

Seventieth Annual Session in Ottawa Today and Tomorrow

The 70th annual session of the Miami Baptist association, comprised of churches in Miami, Franklin and adjoining counties, is in session in Ottawa First Baptist church today and tomorrow. About 150 were in attendance today. Miss Maza Evans, Ottawa University graduate, missionary from Golgotha, Assam, spoke today. Rev. W. O. Roten of Garnett will deliver the annual sermon tonight. Tomorrow morning Rev. E. E. McFarlane, Topeka, head of the state department of evangelism, and Dr. A. B. Martin, president of O. U., will speak. At a symposium on pioneers tomorrow afternoon, old and new generations will speak.

USED PLANE TO BRING CHICKEN

O. U. FROSH PULLED A NEW ONE ON SOPHS.

But Second Year Men Won in Annual Scrap—Chicken Fried at Topeka and Flown Here.

Sophomores of Ottawa University this morning were king pins of the campus after having defeated the freshmen in the annual chicken scrap on Cook field last night before one of the largest crowds ever to witness the event.

The fighting was furious most of the way, and it was not until 17 minutes had elapsed that the second year scrappers were named the winners. The fight took place in a 20-yard square with the participants vying to tie one another up. For the first five minutes the battle was even with the sophomores getting first blood by roping a frosh and carrying him outside the square. The first year fighters came back strong and forged ahead but were finally outdone. Nineteen men were picked from each class for the scrap, football men being barred. Members of the student council and faculty supervised the fracas. Nobody was hurt.

That the freshmen intend to live up to trends of the modern age was indicated by their bringing the chicken for the after-scrap feast to Ottawa by airplane. It was fried in Topeka at the First Baptist church and brought to Ottawa by Bill Calderwood who was accompanied by Wayland Rose of St. Paul, Minn., frosh president, and Byron Snyder of Osawatimie. Two girls, Jeanne Abels of Topeka and Lorraine Peacock of Ottawa, who helped prepare the chicken, came back in a car. The chicken arrived about 6:30 with Calderwood circling over town blasting on a siren in order to notify freshmen to come and get it at Conard field, northeast of Ottawa.

From there the huge quantity of chicken was taken to the county jail. Sophomores who attempted to obtain it from there were thrown off the scent by the police, and the boys did not think it best to attempt breaking in.

After the scrap a long line of students and friends lined up for the chicken at the east door of the gym, and true to tradition the freshmen had plenty of it.

O. U. SQUAD IN STIFF WORKOUT

Good Defensively, But Offensive Blocking Was Weak—Pass Catchers Show Up Well.

The Ottawa University football squad went through stiff scrimmage practice yesterday with the boys being divided into squads and thrown at one another for about an hour. The North team took to the air for two touchdowns.

Defensively, the play was all that could be expected at this time of the year even though tackling was a bit spotty at times. Offensive blocking was ineffective except on pass plays in which cases the passer had plenty of time even though the defense line charged hard. Three pass catchers looked fairly good, Lyle Swetnam, Wendell McMurray and Omer Brenton. The latter snagged one and ran 30 yards for a touchdown. McMurray is one of the best pass grabbers on the squad and will be used at an end position quite a bit if he can improve the rest of his game, especially his blocking and defensive work.

Jack Ramsey went on a driving spree during the last few minutes of the game and drove through the line on several nice gains to indicate that he may be a power on the squad. A new ball lugger, Gentry Fitzhugh of Topeka, did some neat work with the pigskin and may develop into a capable back.

Tonight the Braves will take a light drill. Monday they will start pointing for the opening clash with the Haskell Indians next Friday evening on Cook field. The Indians journey to McPherson tonight to take on the McPherson Bulldogs in a game which should give a line on two future opponents of O. U.

The Ottawa University season football ticket campaign sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce reached the 450 mark today, just 50 short of the 500 goal set by the university athletic department. Coach Richard Godlove said that the school would place the tickets on reserve Monday morning at 8 o'clock at Davis-Wassmer clothing store with the understanding that workers would sell the additional 50 tickets the first of the week. The season ticket is offered at $2.25, half price.

Strong McPherson Bowed to Indians, Who Play O. U. Here Next Week; Several Colds

A wave of colds hit the Ottawa University football team during the last of this week sending Walter Reames, Gentry Fitzhugh and Jack O'Neal to bed for a day or so. Others of the squad were doing considerable sniffing.

