

DR. A. B. MARTIN

PRESIDENT MARTIN SPEAKS

It is a distinct pleasure to offer to old and new students a word of sincere welcome at the beginning of this new school year. The entire administration, faculty and trustees associate themselves with this greeting and extend to one and all the hospitality for which Ottawa is famous.

Ottawa University now enters the seventy-second years of its history and in this long time it has accumulated much educational wisdom and a rich cultural tradition which it places at the disposal of all its students in a stable and comprehensive program.

During the last few months this program has been again reviewed and thoroughly overhauled. Student opinion has had a large part in directing the changes that have been made. It has been and will be a co-operative enterprise based upon free inquiry and deliberative decision. We are now in the process of setting up a completely revised program which will challenge every one of us and probably demand heavily from each the responsible part that he should play in a free community. Our plans and program will succeed only if we bring to them a serious purpose and give them our enthusiastic support.

(Continued on Page Four)

PRESIDENT MARTIN SPEAKS

(Continued from Page One)

The Ottawa Spirit calls us all once again. It is the Spirit of a significant and accomplished past. But it is the Spirit of today also.

challenging us to new responsibilities and new heights of achievement. It is the Spirit of tomorrow pointing us to progress and success. This Spirit is no mere ghost haunting the emptiness of our dreams but it is the patron saint of a forward moving Ottawa. May we have loyalty enough and courage enough to follow on in the fulfillment of our chosen aim.

The best in education and the best in religion for the best in life

—A B. Martin ✓

FOOTBALL EQUIPMENT