NEW CHAPTERS

At the first business meeting, Charter and Standards Committee Chairman DeMoux (front left) and President Evan Ulrey (back right) presented charters to four schools. The accepters are shown with the valued evidence: Shawn McGrath. Glassboro State College (Colonies); John Saylor, Shippensburg State College (Colonies); Mary Ingalls, University of Arkansas-Fayetteville (Lower Mississippi); and David Evans, Wilkes College (Colonies). Well-wishers from the newlychartered schools also gather for the official photograph. (The persons must remain unidentified, as The Forensic staff was not present at the time to record names.) Later in the convention, four other schools received their charters: Louisiana State University-Shreveport (Lower Mississippi); Missouri Western College (Missouri); U. S. Coast Guard Academy (Northeast); and L. A. Lawrence Alumni Chapter at Montana State University (Northwest).

CHAPTER NEWS

Edited by Ada Mae Haury

OTTAWA UNIVERSITY

province of the plains In reflecting back on this year's forensic season, the Kansas Alpha chapter is proud of its accomplishments. The squad participated in over a dozen tournaments throughout the Midwest. The local chapter had full support of the University's administration in planning the trip to the Seattle Nationals. Ottawa University is proud that PKD was founded on its campus in 1913. The yellowed charter with the number 1 on it holds a place of esteem in the Administration Building. Ken Martin has served well as chapter president, along with Ken Clark, secretary-treasurer. Two new members were recently initiated — Emil Felarca and Nathan Moeller.

BETHEL COLLEGE

Reporter: Ada Mae Haury

With twenty-five students participating in individual events and eight in debate, Bethel College students had to stretch the budget to compete in fourteen tournaments during 1976-1977.

Top-ranking debaters Jim and Beth Goering achieved recognition in eight tournaments: first place at Hutchinson Junior College, second at Southwestern College, third at Kearny State and Northwest Missouri State, fourth at Pittsburg and Johnson County, fifth at Wichita State University, and superior at Pi Kappa Delta Nationals.

Senior team Linda Vetter and Barbara Unruh ranked third at Kearney State and Hutchinson Junior College. David Abel and Mike Neufeld won fourth at Southwestern College, while Mike Neufeld and Greg Claassen won first in amateur division at Kansas State University. Beth Goering and David Abel ranked third at Central State University, Oklahoma.

Speaker awards in debate were won by Jim Goering, Beth Goering, and David Abel.

The squad won first place sweepstakes at Southwestern College and Kansas State University and second place sweepstakes at Northwest Missouri State University and Nebraska Wesleyan University.

Top trophy winners in individual events were Mark Ediger and Kirk Belt, although seven other members of the squad received recognition.

Members of the squad have also been active in presenting readers theatre performances and assisting with three tournaments on the campus.

SOUTHWESTERN COLLEGE

Reporter: Linda Voth

Southwestern College of Winfield, Kansas, under the direction of Coach Gary Horn, concluded a very successful January interterm by pocketing a total of eight trophies over the one-month period. The season began with the debaters traveling to El Paso, Texas, to participate in the Sun Carnival Swing. After competition in the prelims of the tournament held at the University of Texas in El Paso, Southwestern won the second place sweepstakes trophy, and the teams of Jimmy Robinson-Tim Hammer and Lovina Vanderhoof-Linda Voth went on to tie for first place in junior division debate. Linda Voth, freshman, also won first in persuasive speaking.

In the second tournament of the "Swing" held at El Paso Community College, Southwestern again proved its strength by closing out the junior division debate with the teams of Vanderhoof-Voth and Rick Peterson-Robert Wilson.

The following weekend, Southwestern debaters traveled to the University of Texas at Arlington. Despite stiff competition, the Voth-Robinson team took quarterfinal honors, following a 6-2 preliminary showing.

The climax of the month was realized at the Kansas State College of Pittsburg when the team of Voth-Robinson won the first place trophy, defeating the University of Missouri at Kansas City.

NORTHERN ILLINOIS UNIVERSITY

Reporter: J. L. Mignerey
The Northern Illinois University team is about to end another successful year. Most of the members from last year's squad are gone, but enthusiasm and dedication from the new members added up to a good year. The individual events team placed in the top four at every tournament spring semester in total sweepstakes, finishing second at the University of Wisconsin-Eau Claire Speech Tournament and second in the Illinois Forensic Association Tournament at Bradley University. Individual awards went to Deb Wiers for her four first place finishes in informative speaking, after-dinner speaking, and oratory and also to Eileen Donlevy, Sherman Wright, Audley Shaw, Judy Santacaterina, and Cathy Hekhuis.

The debate squad was also successful.

Debbie Weber was first speaker at the Naval Academy Debate Tournament, and the team of Weber and Larry Underberg made it to octafinals. The team of Bill Nelles and Dan Golden advanced to semifinals at both Middle Tennessee State University and Loyola University, and the team of Weber and Underberg advanced to the finals at Wayne State University, while Larry Hanson and Jim Bollenback reached semifinals at Loyola University.

