Debaters Hare, Bowler, Lovinger and Manners seem to be glad they are outside the prison gates.

As the last steel gate clanked shut behind them one day last spring, Dr. Robert Brewer paused for a moment to survey the unfamiliar surroundings.

The walls of Kansas State Prison at Lansing loomed large as he and four debaters from Central Missouri State walked across the concrete yard to start their first debate with the squad of the prison. The members of the audience gave the visitors the onceover as Denis Hare and Mike Bowler took the affirmative on the adoption of a drug program similar to that of Great Britain. Mike Manners and Bud Lovinger, arguing against the adoption of a federally administered welfare system, found the audience responsive and vocal. Manners felt the opposition had tremendous potential.

The Lansing debaters are enrolled in a debate class taught by J. Roger Mortimer, himself a PKD member. Some of the prison debaters already have undergraduate degrees; others are continuing their education.

The Committee on Governance deliberates at the joint convention of the Provinces of Illinois and Upper Mississippi. It is to be hoped that the condition of the window shade does not reflect the state of the participants' minds.

New Job Placement Service

Pi Kappa Delta is initiating a simple new job placement service. It is based on the assumption that PKD schools might be particularly interested in finding staff members who were PKD members as undergraduates, and that such members might like to work in PKD schools.

Department chairmen: Send your name, address, and name of school, together with a brief description of the available position, to the national secretary-treasurer. If you would like to have the opening listed in the Forensic (without the name of your school), include $1.

Job seekers: Send name, address, source of degrees and $1 to the national secretary-treasurer.

The secretary will provide listings to those involved, and subsequent contacts will be made directly between job seekers and potential employer.

Now the trumpet summons us again — not as a call to bear arms, though arms we need — not as a call to battle, though embattled we are — but a call to bear the burdens of a long twilight struggle, year in and year out, “rejoicing in hope, patient in tribulation” — a struggle against the common enemies of man: tyranny, poverty, disease, and war itself.
