

the ball from the No. 3 spot in Godlove's single wing-back formation. If the Leavenworth boy could come through it would give Ottawa more power in the backfield, a thing which is sorely needed.

Reames is one of the hardest fighters on the squad. Particularly, he gets tough when the going gets tough. One of his best games was against Wesleyan last week. In addition to his all-round good play, Reames aided in intercepting a pass, spilled several ball carriers for Wesleyan losses, and went down on a 44-yard punt by Jack Ramsey to down the ball on the Coyote 2-yard line. Warrior Walt has plenty of football fire in his system.

O. U. Priming For Homecoming

Many Alumni Back Friday for Bethel Game

Ottawa University students are preparing for the annual homecoming celebration which is to be held Friday. The feature will be the football game starting at 8 o'clock Friday night with Bethel College. The homecoming parade, which will wind its way down Main street starting at 2:30, will have several floats made by various student organizations.

Zale Bay, pep club, has already named the queen, the king and the royal attendants but has not revealed their identities. Probably tomorrow night the announcement will be made. The queen and her party were selected by nomination of the student body and election by Zale Bay.

A large number of alumni, as usual, are expected to return. After the football game, Ward chapter of local alumni will entertain visiting alumni in Tauy Jones hall. An alumni committee headed by Mrs. Allan Pett is arranging for refreshments. Other members are: Mrs. Harry Ireland, Mrs. Edgar Kerr, Mrs. Ben Bowers, Miss Marjorie Lancaster and Miss Delores King.

Ottawa, Kan., Oct. 24. — (Special)—Ottawa University will celebrate its annual home-coming Friday night when the Bethel Gray-maroons invade Ottawa for a Kansas Conference battle. Pre-game dope puts the two teams on even footing, except that Ottawa will not be in the best shape after its grueling game with Kansas Wesleyan last week, a scoreless tie.

Students in charge of homecoming arrangements are expecting a large crowd back to the game. Since the main feature will be played at night, a huge parade of student-prepared floats will be held in the afternoon. A party for returning alumni will be held after the game.

Oliver Smith, senior back from Leavenworth on the Ottawa squad, almost missed his first football game in eight years of playing last Friday night. He had an injured leg and Coach Dick Godlove did not send him into the Wesleyan fray until the last few minutes. Smith played four years at Leavenworth without missing a game and has played almost four at Ottawa without missing a game. He will be ready for action against Bethel.

O. U. ENSEMBLE PLAYS AT IOLA

The Ottawa University string ensemble yesterday afternoon played at the 40th anniversary meeting of the Iola Music club. The organization, one of the oldest musical groups in Kansas, gave Prof. Everett Fetter and his group a special invitation along with a fee to play. The ensemble stopped at Iola on a tour last spring.

Later this season the ensemble will appear in a concert here. Arrangements are also being made to have the group play a series of short concerts over radio station WREN at Lawrence, beginning in January.

Passing Twins Feature Bethel

O. U. Must Watch for Galle to Galle

When Bethel College comes to Ottawa Friday night, part of their dynamite will be a twin charge, the Galle twins who play in the backfield. Their names are Gilbert and Richard, but naturally they are called Gib and Dick all over the Kansas conference. That is, they are called that until they start unlimbering their brotherly passing act; then their opponents use stronger language.

Galle to Galle is a favorite term by sports reporters when describing the Bethel team's play. Together the pair of senior backs have upset many a foe in the last four years with their running, passing and blocking. They are average size. Gib weighs 168 and Dick 160. It makes no difference who does the passing, one does the pitching for a while and then changes with the other to go down the field for some neat catching. The pair make up quite a battery and can be relied on to furnish fireworks in the forthcoming homecoming tilt Friday night.

Another Bethel flash who may do any amount of damage is Chet Unruh, a nephew of the Newton coach, Otto Unruh. The lithe quarterback who packs about 170 pounds has made some sensational runs this season, one being for 80 yards and a touchdown against Kansas Wesleyan. He is a short fellow and runs in a side-sliding manner using a stiff arm to good advantage. In that long run of his, no less than eight of the Coyotes had their hands on him, but he finally shook free and trotted to the goal line.

O. U. Drills On Pass Defenses

Shifts in Lineup Pep Up Squad For Bethel

Ottawa University Braves were put through a long pass defense practice yesterday. That work was designed to stop the Galle to Galle passing combination of Bethel College which comes here for a homecoming game Friday night.

Coach Dick Godlove revealed plans for the defense and set his men to working out the strategy. It is expected that the Newton team will give the Braves secondary a heavy bombardment, so the squad is getting everything but bomb-proof cellars in readiness.

Recent shifts in positions played by various team members, Walter Reames to fullback and Gayl DeVore to blocking back, has fired the team with new enthusiasm and driving ability, giving Coach Dick Godlove and his team renewed confidence that they will be able to hold the spirited and hard fighting Bethel team.

One of the chief assets of the Ottawa line will be George Von Arb. He is a senior end who has plenty of speed and ability. George is regarded as a smart ball player and a fair pass catcher. He has captained the last two games for the Braves.

The Ottawa attack will be varied, more so, Godlove hopes, than it was against Wesleyan. The quarterbacks will probably mix up a portion of passes, off-tackle plunges, reverses and what-have-you.

Dope is still figured to give neither team an advantage, even though Bethel was able to score 13 points on Wesleyan while Ottawa scored nothing against the Coyotes.

The game will start at 8 o'clock. It is suggested that fans purchase tickets at the North American coffee shop or the Wassmer clothing store in order to avoid waiting in line at the gate.

Miss Henshaw Queen At O. U.

To Preside at Homecoming; Parade Tomorrow

Miss Meldon Henshaw of Ottawa will be the 1939 homecoming queen of Ottawa University, Zale Bay, student pep organization, announced today. The identity of the king and attendants will be revealed tomorrow. Miss Henshaw and the royal party will rule at the Ottawa University-Bethel college football game at Cook field tomorrow night.

The group will be presented to Ottawa tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 when the annual homecoming parade is held on Main street. The university band and many floats will be in the procession.

