

Robert N. Bundy '27 on November 6. He was business manager at Ottawa University from 1936 until his retirement in 1972. Beside his wife Anne, he leaves a family of five, all of whom are Ottawa alumni: Patricia Bundy Barnes '59 of Lawrence, Kansas; Robert V. Bundy '60, Topeka, Kansas; Bruce L. Bundy '66, Lake Quivera, Kansas; Barbara Bundy Bueller '74, Bronx, New York; Beverly Bundy Fulton '77, Manhattan, Kansas. His sister, Ruth Bundy Armsby '26, died in 1966. She had been registrar for the University from 1926 until 1937.

Bob was a churchman and a community-minded citizen. A member of the First Baptist Church of Ottawa he had served as a trustee, deacon, teacher, as well as on numerous committees. He was past-president of the Kiwanis Club of Ottawa and held the high regard of the entire business community.

It is impossible to count the number of lives that Bob touched and helped during his thirty-six years as business manager. But this host of alumni will agree, quoting in part a tribute by his family, that "Bob Bundy will be remembered by his family and friends as a very gentle man who always put other's needs and wants first — a man who always upheld the highest standards. He was dedicated to God, his family, and Ottawa University."

Rev. James McCrossen '53, conducting the memorial service, emphasized that any student who went to Bob Bundy with a problem came away with a solution.

Memorials are designated to the Robert N. and Anne Bundy Scholarship Fund, an endowment established by their family at the time of Bob's retirement. Gifts for the scholarship should be sent to Ottawa University, Box 16.
