August 8, 1963

Dear Roger, Ruth, Randy, Miriam, and Joel,

Your letter was the most precious letter that I ever received.

Mrs. McKenzie wrote to me at the time of mama's death and said she would have liked to have known just how many babies mama had rocked to sleep in the nursery. That was her most loved task on this earth after my father's death. She started working there soon after she moved in town with us. She always called the nursery babies her babies. It always pleased her too after they were grown that they would come to her and holler to her if they were all in a group playing. I was real proud of her to. We really miss her.

Roger had gone to Herington to get an air conditioner that had been given to Clarence and since mama need the room real cold we just did that. But by the time it was installed it was too late to do her any good. She had stayed here in the living room on the di van and even then needed fans. I sure wish she had gone to hospital last winter, we might have headed this off. She had a real high fever and lost her appetite but Dr. C. W. got her back on her feet again. Dr. C. W. is the most wonderful doctor. He worried lots about just what he should do. Whether to let her be an invalid and not give her such strong medicine or to keep her going as mama he knew wanted him to. The strong medicine was bad for her heart. He would let up it when he knew he had better. He did the best he could. She only missed going to church one Sunday before her death.

She would be sick all week and I would say you had better not go today. That was last winter. She would say "You know I feel better this morning." So we would go to church. That seemed to give her strength for another week. One week when

Dr. Jennings was doctoring her, he came out to see how she was on Sunday & she was at church.

I just hope and pray that our family that was will be just half as good as she was. about a month before her

That was so wonderful what your family death did. Each one of you taking part in your memorial service for my mother. You have the most wonderful family. She really missed you folks. She knew you knew best though. Dr. Jennings is sure a wonderful minister. He came clear back here from his vacation to preach the memorial. Wasn't that good of him. We did not expect him to. We had been trying to think of the next best thing to do.

Opal is at OU. The ~~XXX~~ got a C and 2 B's this summer in her courses. Now in August she is taking Literature. She passed her Generals so far.

Hope Randy comes to OU. Burce Chittenden did. He grabbed and hugged my mother and me when we took him some candy for his birthday. We never saw much of him. He went to church in the mornings but in the evening he said he devoted his time to studying.

Lots of love to all of you,

Bridell

Mama would have having a birthday in just 3 more days. We will put some flowers on her grave that day. They use these imitation and they look prettier than the live ones because it is so hot here.

The reason I type my letters is because I write too fast with a pen.

God's Displaced People

- The Cross "Outside the Camp."

The Scriptural Setting

① The Powerful Meaning of the Scapegoat:

- Bearing the People's Sin.

② The Picture of Christ.

- Suffering Outside the City Gate

- Away from the Temple, the Priests and the Organization.

- Suffering at the Cross Roads

- At a Place of Death - Golgotha.

- The Gambling Soldiers, the Vulgarities.

- In the Mias of Men's Cries and in the Stench of Death.

③ The Call to Join Christ.

- Leaving the Place of Safety,

- Moving Outside the Walls into the Market Place.

- Bearing the Shame, Death & Abuse.

His Challenge Our Idea of Religion

① We Need a Place of Religion.

- It becomes socialized. Here is where God lives.
- Everything else is secular. This is sacred.

② This becomes an Organization.

- We belong and we sign the cards.
- We give it all reasonable socially.

③ We Want This All "To Go"!

- To be a nice part of everything else.
- To be established and respectable.

④ This All Becomes Nice, Uninvolved and Static.

The Power of the Gospel and Life

① Christ's Ministry

- An Incarnation of God's Love in Life
  - In a stable, open fields, at the well
  - In people's homes, in a borrowed tomb.

② The Early Church

- Moving into the Great Cities.
  - In the marketplace, in people's homes
  - In prison, in Caesar's Court.

③ The Reformation Understanding

- Use at the Altar
- Use in the Center of life.

The Claim of Christ On Us.① To Serve Him in the Center of Life.

- Gordon Cosby and Potter's House.
- Dr. George Eard and his Schedule.

② The Call to Move Into New Country.

- The Decision of Bruce Herrick.
- The Questions and Answers
  - The One in Camp and her Questions.
  - The Answer of Masako and the Commitment.
