

"Beloved ... I Send You Forth"

The Burning Theme of Our Convention

- ① We must recover our Evangelistic Mission.
 - This is not a side issue, but the central task of the Church.
 - We need Understanding and a Strategy.
- ② The frontiers on which we must Witness.
 - In the Great City
 - In the Throes of Suburbia
 - On University Campuses.
 - On the Job at Daily Work.
 - Mark Hatfield
 - Harold Stassen
 - In the Midst of Great Institutions
 - Hospitals
 - Mental Institutions
 - Prisons.
 - In the Midst of Revolution
 - Chester Kump in Congo.
 - Henry Gates in Hong Kong.
 - Kenyon Bodson in Ussam.

③ Always coming back to the Personal

- Do I care?

- Do I Understand?

- Have I committed myself?

The Sending Out of The Seventy

- Men who had been with Christ.
- They were to go out with the Message of the Kingdom.
- They were going as sheep among wolves.
- His presence would be with them.

① We Are Sent Out

- Each of us has a Personal Responsibility.
- Our greatest hours have been when men have gone out.

- His Centum.

- The Reformation.

- The Missionary Movement.

John Mott

"Father give it up or give it away."

- This comes when men have come to know Christ and have gone out in love.
- This is Christ's Command. Hansen.
- He asks of us Obedience.

② We Are Sent Into An Alien Country.

- "We are to go as sheep among wolves."
- Our Message Challenge the life of the world.
- We will come into places where we will Feel Alone
 - Fellow in a community.
 - Man in Russian
 - In the typical social life of today.
- We are to claim this country for Christ.

③ We Bring A Message For This World

- The Radio Moderator in Portland.
- This is the Announcement of God's Kingdom.
- This is the Message of Reconciliation, of Life and Fulfillment.

④ There Is Our Need For Divine Resources

- Not Cleverness, ingenuity or human strength.
- We are given the power of His Spirit.
- These are resources beyond ourselves

Our Fein Day

- Fein is A Day of Evangelism. This is our basic task.
- We need the resources of Fein Table.