Boys' and girls' housing clubs are decorating their houses with varied motifs in black and yellow, the school colors. Novel floats which predict dire results for the Bethel football squad are being constructed for the parade.

After the parade through the downtown Ottawa the floats will be judged and a cash prize will be given for the most novel and expressive of the group. An O. U. banner will be awarded the club with the best decorated house.

The campus itself is being decorated with black and yellow banners by members of the "O" club, the freshman class, and the French and pep clubs.

The members of the Zale Bay, college pep organization which has had charge of the homecoming program, are Neal Baxter, Robert Schupbach, Lloyd James, David Haworth, Wyeth Cade, Tom Allen, Victor Graper, Florence Noble, Grace Erion, and Ruth Wedepohl.

Local alumni will entertain visiting graduates after the game in Taub Jones hall. Mrs. Allan Pett is in charge of arrangements.

O. U. Team Set For Homecoming Game Tonight

Parade With Royalty Adds Color to Annual Big Day for Grads

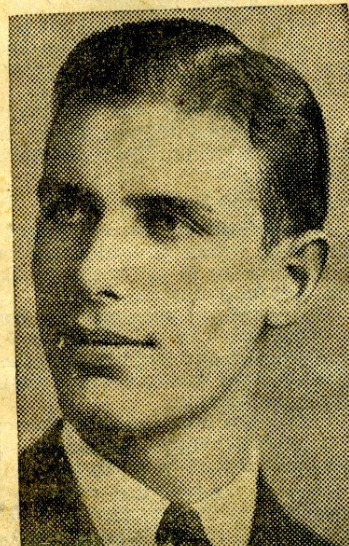

While Ottawa University students were holding their annual homecoming parade downtown this afternoon and in general celebrating the occasion, members of the football team sat back and waited for the game with Bethel to be played at 8 o'clock tonight on Cook field.

ESCORTS FOR ROYALTY

The queen of the day is Meldon Henshaw, a junior, of Ottawa. Her selection was announced yesterday. Her maids of honor are Grace Erion, senior, Milwaukee, Wis., and Dorothea Miller, sophomore, Ottawa. Her attendants are Jean Wrench, freshman, Ottawa, and Joy Balyeat, senior, Alexandria, La. The king is Neal Baxter, Pomona. Just so that one fellow will not be lost amidst so much beauty, two other escorts have been selected, Victor Graper, freshman, Colby, and David Haworth, sophomore, Ottawa.

BOTH TEAMS READY

Both teams are in readiness to go. Coach Dick Godlove did not know for sure who would start on the Ottawa team. Chances are that George Von Arb and Larry Smith will be ends, Leonard Hofstra and Russell Klotz, tackles; Kenny Hough and Gayl DeVore, guards; Mike Miller, center; and Walter Reames, Lyman Morgan, coaches. The squad arrived in Ottawa early this afternoon. In the backfield that pair of hard running and pass tossing brothers, Dick and Gib Galle, will start with Turner and Chet Unruh. The latter is the boy who has an 80-yard touchdown run against Kansas Wesleyan to his credit. This fleet Bethelite may give the Braves no end of worry. In the line Bethel will start: Hoff and Ray at ends, Catlin and Rayburn at tackles, Staerkel and Goering at guards and Guy at center.

Gus Fish will be referee tonight, Fred Kelley, umpire and Clarence Simpson, headlinesman. Fans were being urged to purchase tickets downtown at North American coffee shop or Wassmer clothing store and thus avoid waiting in line at the gate ticket office.

TO HONOR VISITORS

After the game, Ward chapter of local alumni is to entertain visiting alumni in Taub Jones hall. The committee, headed by Mrs.

Allan Pett, said that all alumni are invited to attend.

Leonard Hofstra, big 225-pound Ottawa University tackle, has been a power for four years in the forward wall. Aggressive, difficult for the opposition to move, and hard tackler make the big boy one of the standout players in the Kansas conference. He is a senior and comes from Leavenworth.

Braves Won in Second Half

Passes By Galle Brothers Featured for Bethel

A smashing offensive in the first five minutes of the second half gave Ottawa University two touchdowns and a 13 to 6 victory over Bethel College last night on Cook field in a Kansas conference game. The win kept Ottawa's record in the circuit free from defeats, only a scoreless tie with Wesleyan marring it.

The Ottawa dynamite was touched off in the first minute of the half. Jack O'Neal sprinted 39 yards through tackl... for the first one and seven yards around end for the second. The Braves threatened several other times in the last half but fumbles or stiff Bethel defense took away scoring opportunity.

The Graymaroon score came midway of the first quarter after the Galle brothers had unleashed some of their forward pass combination technique. Dick Galle to Gib Galle was a familiar phrase most of the evening. The two collaborating with Chet Unruh who trickled and sidled through the line for neat gains made way for the first score of the game. Dick Galle threw the touchdown pass, for about five yards, to Roy Hoff, end. The score was a result of a breath-taking 70-yard march by the hard charging Newton team.

Ottawa was in trouble practically all of the first half. The Graymaroons shot a 7-man line at the Braves on defense and for a while it was mighty successful strategy. The Ottawa offense bogged down and could not gain consistently. Short punts, pass interceptions and fumbles added to the misery of the Ottawa team. The Bethelites in the meantime were moving along nicely and looked to be much the better team.

It was a new and revived Ottawa outfit that took the field at the beginning of the second half. Whatever Coach Dick Godlove said at the intermission acted as a powerful stimulant. The listless play was gone and on the gridiron was an alert and smart team of Braves. George Von Arb opened by practically kicking out of the park. The ball actual than 70 yards in beyond the end zone el's ball on the 20 tries failed to do tawa forward v punted out but J turned the ball to yard line.

by practically kicking the pigskin out of the park on the kickoff.
The ball actually sailed more than 70 yards in the air, dropping beyond the end zone. It was Bethel's ball on the 20-yard line. Two tries failed to do much to the Ottawa forward wall and Galle punted out but Jack Ramsey returned the ball to the Bethel 39-yard line.

