Primary Dept.

As explained in the communication of your barn. this department has been under the charge of Miss Belle Allison. It is but simple justice that I should say here that with untiring devotion and with marked enterprise she has wrought, but for her work has received a very paltry recompense. She has demonstrated the possibility of making a primary dept. successful and substantially self sustaining if such a thing should be deemed desirable.
The question of its continuance is one for your decision.

Library & Library Room

In many departments, but more especially in our endeavors to investigate the origin and growth of our English tongue and the basis of our own institutions, we find progress every where hindered and often practically prevented by the deficiency of library facilities. In fact the University had absolutely nothing in that line. By solicited contributions some valuable and many less valuable books have come to our shelves and from proceeds of a lecture given in this City by Rev C. C. Folsie of Topeka a number of volumes of Standard works have been added. At present this beginning of a library has
