STUDENTS TO MARRY

The following item printed in the society column of the Topeka State Journal of Saturday, together with a picture of the bride-to-be, will be of interest to college friends here:

Miss Stocker is attending Ottawa University, where she is prominent in musical circles. She is a talented cellist and an outstanding student. Her pleasing manner makes her a favorite with her older friends as well as her own contemporaries. The wedding will take place the latter part of December, preceding Mr. and Mrs. Stocker's departure for Rockford, Ill., where they and their family will make their home. Mr. Null, who is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas W. Null, of Bucyrus, is located in Hobart, Okla., where he and his bride will make their home."

PLAN O. U. DRIVE

Chamber of Commerce Votes To Go After $10,000 Some Time After January 1.

A drive to subscribe $10,000 for Ottawa university, as part of a $25,000 fund to be raised in the state at large, will be sponsored by the Ottawa Chamber of Commerce some time after the first of the year, it was voted at the directors' luncheon meeting today at the North American hotel.

The action to sponsor the campaign was taken after a comprehensive review of the O. U. finances, showing great progress already made in re-establishing the college on a firm foundation, had been presented by a committee formed by A. E. Willis, M. H. Forester and C. W. Hegberg. The committee explained the statewide campaign and asked the Ottawa Chamber of Commerce to assume responsibility for $10,000 of the amount.

The following committee was appointed to take charge of the drive, fixing the date and arranging other details: A. C. Carpenter, J. G. Kaiser, J. E. Colby, J. L. Wassmer, A. E. Willis, M. H. Forester, F. F. Fockele, Harold J. Lamb, and G. M. Ross.

CATCH STUDENTS PAINTING AT O. U.

SIX BAKER BOYS CAPTURED, ONE IS FINED.

O. U. Board Sends Bill to Baker for Cleaning, and Finds O. U. Paint Was Used at Baldwin.

Six Baker University students who came from Baldwin early today did a good job of smearing paint on sidewalks, posts and signs at Ottawa University, but they were slow on the get-away. Their speeding motor car was hauled down on Main street going 70 miles an hour by Officers C. L. Hough and V. M. Kinnison, who happened to be in the vicinity of the college when they started rapidly from the scene of their vandalism.

All six languished in jail over night, and this morning the driver, Robert Barbe of Kansas City, Mo., was fined $12 in police court for speeding. The others were released after a conference of O. U. board members, who decided to send the bill for cleaning off the paint to Baker.

The five who were released this morning without fines were Frank Nugent of Kansas City, Kas., John Miller and John Coffman of Overbrook, Herbert Stotts of St. Louis and Emmett La France of Independence, Mo.

"If you had any O. U. boys in custody for a similar offense, we might trade hostages," suggested B. F. Bowers, an O. U. board member, to Baker authorities, but they had no hostages. However, it was reported at Baldwin that some painting on the Baker campus had been done apparently by Ottawa students who escaped. The Baker campus was guarded. The O. U. campus was not. It was reported that the six caught here last night really hadn't gotten started at their paint job when the officers appeared, and that a previous bunch from Baker really did the painting.

The choice of paint colors for the job on the O. U. campus was apropos of nothing in particular. The colors used here were pink, yellow and black. The Baker colors are orange and black, the O. U. colors yellow and black.

RESERVES TO IOLA

O. U. Seconds Will Meet Junior College Team Monday Night.

The Ottawa University reserves on Monday will journey to Iola for a game with the junior college at 7:30. In case of rain the game will be played in the afternoon.

Coach Charles D. Errickson will take a squad of 18 players. The reserves have not been trained as a team this season but have fitted into the practice schedule of the varsity team. Errickson hopes they will make a good enough showing to hold the strong Iola team somewhat in check.

Next Friday afternoon the varsity team will go to Lindsborg where they will meet the Bethany college team. The Swedes have been playing much improved football this year.

ALUMNI ARE BACK

Game Will Be Homecoming for Both Schools—Parade This Afternoon a Pep Feature—Probable Starting Lineups Announced by the Coaches.

(O. U.—Baker football pictures on Pages 1 and 8)

Another chapter in the long-time tradition of Baker University-Ottawa University rivalry will be enacted tonight on Cook field at 7:45 when the football teams of the schools meet in their annual battle. A big crowd from Baldwin will join the turnout of local fans.

Baker will have the edge in dope, but that is nothing to the Braves, so they say. And the Baker Wildcats say there is nothing sure about the outcome. Thus it begins to look as if there might be a battle on for tonight. Ideal football weather was on tap today after the rain of yesterday. The wet field was rapidly drying and should be in excellent shape for the first whistle.