Right at that point a bolt of Ottawa lightning crackled. Jack O'Neal cut through a big hole at a spot where the Bethel left tackle had once stood, cut back across the secondary, got the aid of nice blocks, then streaked by a couple of Bethel safeties and shot down the side line for the score.
It was a smashing blow and brought a huge wave of applause and relief to the Ottawa stands.
The big homecoming crowd just could not believe that its Braves were beaten on the gridiron, but they had to think that in the first half.

The second Ottawa touchdown was not long following on the heels of the first. This time it was no long run, short gains doing the work. Much of the credit should go to Jack Ramsey, who was having his best night of the season in the second half. He jammed the ball down to the 7-yard line from where Jack O'Neal turned on a flash of power back of good blocking and went around the Bethel left end for another Ottawa score. Von Arb kicked goal for a 7-point Ottawa lead.

That was the end of scoring although there were many thrills left in the game. The Graymarooms never let up that passing attack. Dick Galle kept chucking the ball into the air and his brother and Hoff kept catching it. However, Ottawa abcks knocked many of them down and three times intercepted passes to stop the marches of the Bethelites.
But those long shoots kept the crowd tense and excited.

Two long runs by Jack Ramsey brought waves of applause and yells from the crowd. Once Ramsey broke through tackle and raced 55 yards down the west side line before he was stopped by Chet Unruh on the Bethel 25-yard line. The touchdown chance did not materialize, but the run was a sparkling highlight of the game. Later in the game Ramsey ripped off a 31-yard run. Again the Braves did not take the scoring opportunity, but each of those long drives, together with many shorter ones, kept the ball deep in Bethel territory so that the Galles could not become too dangerous with those long passes.
Don't think they did not try, for once Dick tossed one from a spot back of his own goal line. Nervy rascals, those Galles, and all the conference coaches are pleased to know that this is their last year of play.

On two of its goal line threats
Ottawa tried place kicks, but Von Arb sent the ball wide on the first, and Wine Park Shepherd booted the second short and wide.
Bethel also tried a place kick.
It was no good, but the boys recovered it and made a first down on the play.

Walter Reames playing his first game at fullback showed a lot of promise and several times crashed through for good gains. There is no denying that when he hits, he hits hard. A shift in the line during the second half sent Mike Miller to right tackle and Harry Trigg, freshman from Kincaid, to the vacated center spot. Trigg played a hard charging, aggressive game which may give him opportunity to play many more minutes this season.

Ottawa goes to Bethany next week for a game Friday night with the Swedes, who have not yet been beaten in conference competition. Last night they tied McPherson in an upset. Ottawa and Bethany are now tied for the conference lead with two victories and a tie each.

Parade and Decorated Houses Made a Hit

The Ottawa University homecoming activities went off without a hitch yesterday. The parade in the afternoon was a colorful affair witnessed by an unusually large Friday afternoon crowd downtown. The queen, Miss Mel-don Henshaw, and her attendants were highly approved and applauded. Then came the game which ended 13 to 6 for Ottawa after a battle. The alumni had a brief get-together after the game, pumpkin pie and hot coffee hitting an appropriate spot on the crisp fall evening.

Girls of the university proved themselves superior to men students in at least one respect yesterday when they won first place honors for the best decorated house. The Kappa Tau Delta housing group with a float based on a Wizard of Oz theme won a cash award, and the Iota Psi house decorations at Seventh and Poplar won a university banner. A football field on the roof with a gallery of spectators was the theme.

The choir float was the second choice of the judges at the parade and that of the Pi Theta Chi girls' housing group was third.
The latter group also won second place in the house decorations contest. Their home is located at 936 South Hickory. The Alpha Phi Beta boys housing group at 912 South Cedar, won third.

LAST WEEK'S RESULTS

Ottawa 13; Bethel 6.
Bethany 0; McPherson 0.
Kas. Wesleyan 9; Coll. of Emporia 0.

Ottawa University now finds itself as one of the leaders of the Kansas conference, being tied with the Bethany Swedes for the lead, each having two victories, a tie and no defeats. That particular matter, however, will be settled this week when Ottawa goes to Lindsborg to meet the big Swedes.
Barring a tie game, one of the teams will be in undisputed possession of first place.

Baker at present stands ace high as championship favorite after that 45 to 6 victory over College of Emporia week before last.
That probably is the biggest victory margin chalked up in a conference game for seven or eight years, and it should be a definite indication that the Wildcats have some sort of a football outfit.
Even luck won't get that many points as a rule.

Right behind Baker in the list of favorites are Ottawa, Bethany and Wesleyan. There are several angles to the outcome. Probably any one of the teams which can win remaining games on the schedule can have undisputed possession of the championship. Baker must play Wesleyan, Ottawa and Bethel yet. Ottawa has Bethany, College of Emporia and Baker. Wesleyan has McPherson and Baker. Bethany has Ottawa, Bethel and College of Emporia. That indicates a lot of football is left to be played and anything can and does happen in football, especially in the Kansas conference. There's many a thrill and spill for the boys who are fighting it out for the mythical trophy.

Continued (over)

How good was the Bethel passing attack? That Galle-to-Galle aerial game netted an early touchdown to the Graymaroons, but in the end it may have been the biggest aid to an Ottawa victory. Six times Ottawa defensive players intercepted Bethel passes. A brief bit of figuring will show that an average punt goes for about 35 yards, and that the half dozen punts which Bethel might have had instead of having those passes intercepted would have amounted to a total gain of 210 yards. In short those pass interceptions kept the Bethelites deep in their own territory especially in the second half. As a matter of fact, Coach Dick Godlove tells his men that an intercepted pass and a recovered fumble are about the two best plays.

Fans Urge New Bleachers For Football Games

Several Ways Are Suggested to Provide Better Seating

Followers of the Ottawa University and Ottawa high school football teams have been inquiring recently about the possibility of erecting new permanent stands at Cook field to replace the present wooden stands. It has been suggested by several sources that the school board and university officials go together in sponsoring a WPA project for the erection of stands similar to the structure at Baker.