Pi Kappa Delta members are assisting in gathering and recording material for an oral history project to be placed in the new community museum. Shown in a recording session are (standing, left to right) Scott Cox, Connie Moore, Leisa Lazarus, and (seated) Vanessa Lindsay. Members who are interested in oral interpretation make tapes of creative writings done by area residents. Other members interview older residents concerning tales, legends, lifestyles, and other oral memorabilia of the area.

Other service projects of the Louisiana

Delta chapter include running Tech's fall tournament, assisting with career day for area high schools, recording "Get Informed and Vote" advertisements and Christmas and orientation programs for other colleges within the University, and participating in over twenty-five Student Speakers Bureau programs by press time. The forensic squad was also successful, placing in all tournaments entered.

CONCORDIA COLLEGE

Reporter: Cindy Carver

The Pi Kappa Delta chapter of Concordia College, Moorhead,

Minnesota, has experienced a busy and successful season. With a dozen students participating, Concordia will have attended over seventeen tournaments by the end of the season. Additionally, the squad has brought home trophies from at least half of those tournaments. The University of Kansas Tournament found the Concordia freshman team of Star Muir and Annette Morud bringing home an octafinalist award. Soon afterwards, the varsity team of Kathy Kellermann and Mark DeYoung were awarded an octafinalist trophy at the tough University of Houston Tournament. A final octafinalist award was achieved by another freshman combination, Margaret Trochmann and Annette Morud, at the University of Utah Tournament. Two semifinalist trophies were recently won by the Concordia district team of Kathy Kellermann and Star Muir at the University of Wisconsin at LaCrosse and at the Washburn University Tournament. Although a first place finish has eluded the Cobbers, the Concordia team has captured two second place finishes, with Margaret Trochman and Annette Morud at the Southwest Missouri State Tournament and with Kathy Kellermann and Star Muir at the University of Nebraska-Lincoln Tournament. thirds of the Concordia squad are firstyear debaters, so next year should be a promising season. Coaches are Debbie Brown and Cindy Carver.

UNIVERSITY OF WISCONSIN-EAU CLAIRE

Reporter: Grace Walsh

Wisconsin Zeta 216 at Eau Claire has to be one of the most active and successful chapters of Pi Kappa Delta. The chapter hosted the following events on their campus this year: a fall forensic conference for high schools, a discussion clinic for high schools, a forensic tournament for high schools, a speech meet for colleges and universities, the Wisconsin Collegiate Tournament for Wisconsin schools in both debate and individual events, and the 104th Annual Contest of the Interstate Oratorical Association.

The debaters and individual events participants have added many trophies to the case. The debaters' record sounds like this: semifinals at the University of lowa, octafinals at Western Illinois, semifinals in varsity at Bradley, and first place in junior varsity at Bradley. They reached the semifinals in both junior varsity and varsity in Omaha; won second at Illinois State; received the outstanding debater award and finished fourth at Northern Illinois; and gained fourth at Bradley.

In individual events, first place sweepstakes went to Eau Claire at the Twin City League, the Winona Tournament, the La Crosse Tournament, and at Illinois State. In several instances, the points were far ahead of those of the closest competitors. They placed second at Whitewater and fourth at Bradley.

Ten members of the Wisconsin Zeta chapter helped the chapter reach top ranking in the Seattle PKD Tournament. They will also participate in the District Debate Tournament and are planning on sending all qualified to the National Individual Events Tournament at George Mason College in Virginia.

WEST CHESTER STATE COLLEGE

Reporter: A. G. Kershner, Jr.

Pennsylvania lota chapter at West

Chester State College completed another successful year with induction ceremonies for eight new members. Elected to the order of debate were: Philip Bogdanoff, Joseph Cassel, R. Scott Hastings, Dorothy Langton, and Sandy Matchica. Elected to the order of competitive individual speaking were Patrick Crough, Henry Gentry, and Sally Painter. At the same meeting it was announced that Kathryn Krauss and Geralyn Mayernick have been elevated to the degree of highest distinction, both in the order of competitive individual speaking.

As a result of the annual election of officers, the following will serve at West Chester State during 1977-78: President Kathryn Krauss, Vice-President Henry Recording Secretary-Historian Gentry, Heather-Jo Daley. At the conclusion of the meeting, out-going President Tim Anderson presented a comic-serious talk based on his four years of experience as a forensic participant at West Chester State, during which he has been somewhat of a national celebrity because of his great efforts in behalf of Pi Kappa Delta at two national conventions and in so many other ways. Tim received a standing ovation from the members of the gathering.

Also cited at the meeting were Gerry Mayernick, who was present at the Seattle National Convention this year, and Mrs. Carolyn Keefe, who also helped represent West Chester at Seattle. Mrs. Keefe, director of forensics, was commended for her service to Pi Kappa Delta as editor of The Forensic.

Others present at the Pennsylvania lota meeting were Mrs. Diane Casagrande, coach of debate, and A. G. Kershner, local chapter sponsor. Dr. William Morehouse, chairman of the Speech Communication and Theatre Department, was a special guest.