The news that Haskell Institute beat McPherson College last night 3 to 0 left the Ottawans quite serious this morning about their game with the Indians which is to be played on Cook field next Friday night. The dope pointed to a powerful McPherson team this fall with plenty of offensive power. Last night, however, the Bulldogs were stopped cold indicating that the Indians have something more than a sign this year to put on their opponents. The Ottawans will buckle down to hard drilling next week in order to be ready for the Braves from Lawrence.

Ottawa sports fans who watched the Baker-Washburn game last night came back with the report that the Wildcats have a big, promising team even though they were beaten 0 to 34 by the Ichabods. The Baker pass defense was inadequate and inexperienced but a couple of weeks will take care of that. Washburn made practically no gains through the middle of the Wildcat line.

Coach Dick Godlove of the Ottawans refereed the Kansas City Wyandotte-Central high game in Kansas City last night.

SWARM IN LINE FOR O. U. TICKETS

Fans Show Strong Interest in the Opening Game Here Against Haskell Friday Night.

Throngs of season ticket purchasers swarmed in a long line for reservations this morning indicating the fans are ready, able and willing for the first Ottawa University home football game. Their wants will be fulfilled next Friday night at 8 o'clock when the Ottawans take on the Haskell Indians on Cook field.

Meanwhile the O. U. squad is preparing to rush its final preparations, especially in the matter of blocking which up to now has been weak. Also to overcome will be several light cases of "flu" and severe head colds. Lost to the squad will be the services of the promising freshman halfback, Gentry Fitzhugh of Topeka, who broke his right thumb in practice last week. He will probably be out for three or four weeks.

Godlove said he did not have the slightest idea as to his opening lineup, but hopes it will be good enough to cope with a vastly improved Haskell team. The Haskell victory over McPherson came as a surprise to experts who had scoffed at the Indians being any-

Captain in Game Against Haskell Friday Night—Braves Are Polishing Off.

With three weeks of heavy practice back of them, the Ottawa University Braves are putting on the final touches for the opening gridiron game with Haskell Institute here Friday evening. In this, the fourth week, the Ottawans are polishing up weak points. Coach Dick Godlove hopes to have 27 or 28 men ready to send against the Indians.

Don Meek, senior power in the Ottawa University backfield, will be game captain Friday night.

Friday night. Coach Richard Godlove has not yet announced an opening lineup but expects to have about thirty men suited up for the contest.

Don Meek, veteran Ottawa University back, will be the captain of his team Friday night, his mates having chosen him in the first of a series of elections to determine various game captains. Don has been shifted from the tailback position, where he starred last year, to the fullback position.

Filling in at the tailback position will be Roy Fitzpatrick, all-Kansas Conference halfback last year, and Jack Ramsey, sophomore ball-lugger. Jack O'Neal and Norman Gerhold also will be given a chance to show what they have to offer at that post.

With Bob Harrop and Harold Pitts, first string tackles last year, gone by graduation, Godlove faces a tackle problem. He will start Leonard Hofstra and Walter Reames, calling on Lester Adams and Jack Jeffries for replacements. The center is bound to be a freshman, for the only two out, Bob Brenton of Kansas City and Mike Miller of Ottawa, are first year men.

After the surprising Haskell victory over McPherson last week, the Ottawans are looking forward to a stiff game Friday night. Evidently the boys feel that Haskell has something more than an Indian sign to put on its opponents, especially since LeRoy booted the winning field goal thirty-seven yards.

TO GO AHEAD ON DORMITORY

O. U. DRIVE AT ONCE FOR $60,000 UNIT

About $12,000 Raised Already—
Baptist Women of State
Pledged to Raise $30,000

New life was given to the Ottawa University women's dormitory project yesterday when the board of trustees in an enthusiastic meeting voted to proceed immediately with a campaign to raise funds. A revision in plans calls for a building costing from $60,000 to $65,000, forming a unit housing 60 girls to be built south of Ward science hall and with a possibility of adding other units in the future.

According to plans announced yesterday, Baptist women of the state will raise $30,000 and alumni will probably raise $15,000. Larger gifts from Baptists and other friends in the state are expected to contribute the balance. It is estimated that $12,000, approximately, has already been pledged to the project by these larger givers.

The women are starting their campaign immediately. Alumni will not start their drive until after January 1.

There was no discussion of whether a drive would be made in Ottawa.

It is hoped that the building can be dedicated on the 75th anniversary of the university to be celebrated in the spring of 1940.

President Andrew B. Martin pointed out to the board that the demand for dormitory rooms exceeded the supply this fall. Charlton Cottage is filled to capacity as is the Iota Psi house. Several girls did not enter O. U. because rooms could not be obtained at either of these houses.