NO WPA PROJECT

Members of the schoolboard pointed out that, while the board would be receptive to such an idea, it would be impossible, as the university is a private institution and cannot sponsor a WPA project. One member of the board said he believed permanent stands of some sort were badly needed at Cook field, but did not see how they could be obtained. He said even if the school board would sponsor a WPA project alone, approval of such a project could not be obtained, as the field is located on private property. Neither the university nor the school board is able financially to undertake such a project without aid of some sort. It is estimated by Washburn-Stookey, local architects, that such a project which would seat about 1,000 persons would cost $20,000.

FOREST PARK STADIUM?

Some have suggested that a civic stadium be built in Forest Park replacing the present grandstand, with the city, school board and university participating. It was also pointed out that the city might sponsor such a project with WPA aid alone, as there has already been much agitation for the city to replace the present old fair buildings with a new combined grandstand and exposition building.

5-YEAR PLAN IDEA

Some grid fans have suggested that the university set up a "five-year plan" for construction of stands, using student labor as much as possible during the summer months and working on it as funds were available. Another party suggested that the high school and college schedule one game each a season during the 5-year program, from which net proceeds would go into the building fund.

OLD STANDS WORN OUT

Coach Dick Godlove of the university said he favored a project to build new stands at the field if some means of financing it could be found. Godlove pointed out that the present wooden stands are about rotted out and will have to be replaced soon anyway, and if it is possible to work out a plan for construction of stone, brick or concrete stands it would be all the better.

Those who have been discussing the proposition have in mind stands along only the west side of the field, made of brick, stone or concrete which would seat a thousand or so persons, with a high enough slope that the fans could see over the heads of those in front. If the stands were built high enough it would be possible to put dressing rooms, refreshment stands, rest rooms and recreational rooms under the stands.

Out To Break Conference Tie

O. U. Braves Hope to Beat Bethany Friday

This is the week in which the temporary leadership of the Kansas conference is at stake. Ottawa University will go to Lindsborg to battle, Friday night, with Bethany College and the results will probably break the deadlock which now holds the two teams to the top spot of the loop.

Everything right now points to a toss-up. The Swedes, however, hold two important victories in the circuit. They bowled over Kansas Wesleyan, 7-6, and Baker, 6-0. Both of those games revealed a peculiar tendency on the part of the Swedes; that is, to hold on and grab a victory despite being overwhelmed in the statistical department. In the Baker game the Bethany team made only 16 yards by scrimmage and few more by passing, yet won by virtue of an intercepted pass and a 60-yard run to a score. In the meantime Baker was moving all over the field except across the goal line.

The Braves will continue to work on defense this week and may be expected to touch up on the pass defense especially, for it was passing that won the Wesleyan game for the Swedes and they will probably want to try the same sort of thing against Ottawa. And it is all right with the Braves if they do. The opposition can fill the air with passes every game, if by doing so the Ottawans can intercept a half dozen as they did against Bethel.

Much of the second half flashing of Ottawa against Bethel can be credited to the hard driving of the Ottawa forward wall. With "Howitzer" Hough leading the attack with jaw-jolting blocks and tackles, the Ottawa line bottled up the Bethel running offense so that the Graymaroons lost twice as many yards on the ground as they gained. Harry Trigg and Mike Miller worked out a play in the second half at the suggestion of Coach Dick Godlove which proved to be a happy thought. Mike moved over to weak side tackle and Trigg came in at the vacated center spot. "The Trigger", as the latter is called, played a bang-up game.

Godlove is hoping the Braves will display the power the showed in the first five minutes of the second half last week when the locals literally ran over a good Bethel team to score two touchdowns in less than five minutes. Those two scores came on six Ottawa scrimmage plays. It would be helpful, too, to have his team play a whole game like that, especially against the Swedes.

October 31, 1939

Elected.—Dr. Allen P. Wikgren of Ottawa University was elected vice president of the Kansas Collegiate Registrars' association at the meeting of the organization last week-end in Wichita. He and Miss Grace McWilliams, student assistant in the O. U. registrar's office attended the meeting.

Bethany Has Fans Guessing

Stars Were Out When McPherson Tied

How good a team is Bethany? That's what everyone in the conference and the Ottawa University Braves would like to know before they go out to Lindsborg for an important Kansas conference game Friday night.

Then last week lowly McPherson tied in a conference game. Pherson is not a hot. In fact it is a reference game and a developed right and it was natural tie with the Bulldogs.

One reason for the reverse was that and powerful tackle from the lineup injured leg. A few be back this week after having lost two games. different story.

If Bethany can it should not have difficulty in going off to championship, but intent on not letting Ottawa must win in the race for the game at Lindsborg has all the makings for a battle between teams.

Quite a number of so-called experts do not give Bethany a chance to win the conference crown, but despite that prediction the Swedes have scored victories over two of the top favorites, Kansas Wesleyan and Baker. They beat Baker, 6 to 0, after intercepting a pass to run 60 yards for a touchdown. The Wildcats moved all over the field except over that last chalk line. Wesleyan did the same, scoring 16 first downs to 5 for Bethany, but in the end the Swedes were on top of a 7-6 score.

Then last week, Bethany allowed lowly McPherson to gain a tie in a conference game. McPherson is not supposed to be so hot. In fact it has not won a conference game and has been wallowed right and left lately. Thus it was natural that the Bethany tie with the Bulldogs left the fans guessing.

One reason for the Bethany reverse was that Kephart, capable and powerful tackle, was missing from the lineup because of an injured leg. A few other stars will be back this week along with Kephart after having been out of the last two games. That may tell a different story.

If Bethany can get past Ottawa, it should not have too much difficulty in going on through for the championship, but the Braves are intent on not letting that happen. Ottawa must win the game to stay in the race for the top rung. The game at Lindsborg Friday night has all the makings of a pitched battle between two right fair teams.

O. U. Tapers Off For Bethany Tilt

A Championship Flavor To Lindsborg Game

Tapering off with a light drill today, Ottawa University Braves are preparing to leave tomorrow morning in cars for Lindsborg where they will engage the Bethany Swedes in a night game which temporarily decides the leadership of the Kansas conference.