Students Pepped Up

Today Ottawa has been celebrating homecoming. It was homecoming for Baker alumni, too. This morning Dr. W. P. Behan, dean, and Norman Jeter, an alumnus now in K. U., spoke at pep chapel at which many alumni were present. This afternoon the students participated in a downtown homecoming parade in which there were several attractive floats. One of the most attractive was the one on which the homecoming queen and her attendants rode. The queen, who is to be crowned shortly before the game tonight, is Miss Helen Elliott of Plains. Her maids of honor are Misses Lois Billett of Princeton and Peggy McCartney of Ottawa. Her attendants are Misses Margaret Blunk and Kathryn Proffitt, both of Ottawa. Ricks Matson of Ottawa is the king.

Alumni To Reunite

After the game tonight the alumni will hold a special get-together in the commons room of the university. A committee headed by Mrs. Clarence Hegberg and Mrs. Harry Ireland is in charge of arrangements for this occasion.

Tickets for the game were going rapidly this morning. The sale slowed up quite a bit yesterday due to the bad weather but took a sudden spurt early this morning. Reserves may be secured at the Davis-Wassmer clothing store until 6 o'clock. At 7 o'clock they will go on sale at the west gate of Cook field.

The Starting Lineups

Coach Charles Dee Errickson announced he will probably start Barker, Marchand, Harding and Mullen in the O. U. backfield. Pett and Klauman will be the ends with Pitts and Harrop at tackles. Martz and Loveless will be the guards, and Updike will be the center.

Coach Emil Liston has announced that Ricketts, Smith, Holman and Albertson will be in the backfield for Baker. Zeidler and Jenkins will be ends, Heine and Liston tackles, Brown and Dissinger guards and Martin center.

Just what sort of strategy the two teams will use is not known. It is expected the Baldwin team will use some of its far famed laterals in an effort to run up a big score on the Braves. In that case the fans are expected to see plenty of action for their money. If there is anything that is more exciting and full of thrills than the open type of football with both teams on their toes it cannot be readily found.

Coach Errickson is expected to use the same type of offensive his teams have always used but indicated there might be a few more plays to add a thrill or so.

Officials for the game tonight will be E. C. Quigley, referee; Leslie Edmonds, umpire; John Galloway, Hutchinson, head linesman.

IOLA BEAT RESERVES

Junior College Team Scored Two Touchdowns in Third.

The Ottawa University Reserves lost to Iola junior college yesterday afternoon 0 to 14 on Iola on a muddy field. The Reserves held well in the first half and put on a scoring threat but the Red Devils came back and scored two touchdowns in the third quarter. The first was scored on a long pass after having taken the ball into the pay mud by end runs. The second was scored by placing the ball in the scoring territory through a 60-yard return of a punt. An off-tackle smash carried the ball over.

For Ottawa the general play of Eugene Harding stood out and the punting of Lyle Swetnam aided the Braves in pulling out of several holes. The line play of George Lister stood out. Edward Wiberg, end, was injured in the first quarter. In dashing into a play and through the ball carrier for a 5-yard loss, he was kicked in the mouth and suffered a gash in his lower lip that took four stitches to sew up. Had it not been for his going out so early in the game Ottawa might have had a better chance.

The varsity team will leave Friday morning for Lindsborg where it will meet the uprising Bethany Swedes. The game was originally scheduled for the afternoon but Coach Dee Errickson was notified yesterday that it would be played at night.

LOCAL CITIZENS PROMINENT ON FIRST PROGRAM

Formal Opening of Baptist Meet Tonight

REGISTRATION HEAVY

Dr. W. A. Elliott And Other Ottawans On Program—Associated Groups Meet Today—Dr. A. B. Martin, New O. U. Head, Speaks Tomorrow Night.

Registration for the Kansas Baptist convention reached nearly to 500 this afternoon, indicating larger attendance at this year's convention than the sessions last year when 600 were present.

Already a drive to name Coffeyville as 1936 convention city was actively under way with a majority of the delegates wearing "Come to Coffeyville" stickers. Pratt, seeking the 1937 convention when it celebrates its golden jubilee, is cooperating.