Three new members were elected to the board: Fred Bemis of Hays, Marion C. Hume of Ottawa and Dr. Lewis M. Hale of Wichita. The officers of the board were re-elected to their positions: O. A. Powell of Wichita, President; C. W. Hegberg of Ottawa, vice president; Dr. W. A. Elliott of Ottawa, secretary; and Bert Anderson of Ottawa, treasurer.

The board transacted other routine business. About 25 members were present.

O. U. PERFECTS AN AIR DEFENSE

Line Blocking Practice Also Held in Workouts—Off-Tackle Plays Against Haskell?

Coach Dick Godlove sent his Ottawa University football squad through a long pass defense drill last night and spent considerable time on blocking practice in the line. Fear that the Haskell Indians, who come to Ottawa for the opening game of the season Friday night starting at 8 o'clock, will launch an air attack prompted the air defense rehearsal.

The Indian line will probably outweigh the Ottawa forward wall. Mackey Kenyon, who answers to the name of Barking Dog, weighs about 210 pounds, playing tackle with Lloyd Yellowhorse who tips the beam at 190 pounds. That would give the Indians a weight advantage over the combined tonnage of Leonard Hofstra and Walter Reames who will be the starting Ottawa tackles.

Chances are that fans will see some revisions in the style of play used by the Braves Friday night, but in general the addition of a few new plays will cover that situation. Godlove's men will again use the powerful single wingback style of play, but incidentally will use more weak side plays than they did last year. The line formation used by the Braves calls for a preponderance of linemen playing on one side of

TEN VETERANS MEET HASKELL

Freshman Complete O. U. Starting Lineup Tomorrow Night—
Ottawa Indian in Squad.

Ten veterans and one freshman will make up the starting Ottawa University lineup against Haskell in the first O. U. football game of the season to be played on Cook field tomorrow night at 8 o'clock. That does not mean that the 10 or 15 promising freshmen will not see action; they will get plenty of that, but the old men will dominate the situation in the early minutes of play.

George Von Arb and Eugene Harding will be ends, Leonard

Lyman Morgan, Leavenworth, who will be one of the starting halfbacks for Ottawa tomorrow night.

Hofstra and Walter Reames will be tackles, Kenneth Hough and Elvis Berger, guards, Mike Miller, the one freshman in the lineup, Center, Oliver Smith at quarter, Lyman Morgan and Bill Mattis at halfbacks, and Don Meek at fullback.

What this group can do is everybody's business right now. Speculation has been hot during the last few days as to the starting lineup, and now that one has been picked, Coach Dick Godlove reserving any or all players, the downtown quarterbacks can tear it to pieces. Incidentally, Godlove is hoping that a re-enlivened Haskell team will not do too much tearing at the O. U. line. The fans can count on a much closer game than they saw a year ago when the Ottawans won 38 to 0. According to expert opinion, a Haskell victory would not be an upset.

The Indian lineup will include: Catch-From-Behind Gawhega and Strike Axe Shoemake at ends, Barking Dog Kenyon and Lloyd Yellowhorse at tackles, Little Wolf Vetter and Black Eagle Gentry at

O. U. TO OPEN WITH HASKELL

A HARD FOUGHT GRID GAME
HERE ONIGHT.

Indian Dances Between Halves—
Honor Ottawa Tribesman
Before Game Starts.

A band of Haskell Indians will invade Ottawa tonight to oppose Ottawa University on the gridiron at 8 o'clock. It will be the opening game for the Ottawans and the beginning of the third year of coaching by Dick Godlove. Dopesters who have followed the two teams in pre-season drills hold that the game will be close with neither team having an advantage.

A year ago Ottawa backed ran wild against the Indians, winning 38 to 0, but Haskell has served notice by downing McPherson 3 to 0 that it has a larger and more experienced eleven. The Indians believe they can stop the Ottawa scoring thrusts. And if they can do that, they will hold an advantage in the kicking toe of LeRoy Eastman who sent the pigskin 37 yards to beat McPherson.

Coach Godlove, however, will send a hard driving outfit aiming at the goal line through the Indian defense. In announcing that Oliver Smith, Lyman Morgan, Bill Mattis and Don Meek will start in the Ottawa backfield, Godlove indicated he will start his best bunch of blockers. And in Morgan and Mattis he has plenty of speed. To see service later in the game will be Jack Ramsey and Roy Fitzpatrick at the tailback position and Phillip Palmer at the fullback spot. As a matter of fact, Godlove expects to use about 30 men in the game, win, lose or draw.