It seems that it is an annual custom to have the Ottawa-Bethany tilt figure as a crucial game. Last year the Swedes came to Ottawa, undefeated in the conference and challenging the championship thrusters of the Braves. Now Ottawa goes to Lindsborg in an effort to stop the march of the Swedes and to keep alive their own march toward championship possibilities.

The game by no means will decide the wearing of the 1939 conference crown, but barring a tie it will decide the temporary leadership. Each has won two games and tied one.

Numerous bruises from the Bethel game and practice sessions this week will not permit the Braves to be in top form when they meet the Swedes. There are no serious injuries but minor ones will hamper the team.

The university band and a large number of students as well as many townspeople will go to the game. A special train was considered earlier this fall, but was given up this week in favor of cars. People driving to the game and desiring to take students who do not have ways to go, should call Loren Noren at the O. U. campus store, 511. Several students have expressed willingness to pay part of the expenses on such an arrangement.

Mel Miller of the Plaza theatre is arranging to have the score called back to Ottawa at the end of each quarter and announced in the theatre. A brief bulletin of game progress will also be received and announced at the theatre after each quarter or major development.

Braves Defeat Swedes at Finish

O. U. Alone at Top of Conference

Lindsborg, Kas. (Special)—Ottawa University Braves bombarded the Bethany goal line for almost four quarters, but so steadfast was the stalwart Bethany defense that not until midway of the fourth quarter could the Braves break through to score a touchdown and later win 7 to 2.

The victory put the Braves in possession of first place in the Kansas conference.

The game was filled with drama from the outset. No score developed until late when the big crowd which braved the chilly night had about given up. Then the Ottawans smashed through for the score. Even then the game was not over, for the Swedes came back with a daring attack via the air. They carried the ball down to the 15-yard line where they lost it on downs. A 15-yard penalty put the ball on the Ottawa 1-yard line. Quarterback Lyman Morgan elected to take a safety rather than kick out and give the Swedes a chance to pound away at the goal for a touchdown. The strategy, pulled with only 3½ minutes left in the game, was successful, for the Swedes never again were close enough to score.

The Swedes, penalties and fumbles kept the Ottawans away from the goal line, but on the first play of the last quarter Jack Ramsey returned a Bethany punt to the Swedes' 44-yard line and set up the scoring scene. Three times the hard driving Ottawa ace carried the ball off tackle, once for 23 yards down to the 16-yard line. He took it to the 12 on the next play and then Fullback Walter Reames came through with five yards on two plays. Ramsey made it first down on the 4. Reames picked up two yards in smash plays. Then Ramsey went over for the touchdown, smashing through the middle of the Bethany line for the counter. George Von Arb's place-kick was good.

The game had its thrills and comedy. Shortly after the Ottawa touchdown, an Ottawa punt off the toe of Lyman Morgan was blocked when the line failed to hold and Bethany recovered. It was from that point, the Ottawa 36, that the Swedes went down to the 15. Then came the Ottawa penalty to the 1-yard line, and finally the 2-point safety which may have saved the game from being a tie.

No game this season has been packed with as many thrills as was the battle which gave the Braves undisputed possession of first place. Bethany fans got the first results to cheer about. A 15-yard Ottawa penalty in the first minute of play put the Braves back on their heels. Hall of Bethany got off three nice kicks and Ottawa was forced to put from the 8, the 6, and 10-yard lines in that order. In desperation, Coach Dick Godlove sent in Ramsey who ran the ball out a few yards before sending a long punt deep into Bethany territory.

A pass interception gave Ottawa the ball on the 50, and the Braves were not long in trying to get under way. A Bethany pass interception shortly gave the Swedes a breath of air. But the Swedes fumbled and could do nothing with the tough Ottawa line. A little bit later Jack Ramsey's punt was blocked but a Bethany player touched the ball and Reames recovered for the Braves. Ottawa drove down to the Bethany 5-yard line. There they were stopped and Von Arb tried a place-kick which was wide.

Ottawa drove back down to the 10-yard line and at that point one of the season's most peculiar plays happened. Reames from his full-back spot went through the center of the Swede line. He was in the act of gaining about five yards when he fumbled the ball and it bounced into the end zone. A scramble of players followed with Kenny Hough, of Ottawa and a Bethany player almost having equal possession. It was ruled, however, as a touchback and Bethany took the ball on its own 20-yard line.

In the second half Ottawa got a break soon after the opening whistle. A Bethany fumble gave the Braves the pi skin on the mid-stripe of the field. The boys drove to the Swede 4 where they encountered a 5-yard penalty for offsidess. They could not gain it all back and tried a place-kick. Von Arb's try was wide. A few minutes later an Ottawa drive was again halted, and once more a place-kick attempted by Von Arb was wide. It hurt the Ottawa fans then, but the winning touchdown helped out a few minutes later.

GAMES THIS WEEK

Friday—College of Emporia at Ottawa.

Saturday—McPherson at Southwestern; Kansas Wesleyan at Baker; Bethel at Bethany.

LAST WEEK'S RESULTS

Ottawa 7; Bethany 2.
Baker 19; William Jewell 6.
Kansas Wesleyan 6; Rockhurst 6.
Bethel 6; Sterling 0.
Emporia Teachers 59; College of Emporia 7.

Ottawa University Braves entertain the College of Emporia on Cook field, Friday night, in another Kansas conference game.

Thus far, the Presbies have had an off-and-on season; so the outcome probably depends on just how well the Emporia team is clicking.

The Braves came back with a good many bruises but no serious injuries from the rough-and-tumble game which they won Friday night, 7 to 2. The Ottawa line deserves much of the credit for that victory. The Swedes lost more yardage than they gained trying to puncture the forward wall. They gained 34 and lost 45. Big Leonard Hofstra, playing his top game of the season, led the way for the linemen. Time after time the Lindsborg offense folded before it even got under way as the Ottawa line smashed in.

