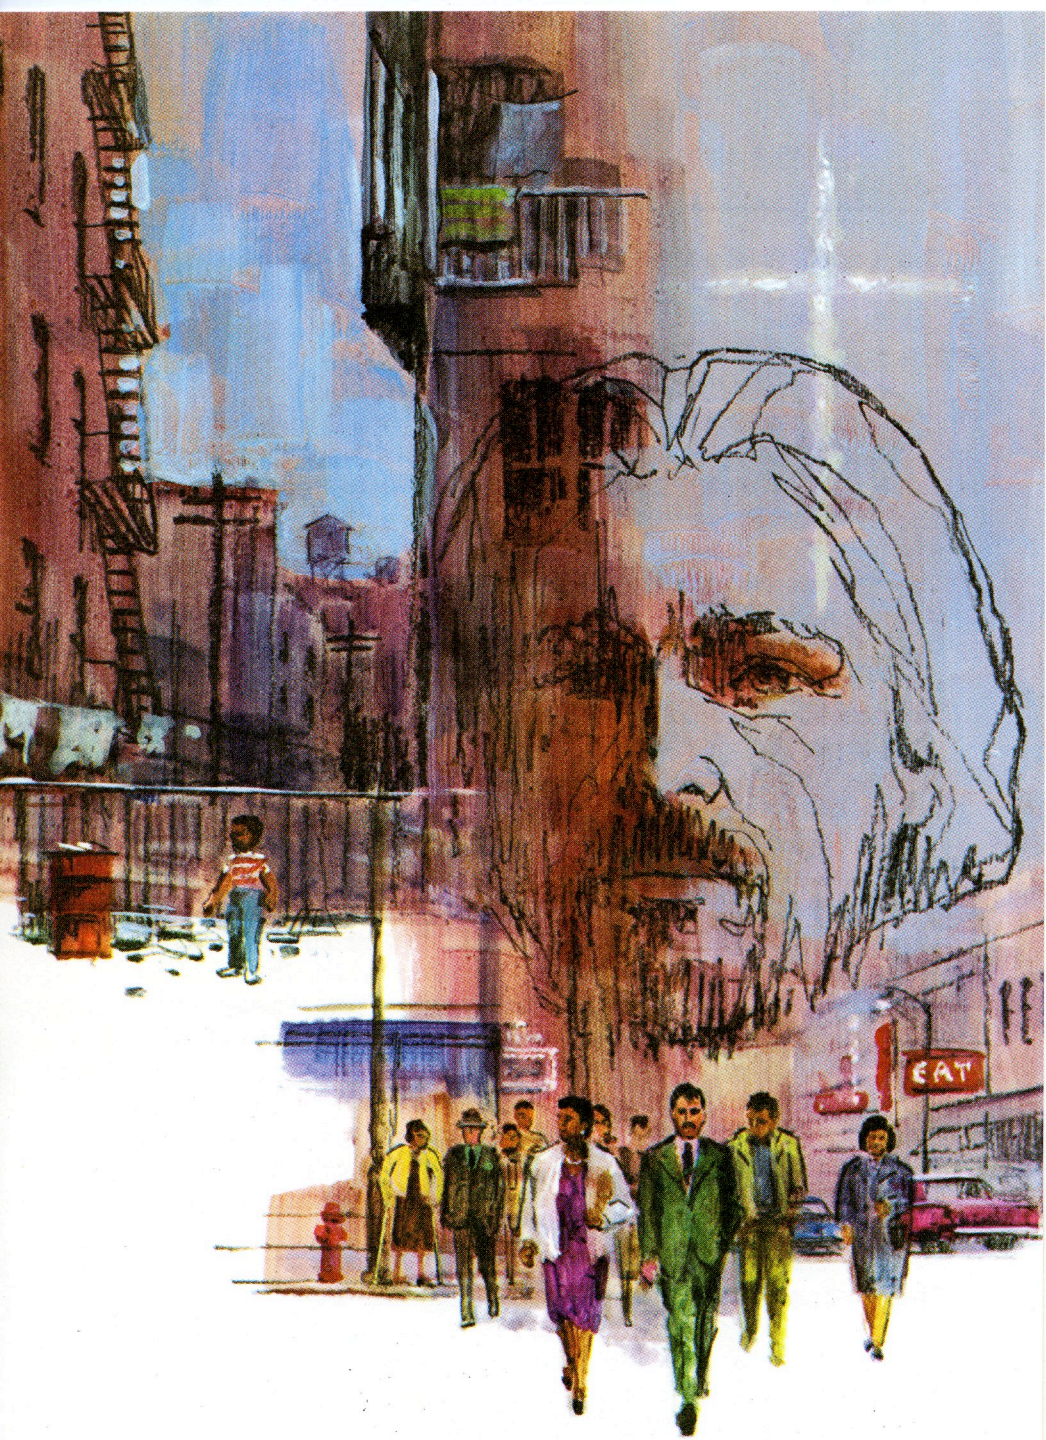

- Blessing the bread!

I Corinthians 11:23-34

- ① For the tradition which I handed on to you came to me from the Lord himself; that the Lord Jesus, on the night of his arrest, took bread and, after giving thanks to God, broke it and said: 'This is my body, which is for you; do this as a memorial of me.' In the same way, he took the cup after supper, and said: 'This cup is the new covenant sealed by my blood. Whenever you drink it, do this as a memorial of me.' For every time you eat this bread and drink the cup, you proclaim the death of the Lord, until he comes.

④ It follows that anyone who eats the bread and drinks the cup of the Lord unworthily will be guilty of desecrating the body and blood of the Lord. A man must test himself before eating his share of the bread and drinking from the cup. For he who eats and drinks eats and drinks judgement on himself if he does not discern the Body. That is why many of you are feeble and sick, and a number have died. But if we examined ourselves, we should not thus fall under judgement. When, however, we do fall under the Lord's judgement, he is disciplining us, to save us from being condemned with the rest of the world.

Therefore, my brothers, when you meet for a meal, wait for one another. If you are hungry, eat at home, so that in meeting together you may not fall under judgement. The other matters I will arrange when I come.