If Ottawa wins tonight, it will be due to effective functioning of its offense. If Coach John Eastman's Indians win, it will be due to a stubborn defense. Eastman's

DORMITORY DRIVE A TEST

A new dormitory for girl students is sorely needed at Ottawa University. It would provide housing facilities that would attract more students who could afford to pay for the accommodations offered. More students would mean an increased income for the institution without materially increasing the budget for operation. The new dormitory, therefore, would serve the double purpose of providing what certain students want and go somewhere to get, and would put the university on a more secure financial footing. It is a business as well as a housing proposition.

And the drive for $60,000 to build the dormitory will accomplish a third objective. It will serve as a test of the loyalty of the Baptists of Kansas. For several years the citizens of Ottawa have been contributing generously for support of the educational institution that is Ottawa's pride, doing it ungrudgingly. The presence of some 300 students in Ottawa during the school year is good business, as well as evidence that Ottawa is the home of a one of the best known smaller institutions of higher learning in the middle west. Now if a new dormitory is built, Kansas Baptists will have to do their share. The Baptist women of the state have assumed $30,000 of the obligation. They will try to raise this 50 per cent of the total in the churches. The alumni will be held responsible for around $15,000, and it is hoped to secure some large lump sum gifts from several individuals. Where an individual's pocketbook is, there is his interest. If the Baptists of Kansas put over this dormitory campaign, they will be accomplishing more than the immediate objective. They will be investing their loyalty and interest in Ottawa University.

KNIFED GUARD AT O. U. GAME

CHARLES LEE, COLORED, IS HELD ON ASSAULT CHARGE

As Student Guard Started to Put Him Out, Lee Struck Forrest
Officer on Collar Bone

Charles Lee, colored, 21, is being held by the county for an assault on Forrest Officer, Ottawa University freshman from Paola, last night at the O. U.-Haskell football game.

According to persons who witnessed the altercation, Lee crawled under the fence at the east side of the field near the student section, to watch the game. Officer, who was one of the guards hired to keep persons from sneaking into the game, asked Lee to leave several times, and Lee refused. Officer finally took Lee by the arm and started to take him out. Witnesses said Lee pulled a large pocketknife and struck at Officer. The knife inflicted a wound about two inches long on Lee's right collar bone.

Harry Peters, Bill Hagler and Hugh Rolfs, Ottawa University students who were also acting as guards, heard the scuffle and rushed to Officer's assistance. They held Lee until the arrival of city police, who took Lee to jail. Officer was taken to the university gymnasium, where his wound was treated by a physician. The cut was superficial, and he was able to resume his work, but the physician who treated him said if the knife blade had struck higher it might have severed the jugular vein. Lee threw the knife away after striking Officer, but police later found it. The knife had a 3-inch blade.

Lee was turned over to the county for prosecution, and this afternoon County Attorney John B. Pierson filed charges of assault. If death had resulted from the wound, the count would have been manslaughter. Lee signed a statement and indicated he would plead guilty. He was to be arraigned this afternoon. The minimum sentence is six months in jail and the maximum five years in the state penitentiary.

This is the third knifing episode that has taken place in Ottawa within the last year. Last February Ray Williamson, cab driver, was slashed on the throat by George Small, colored, who was sent to the state penitentiary. Last April Estanislao Lopez, Mexican, stabbed his 16-year-old wife to death and was sent to the state penitentiary for life.

Lee is reported to have been in several scrapes, but they never reached police courts.

University officials report increasing trouble with an element which tries to sneak into football games, but this is the first time the trouble has been serious.

LONG WORKOUT FOR O. U. SQUAD

BRAVES WORK ON AERIAL GAME FOR FRIDAY.

Also Drill on Defense Against William Jewell Trick Plays—
Jewell Band Will Be Here.

Coach Dick Godlove sent his Ottawa University Braves through a long scrimmage workout yesterday afternoon in preparing the team for the invasion of William Jewell College Cardinals who will descend upon Ottawa Friday evening accompanied by their band and a large number of students. The game will start at 8 o'clock.

Part of the practice session was spent in pass play drill and aerial defense. As yet the Ottawa forward passing attack has not clicked the passer either throwing a bad flip or the receiver failing to catch the ball. One of these days, and maybe in a game, the boys might get together and connect up to give the fans a thrill and the yardage stripes a pounding.

A good part of the afternoon was spent by Godlove in drilling against the Jewell hidden ball attack. He told his linemen exactly what to do and why. The loss of Kenneth Hough veteran guard who is out with an injury, will handicap the Ottawa plan of defense, but Godlove hopes to work Lester Taylor in at the guard spot

Tricky Plays—Many Seats

Working out until dark last night, the Ottawa University Braves poured on the practice in an effort to get the team in shape for the William Jewell powerhouse which will come to Ottawa Friday night for a game starting at 8 o'clock on Cook field.