Bethany's line of good big men, somewhat weakened by the loss of Kephart, tackle, who was out with an injured arm, played hard ball and was mighty stubborn in pay territory. That toughness on the part of the Swedes plus a good many fumbles and penalties at the goal line kept the Braves out of the promised land for three quarters. The Ottawa touchdown came as a result of hard driving on the part of Jack Ramsey and Walter Reames. It took that pair three tries to move the ball over from the 4-yard line.

That safety for the Swedes brought back memories of the Southwestern game played here in 1936. Ottawa was leading 3 to 0 with only a few seconds left in the game. It was fourth down for the Braves with the ball on the one or two-yard line. If they took a safety they could win the game, 3 to 2. But they chose to kick and the ball slithered off the toe of the punter and went out of bounds on about the 10-yard line. There was time for just one Southwestern play, but the Builders needed no more. They passed a neat flip over center for the touchdown which gave them a 7 to 3 triumph.

A similar situation existed at Bethany last Friday. A few minutes left to play and Ottawa had the ball on its one-yard marker. If they tried to punt out the kick might be blocked or at best Bethany would have it around the 35-yard line or better. Quarterback Lyman Morgan harked back to that Southwestern game and promptly called for a safety. Smart stuff, although the two or three minutes left gave Bethany a chance to fling a desperate passing attack at Ottawa. It did not work, however, and Ottawa won.

FLAG AT O. U. UPSIDE DOWN

South end wags had a lively time of it this morning when it was discovered the American flag at Ottawa University had been hoisted upside down on the tall central flag pole. At sea this is used as a signal of distress, so many theories were offered by local wise-crackers, ranging from an invasion by Baker football fans to a secret capture by Nazi raiders.

Ray Gray, music student from McPherson, and official college flag-raiser-upper was as surprised as anyone when he saw the inverted flag. He admits the truth of the matter was that he was just a bit sleepy-eyed this morning when he hoisted Old Glory.

November 6, 1939

Omer Brenton ... 6-foot, 5-inch blocking back, is usually thought of by fans as a basketball center, but this senior from Kansas City has been doing creditable work in the role of blocking back and end on the O. U. football team this season.

C. of E. Coming On Special Train

Presbies Hope for Comeback Against O. U.

College of Emporia, scheduled to play Ottawa University here Friday night, is not down-at-the-mouth after being bowled over by Emporia Teachers last week. As a matter of fact, the Presbies are building up for a comeback. The whole student body is working on the problem and as a result a special train bringing the team, the band and 200 other students will steam into Ottawa early Friday evening.

The Presbies have been a hot-and-cold squad this year. They were good enough to beat Bethel, poor enough to lose to Baker by a big score, good enough to hold Wesleyan to a last minute touch-down victory, and poor enough to be tied by McPherson. This coming week-end may be their "on" time; at least they are counting on it. They will come to Ottawa inspired and determined to reclaim a bit of glory lost elsewhere, and that is the sort of a team which is hard to handle.

Shining light in the Emporia backfield is Bud Larson, a big blonde track man who was fast enough to pick up many points in the conference track meet last spring and good enough a year ago to be selected all-conference fullback. He has lots of help and when he leads his teammates in an inspired manner, the Presbies are difficult. So far they should not get the idea that because the Emporians have weakened and taken it on the nose a couple of times they are push-overs.

The Braves will not relax, said Coach Godlove. "We are expecting a hard game from a team that will be burning up to come back, so we will be keyed up and expecting a tough affair."

O. U. PLAYERS GUESTS OF BAKER

Members of the Ottawa University Players club went to Baker University last evening where they were entertained by the Baker University Players club. A cast of O. U. actors presented the one-act play, "The Bride Wore Red Pajamas." The players were: Marjorie Stucker, Loretta Franks, Robert Lefferson, Lloyd James and Kenneth Lissant. The comedy was directed by Edith Moffitt. Melton Henshaw, president of the Ottawa organization, introduced the cast.

The cast of the play went to Baldwin early and were entertained at a dinner given by the Baker dramatists.

Plenty of Speed On Both Teams

C. of E. May Be Hot Against O. U. Friday

Emporia Presbies, alternately hot and cold, are expecting to have one of their warm evenings Friday night when they come to Ottawa via special train to meet the O. U. Braves in a Kansas conference game. A glance at the material which the Emporians have indicates that all they need to do is to get moving what they have.

Their backfield is composed of the same men who drove the team into second place last fall. Led by the 190-pound Bud Larson, the outfit has plenty of speed, experience and power. Others in that group are Deputy, Haun, Brecht, Haskel and Wissler.

Highlights of the game probably will be the running of Jack O'Neal of Ottawa and Haskell of Emporia. These two are the fastest sprinters in the conference, having split the two sprint events in the conference meet a year ago. Both of them are playing half-back positions and each has made long runs this season. Fans can hold their breath whenever either of them gets his hand on the ball, because it may turn into a touchdown run.

Jack Ramsey, shifty and hard-driving Ottawa University back, who will be one of the powers against College of Emporia here, Friday night.

In the good passing arm of Bud Larson, the Presbies have another possibility. The fact that the College made several passes good against the alert Teachers last week indicates they may use this weapon effectively against the Ottawans.

The Braves went through another tough workout last night as Coach Dick Godlove sent his proteges through plays designed for the Emporia defense. Spearhead of the Ottawa attack will be Jack Ramsey who against Bethany last week was the top ranking ground gainer. In that game the fleet-footed back drove as hard as he has during his college career. When his shifty running made few yards, he simply drove and smashed his way through the Bethany defense.

November 8, 1939

On Vocations—Dr. Andrew B. Martin, president of Ottawa University, made an interesting talk on vocational guidance at the weekly luncheon meeting of the Rotary club this noon at Nelson hotel. There were three Rotarian visitors from other clubs, Eldon Harden of Salina, formerly of Ottawa; J. L. Perry of Topeka, and Ed R. Sheldon of Burlington. R. M. Clogston was a guest also.

