The Offertory Sentence

Sing to the Lord a new song,
And His praise in the congregation of saints.

For the Lord takes pleasure in His people;
He will beautify the humble with salvation.

C. S. LEWIS

There are two musical situations on which I think we can be confident that a blessing rests. One is where a priest or an organist, himself a man of trained and delicate taste, humbly and charitably sacrifices his own (aesthetically right) desires and gives the people humbler and coarser fare than he would wish, in a belief (even, as it may be, the erroneous belief) that he can thus bring them to God. The other is where the stupid and unmusical layman humbly and patiently and above all silently, listens to music which he cannot, or cannot fully, appreciate, in the belief that it somehow glorifies God, and that if it does not edify him this must be his own defect.

We are deeply grateful for the ministry of Dr. Donald Hustad, who is a recording artist, pianist, organist, arranger, conductor, author, and music columnist for various publications. For many years he was Director of Sacred Music at The Southern Baptist Theological Seminary in Louisville, Kentucky, and for six years he served as team organist with the Billy Graham Evangelistic Association. He has helped us to better praise God.

Charles Schultz will conduct a tour of the building following the service. Please meet by the piano.

You may order cassette tapes of the services at the Literature Table in the north hallway and pick up tapes you have ordered, as well as sermons, GOD LOVES THE DANDELIONS, and other literature.

EASTER GOSPEL

VERY EARLY in the morning on the first day of the week, they came to the tomb when the sun had risen. AND THEY SAID among themselves, "Who will roll away the stone from the door of the tomb for us?" BUT WHEN THEY LOOKED UP, they saw that the stone had been rolled away—for it was very large. AND ENTERING the tomb, they saw a man clothed in a long white robe sitting on the right side: BUT THEY WERE AFRAID. He said to them, "Do not be alarmed. I am Jesus of Nazareth, who has risen! He is before you now. Go and tell your brothers and sisters that they should go into Galilee, and there they will see him. I am sending you to tell all this to the people."

The Choral Call to Prayer--"Tenebrae Factae Sunt"
.....Michael Haydn

Haviland High School Choir

In the darkness of night they crucified the Lord Jesus, Jesus the Savior, and it was near the ninth hour when with a loud voice Jesus cried out and said, "My God, why hast thou forsaken me?" and bowing low His holy head in anguish He succumbed. Then cried out Jesus once more loudly, and He said, "Father, Father, into Thy hands now do I commend my spirit," and bowing low his holy head in anguish Jesus died.