Coach Dick Godlove was attempting in the practice session last night to find replacements for the many injured members of the regular lineup. Gayl DeVore showed up yesterday with a badly sprained elbow sustained in scrimmage Tuesday; so more than likely he will not be able to play Friday night, occupying the bench along with Don Meek, Kenneth Hough, Roy Fitzpatrick, Omer Brenton, Norman Gerhold and Gentry Fitzhugh.

Godlove is still pondering over his starting lineup wishing that Unreserved seat tickets should be purchased there or at the North American coffee shop before going to the game. Such procedure will save considerable time. in an effort to obtain needed strength there. Incidentally, Taylor got into the McPherson game for several minutes and made a creditable showing.

Versatile Walter Reames, tackle, can be moved over to guard, if necessary. Last week Godlove sent Lester Adams in as offensive tackle and defensive guard, Walt taking what was left and there was plenty left as McPherson pounded away all evening at the tackle positions.

The game Friday night will be the seventh of the present Ottawa-Jewell series, Ottawa having won four, tied one, and lost one. The lone defeat came in 1935 on a 6 to 7 count. A strange trio of scores in the series came when in 1933 Ottawa won 7 to 6, tied 6 to 6 in 1934, and lost 6 to 7 in 1935. All

Sometimes the opposing team loses complete trace of it, until it gets over the goal line. As a matter of fact, one report tells of a game played last year in which Jewell so effectively hid the ball that the officials had to call time out while everyone joined in the search for the pigskin. It was found in the opposing coach's pocket.

Coach Godlove said this morn-erful the Missouri school has ever sent to Ottawa. Playing behind a big and fast charging line, a quartet of veteran backs simply mix up a potion of black magic on every play. Passing the ball here and there, spinning, half-spinning, faking and in general mystifying the opposition, the Liberty team is one to catch and hold the fancy of the crowd.

Against this capable team, Coach Dick Godlove will send a team woefully handicapped by the worst series of injuries in a season or so. With such backs as Roy Fitzpatrick and Don Meek out of the running, the burden of coping with the Jewell crew may be too difficult for the Braves. Then injuries to Kenny Hough and Gayl DeVore, guards and line backers, will further handicap the Ottawans.

Godlove will probably start Eugene Harding and George Von Arb at ends; at tackles Godlove

Meek On Crutches, Coach Godlove Decides Against Entry

Ottawa University will not enter the national collegiate basketball tournament in Kansas City next week according to an announcement by Coach Dick Godlove this morning.

"We have withdrawn our entry from the tournament in Kansas City because we feel that under the circumstances we cannot represent either Ottawa University or the Kansas conference in satisfactory fashion," said Godlove. "Don Meek received a ligament injury in his left knee in practice Monday night which will keep him on crutches for five or six days and which definitely eliminates him from further basketball competition this year. In addition three or four squad members have light cases of 'flu' and are not in good condition."

Concerts were given in Hutchinson, Lorraine, Lyons, Great Bend, Pratt, Kingman, Wellington, Arkansas City, Winfield and Wichita. The group also sang at high schools along the route, giving 10 of these brief concerts.

P. K. D. DEBATES OPEN

Speakers From 13 Kansas Colleges
Compete at O. U.

Pi Kappa Delta debaters from 13 Kansas colleges swarmed into Ottawa to participate in the annual forensic tourney which opened this afternoon at Ottawa University.

Debate, oratory and extempore tourneys will be in full swing all day tomorrow, finishing Saturday morning. The 125 student entries will have little time for anything but talking while here. The general debate subject is that of government pump-priming, and while it may not be settled during the discussions, it is almost certain that every dark corner of the problem will be spotlighted to be fought over as the spirited debaters, the best Kansas colleges have to offer, argue over the merit or lack of merit of all angles.

DRUG STOPS PNEUMONIA

The first use in Ottawa of the new drug, sulfapyridine, in the treatment of pneumonia has met with apparent success. Thursday and Friday it was administered to a victim of the disease, Richard Martin, 6-year-old son of Dr. and Mrs. Andrew B. Martin, and today the boy's temperature was back to normal. He had regained his appetite and was getting back his strength. Influenza, which he had had for about a week, developed into bronchial pneumonia late Wednesday and became worse Thursday. Dr. Martin went to Kansas City and obtained some of the new compound which was given in tablet form to Richard under the direction of a physician.