O. U. Drills on Its Defenses

Fears C. of E. Line And Passing

Ottawa University Braves worked out long after dark last night, preparing for the C. of E. game on Cook field, Friday night when the boys could not see each other any longer, Coach Dick Godlove turned on the lights and kept at it for a half hour. Most of the time was spent on aerial offense and defense. Today the team will not work out, it being the custom to take a rest the day before a game.

Godlove told his line that it may have a tough time with the heavy Emporia front wall. The two Presby tackles, Todd and Westberger, weigh 230 and 210 pounds each, respectively. Neill and McCoy, the two ends, tip the scales about 180 pounds each as does Imache, center who made all-conference two years ago.

With that information, the line is digging in and showing improvement in rushing the offense. They hope to make it particularly tough on the C. of E. pass throwers by not giving them much time to get the aerial flips away. But this Bud Larson, Ace Presby, is no fool and may give the Ottawa pass defense as much of a fit as Dick Galle of Bethel gave two weeks ago.

The Braves would like very much to win in order to stay in the running for the conference championship. Right now the team is in undisputed possession of first place, but Wesleyan, Bethany and Baker are standing ready to argue the point if the Braves slip even so much as to tie Emporia. And the Presbies, with their up and down tendencies, may have one of their big nights to wreck the locals.

Coach Dick Godlove again advised fans to purchase tickets at Wassmer's or North American coffee shop and thus avoid waiting in line at the gate.

Seeking Funds For O. U. Dorm.

Thirty workers met at dinner last night at Nelson hotel and completed plans for a canvass of the membership of Ottawa First Baptist church to raise $2,500 to help build a new girls' dormitory at Ottawa University. R. M. Clogston, general chairman, presided. Short talks were made by Dr. Andrew B. Martin, president of O. U., Dr. W. A. Elliott, and Mrs. C. W. Hegberg, chairman of the women's committee. The workers hope to complete the canvass by next Wednesday.

KANSAS COLLEGE GAMES

This Afternoon
Creighton Frosh vs. Washburn Frosh at Topeka.
Tonight
College of Emporia vs. Ottawa U. at Ottawa.
Tomorrow
Oklahoma vs. Kansas State at Manhattan.
Kansas vs. Nebraska at Lincoln.
Wichita U. vs. Emporia State at Emporia.
Pittsburg vs. St. Benedict's at Atchison.
Kansas Wesleyan vs. Baker at Baldwin.
McPherson vs. Southwestern at Winfield.
Tomorrow Night
Grinnell vs. Washburn at Topeka.
Bethel vs. Bethany at Lindsborg.

As the state's Big Six schools and Washburn strive to polish up their records, Central and Kansas conference teams this week end will be digging in for title loot. All except the Washburn-Creighton freshman game and the C. of E.-Ottawa tilt tonight at Ottawa will be played Saturday amid Armistice Day celebrations, the largest of which will be at Baldwin.

The state's top contest will be the Kansas State-Oklahoma game Saturday at Manhattan, despite the fact Wes Fry's Wildcats are out of the Big Six running with defeats at the hands of Missouri and Nebraska. At top form, such as they displayed in drubbing Kansas last week, the Staters are a distinct threat to the all-conquering Sooners. Continued moisture, and the fact that the Wildcats have a break or two coming, might develop a startling upset at Manhattan. Especially if Elmer Hackney is wheeled into action to help an otherwise potent running attack.

Get Huskers on Rebound

Kansas draws the Nebraska Cornhuskers on the rebound at Lincoln and probably won't interrupt a Husker jinx that has existed since 1916. The Jayhawks will go in with Ralph Miller, however, who promises to pitch and pitch to overcome his mates' inability to hit. The one factor favoring the Kansas cause is the fact that Gwinn Henry's teams have played Nebraska without reading the papers.

Two Central Conference games Saturday have bearing on the championship. Wichita U.'s defending champions, tied once but unbeaten in league competition, invade Emporia to meet the once-beaten Hornets. Fran Welch's club has come like the wind since an early loss to St. Benedict's and is given a good chance to score the first Central Conference victory over the Shockers in two years. It will be one of those games in which the Emporians claim the best backs, Wichita the superior line.

If Emporia rolls Wichita, the St. Benedict's Ravens can step back into the title picture the same afternoon by outscoring the Pittsburg Gorillas at Atchison. The Ravens were ousted from the lead last week by Wichita but expect to have at least two of their injured backs, Francis Lynch and Joe Weiler, back in this homecoming fray. Pittsburg is not out of the running, claiming two ties which amounts to a win and a loss. Should the Morgan clan blossom, as it must one of these days, it could vault into the middle of the picture with a victory at Atchison.

The Baldwin celebration, which will feature nationally prominent speakers such as Sen. Bennett Clark of Missouri, Alf Landon and Ralph T. O'Neil, was designed to dedicate the picturesque stadium wall to Baker's World War dead. The fact that Kansas Wesleyan is the grid opponent, makes the program all the more attractive for these teams claim one of the hottest rivalries in the state. Baker also has a chance to win the Kansas Conference championship by taking its next three games with Wesleyan, Ottawa and Bethel. Ottawa Can't Let Down Ottawa, current leader and defending champion, must pass the C. of E. test tonight to remain ahead of Baker and Bethany in the standings. The Braves turned back the Swedes in a crucial game last week, 7 to 2, but have a tie with Wesleyan against them. Tomorrow night, Bethany faces the pass-minded Bethel club that spoiled Sterling's perfect record last week and which is a distinct threat every time out.

In an interconference game between last-place teams, McPherson journeys to Winfield to meet Southwestern Saturday afternoon. Fort Hays State and Sterling are idle this week. Washburn steps outside the stiff Missouri Valley Conference for its last home game against Grinnell here Saturday night.

November 10, 1939

At Teachers Meetings.—Ottawa University is well represented at Kansas state teachers meetings throughout the state. President Andrew B. Martin attended the morning sessions of the convention in Wichita. In the afternoon he will meet with the dormitory committee of Wichita. Prof. Adrian Tieleman is attending the convention in Topeka. He is being guided through his first teacher meeting by Ted Palmquist, superintendent at Turner and an O. U. graduate. O. U. luncheons and dinners are being held in Hays, Dodge City, Topeka and Wichita. Claude Webb will attend the latter two.