The first of the addresses by out of state speakers was given by Dr. Frank E. Eden of Denver at 11 o'clock this morning in Federated church to a joint meeting of ministers and laymen. On the theme "This Fellowship of Ours" he outlined the "spirit of mutual concern for the lives of other people, the forces playing upon them, how they live"; "the spirit of compassion for others as an inspond. He is first vice-president of the convention. The president, Rev. R. H. Moorman, has left his pastorate at Topeka First church for another in Montana. Rev. J. E. Woods of North Ottawa Baptist church will read the scripture and give the prayer.

Other Group Meetings

Tonight at 6 o'clock the Kansas City Baptist Theological seminary will have a banquet in the Federated church.

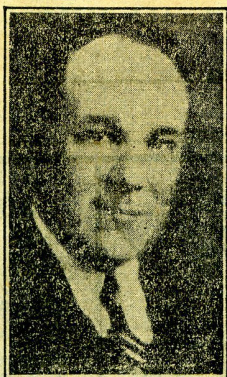

Today the Ministerial Association, Woman's Union and Laymen's organization were holding simultaneous session in the Federated, First Baptist and First Methodist church, respectively, with worship, addresses and business filling the time. The ministers and laymen met together at 11 o'clock this morning to hear the address, "This Fellowship of Ours", by Dr. Frank Eden of Denver.

The convention sessions tomorrow will be occupied principally with reports of various commissions. The annual election of officers is scheduled for 10:15 tomorrow morning.

The principal addresses tomorrow will be given by Rev. W. A. Elliott, pastor, being honored with the duty of giving the annual convention sermon.

The entire evening program is filled with Ottawa persons. Prof. B. Smith Haworth of Ottawa high school, director of the church choir, will lead congregational singing followed by an anthem by the choir. Prof. G. H. Marshall, city superintendent of schools, will welcome the guests and Dr. W. W. Floyd, Ottawa University, will re-

C. Brown, Philadelphia, Ottawa University graduate and executive secretary of the American Baptist Publication society, at 2:55.

Dinners Wednesday Evening

Special fellowship dinners for men and ministers in the Federated church dining hall and for the women in the First Methodist church are scheduled for 5:15 Wednesday evening.

The attendance is expected to grow for the final two nights of services. The new president of Ottawa University, Dr. A. B. Martin of Waukesha, Wis., will speak Wednesday night, and Thursday night the final program will be a double historical pageant celebrating the seventy-fifth anniversary of the convention and the seventieth anniversary of Ottawa University. Another attractive meeting will be the Ottawa University program Thursday morning at 10 o'clock with Dr. George Works, Chicago, secretary of the commission on higher education of the Northern Baptist convention, and Dr. Frank W. Padelford, New York, executive secretary of the national board of education, as principal speakers.

Crowd Last Night

First Baptist church was practically filled last night for the address of Rev. W. C. McClung of First Baptist church, Wichita, the opening session of the ministerial meeting. About 200 persons registered for that preliminary session.

Many former Ottawans are visiting friends here as well as attending the convention. The brief session last night allowed time for much visiting in the aisles and corridors of the church. All sessions are open to the public.

About O. U.—The December issue of "Missions," a national Baptist publication, contains a 3-page article about Ottawa university, written by Frank W. Padelford, executive secretary of the board of education of the Northern Baptist convention. The article includes pictures of the O. U. choir and band and devotes considerable space to the history of the school and the persons prominently identified with its founding and development. The magazine is available to the public on the racks of the city library and university library.

OUTLINES PLANS FOR OTTAWA U

DR. A. B. MARTIN ADDRESSES BUSINESS MEN.

New President Hopes To Raise Standards, and Increase Efficiency of School's Service.

Before a group of 45 business men last night, Dr. Andrew B. Martin, president of Ottawa University, outlined his plans for greater Ottawa University. He spoke following a dinner in North American hotel. Arthur E. Williams introduced Dr. Martin.

What he had to say was expressed after he had made a careful survey of the situation since he assumed his duties. He emphasized anew the necessity of the school setting a budget, which must be held as low as possible and living within that budget. On the other hand, he also made it clear that the school must expand gradually to meet the demands for service. Next year, he said, it would be necessary to add at least two new members to the faculty.

He suggested that increase service might be attained in ways other than in securing increased funds. Particularly, he stressed desire to revamp the courses of study and make them more specific. Standards of the college should be raised, he said, and is his hope to make the school distinctive in the work that does along certain lines. While should be easy for a student to enter, he said it should be hard for him to get out. He favors much special attention for students as is necessary to give them every opportunity to meet high standards in courses of study.

After he had spoken for less than an hour, he answered questions. Dr. Martin made a firm impression of his sincerity and showed he had definite plans in mind for an expanded Ottawa University.