O. U. DEBATERS AT JEWELL MEET

Ottawa University debate teams left this afternoon for Liberty, Mo., to participate in the William Jewell College interstate debate tourney. Two women's and two men's teams took part in arguing a question centering around the United States' policy of isolation. Students making the trip: Sarah-beth King, Ann Kendrick, Dorothy Coad, Nelda Budde, Roland Nelson, Everett Sugarbaker, Paul Roten and Bruce Nemechek. Forty-two teams from Kansas, Iowa, Nebraska and Missouri were expected to attend.

O. U. Expects Tough Game

Crucial Tilt Played With Bethany Tonight

Expecting a nip-and-tuck battle, Ottawa University Braves left this morning for Lindsborg where tonight they engage the Bethany College Swedes in a Kansas conference game. The team is making the trip in cars and will return tomorrow morning.

While the game in no fashion is a title affair, the outcome will decide the temporary leadership of the conference, at least for a week. Unless, of course, there is a tie which certainly could happen.

Coach Dick Godlove expects to start his new backfield with Walter Reames at fullback. Jack Ramsey, Jack O'Neal and Lyman Morgan will probably be the other starting backs. There is a chance that either Oliver Smith or Joe Thomas will be one of the beginning four in which case Ramsey would probably not be inserted until later in the game.

Bulletins after each quarter will be sent to the Plaza theatre tonight and announced from the stage. The first of these should be in around 8:30, the game starting at 8 o'clock.

Many Other Music Events for This Year

Concerts, recitals and trips will feature an extensive program announced today by the Ottawa University school of music. Faculty members of the school will open activities with a concert on Nov. 14 at First Baptist church. Thereafter students and instructors will cooperate in presenting a long list of events.

Powell Weaver, organist, Everett Fetter, violinist, and Edgar Kerr, baritone, will link their art at the faculty recital. Early in 1940, these instructors will give individual recitals in answer to many requests made this fall.

The choir, orchestra, string ensemble and band will each make appearances. The choir will be heard on Nov. 19 in its first public performance in Ottawa and again in the annual Christmas vesper program on Dec. 10. Early next spring, Prof. Kerr will take the group of singers on an 8-day tour through Kansas giving concerts in 10 cities.

The string ensemble will be featured on a weekly broadcast over radio station WREN, Lawrence, beginning in January. It is possible that a series of 13 concerts, 15 minutes each, will be presented by the organization under direction of Mr. Fetter. On Jan. 10, the ensemble will give a public concert in Ottawa.

Members of the band, one of the best organizations in years, will give concerts at the Plaza theatre on Nov. 21 and 22. The group, the drum major of which is Loren Noren, has already given several performances, appearing at all home Ottawa University games. The band attended the O. U.-Bethany game at Lindsborg.

The schedule of events as announced by the school:

- Nov. 14—Faculty recital.
- 19—Choir concert.
- 21-23—Band at Plaza theatre.
- Dec. 10—Christmas vesper program.
- Jan. 10—String ensemble concert.

ANOTHER BATON EXHIBIT AT O. U.

Marion Goswick, star baton twirler of the Ottawa University band, will give another lighted baton demonstration tomorrow night between halves of the College of Emporia-O. U. game on Cook field. The lights will be turned out in order to give the unusual performance added brilliance. Two weeks ago a similar demonstration by Goswick pleased the fans, and several have requested opportunity to see it again.

The band led by Drum Major Loren Noren will, as usual, be present to furnish music and to give drills between halves. The university band is one of the best of recent years at the school.

GIVES COACH APPLE BEFORE EACH GAME

Leonard Hofstra, star tackle on the Ottawa University football team, wants two more big red apples. The big boy from Leavenworth has made a practice of giving an apple to Coach Dick Godlove before every game. Now he has only two games left in his collegiate career, the one with College of Emporia on Cook field here Friday night, and the one with Baker here, Nov. 17.

During the last year, Hofstra has been offered many apples by Ottawa merchants before each game. Other friends have reminded him to be sure and get one in time. But the all-Kansas and all-Kansas conference tackle has never forgotten and likely will not.

Braves Hope To Stay on Top

Must Hurdle College of Emporia Here Tonight

Typical fall weather with just the right amount of tang for football is adding impetus to interest in the Ottawa University-College of Emporia football game on Cook field tonight at 8 o'clock.

Coach Dick Godlove of Ottawa is expecting a tough game. Chances are, he says, that the Emporians will rebound from their defeat of last week and play the good football of which they are capable. Led by the able full-back, Bud Larson, all-conference last year, the Presbies will have plenty of weight and power to throw at the Braves.

Ottawa, with its Kansas conference record still free of defeats, is leading the league. The Braves have won three, lost none and tied one. A victory tonight would not cinch the championship but it would keep the Ottawans in first place for at least another week. Baker, Bethany and Wesleyan each has an opportunity to win or share in the title. Thus with the added importance of the game in the conference standings, the Braves will show no let-up as they go up against the men of Coach Bud Selves, especially since they are expecting the Emporia team to be high keyed for tonight's game.

Leonard Hofstra, 225-pound tackle, playing his last season with the Ottawa University Braves.

Emporia will bring about 200 rooters along including the band, but the trip will be made in cars instead of on a special train as originally planned.

Bands of the two schools will entertain the crowd between halves, one of the features being a lighted baton swirling exhibition by Marion Goswick.

Coach Godlove, as usual, is not sure of his starting line-up. In answer to questions as to whether Leonard Hofstra, big tackle, would open the game, Godlove assured the inquirer that the senior had given him the customary apple (one before every game) and would be in the starting line-up. Hofstra has only two games left, the one tonight and next week against Baker. Godlove is expecting the big fellow to turn in a stellar performance tonight.

Fans were again advised to purchase general admission tickets downtown before going to the field and thereby avoid standing in line. Robert Bundy, university business manager, said that 500 good unreserved seats are available. About 50 reserves are available.
