

Report Of The 1951 National Questions Committee

GLENN R. CAPP, Baylor University

The results of the vote on the National Discussion and Debate Topics for 1951-52 are listed below. The basis for the vote was four points for each first place, three for second, two for third, and one for fourth; thus the first listed topics in each list were chosen for the official questions.

DEBATE

Rank		Vote
1st	Resolved, That the Federal Government should adopt a permanent program of wage and price control.	841
2nd	Resolved, That the United Nations should administer all programs of international economic aid.	638
3rd	Resolved, That the United States should adopt the British concept of social security.	634
4th	Resolved, That Communist China should be admitted to the United Nations.	520

DISCUSSION

1st	How can we as a nation improve our ethical and moral conduct?	762
2nd	How can we most effectively combat inflation?	674
3rd	How can a free society best use its human resources?	592
4th	What should be our policy toward the expansion of Communism?	558

The following rules and procedures govern the work of the national questions committee:

(1) The committee is composed of one member from each of the four cooperating forensic societies—Tau Kappa Alpha, Delta Sigma Rho, Phi Rho Pi, and Pi Kappa Delta—and one member appointed by the president of the Speech Association of America. The chairmanship of the committee rotates among the five organizations listed.

(2) All suggestions for topics must be submitted to committee members prior to May first. Each committee member is responsible for polling the chapters of the organization which he represents. The representative of the Speech Association of America must poll a representative number of nonaffiliated colleges and universities.

(3) The committee members must meet during the months of May or June to decide on topics and phrase the questions for discussion and propositions for debate.

(4) The debate propositions and discussion questions are submitted for preferential vote not later than August first to all chapters of the four forensic organizations and to a representative number of the nonaffiliated schools. The vote is upon fully stated propositions for debate and questions for discussion rather than upon broad topics.

(5) If circumstances require a change during the season, the committee may, by a three-fifths vote, alter the wording or move to a second choice proposition or question. Individual chapters or schools are encouraged to write their reactions to the propositions or questions to members of the committee as the forensic year progresses.

(6) The topics must be announced by September 10th. This year they were announced the latter part of August.

Working under these regulations, the following committee members met in St. Louis, Missouri, on June 15 and 16, 1951, and phrased the topics listed above: T. Earle Johnson, University of Alabama, Tau Kappa Alpha; William Howell, University of Minnesota, Delta Sigma Rho; Glenn L. Jones, Pueblo Junior College, Phi Rho Pi; Glenn R. Capp, Baylor University, Pi Kappa Delta; and Glen Mills, Chairman, Northwestern University, representing Speech Association of America.

The regulations under which the committee operates prevent issuing any official interpretation by the committee, nor is any organization or individual so authorized. Those who debate the question have the right of interpretation, but of course should be able to justify their interpretation and analysis. The committee attempted to phrase propositions broad in scope. It was felt that such propositions encourage thorough analysis and investigation and give the advantage to those students doing the more extensive and intelligent work. The committee members hope that the topics chosen will be both stimulating and interesting.

Ridin' The Provinces

It's been a long time since I rode anything more vigorous than the "air foam" cushion of my old Hudson. It's remarkable, however, what modern transportation and communication can accomplish, for, although I've hardly been out of the Deep-South, news has trickled in regarding PKD alumni.

By the "ole mail pouch", I read that some of our good alumni have strayed from the folds of PKD and have become entangled in the webs of our sister speech societies. But, maybe, that's not too bad because they seem to have a way of ropin' results (debate decisions) even when they are bossin' a bunch of TKA's. Take ANNABEL DUNHAM HAYGOOD (Southwest Louisiana Institute, '44) who is directing debate at the University of Alabama. Annabel's debaters won the West Point tournament in 1949 and tend to trod the range of the Midsouth in a true PKD fashion. Then, there is ROBERT S. CATHECART (Redlands, '44) whose women debaters at Purdue University placed second in the Western Conference Debate Tournament during each of the two years, 1948-49, he was there. I understand, Bob is again on duty with Uncle Sam's navy. E. E. BRADLEY (Oklahoma Central, '30) who directed debate and forensics in Oklahoma high schools and at Oklahoma Panhandle A&M, is now director of forensics at Denver University.

Many of you will remember LAMAR "PETE" CAUDLE (Wake Forest, '50). Pete, last year as a freshman law student, Yale University Law School, won the Harlan Fiske Stone award for oral argument before the Yale Moot Court of Appeals held on the Yale Campus. He competed against 178 other students in the competition which was open to first, second, and third-year Yale law students. Associate Supreme Court Justice Hugo L. Black was the presiding judge over the competition. Caudle took the petitioner's side in the argument of an actual case recently tried in the Federal courts, that of a motion picture company seeking to prevent enforcement of an injunction against showing the controversial picture, "Lost Boundaries", in Atlanta.

I HEAR FROM—

Sterling College (Kansas Lambda): SAM ANDERSON, '51 and GENE SPEAR, '51 are enrolled in a theological seminary this fall.

Illinois College (Illinois Phi): MARGARET FOREMAN, '51, is continuing her study of Biology on a teaching fellowship, University of Washington; DONALD POLZIN, '51 participated in the pageant play presented at New Salem State Park during the past summer and is entering the graduate school at the University of Illinois this fall; RICHARD H. MILLS, '51, spent the summer as camp director at Philmont Scout Ranch, Cimarron, New Mexico, and will attend the College of Law, University of Illinois, this fall.

Mississippi State College for Women (Mississippi Gamma): MARTHA KEE HEWES '50, is teaching at Woodville; JOYCE JONES, '50, is teaching at McComb; SARA BARRY, '51, is attending the Presbyterian Assembly Training School, Richmond, Virginia; CAROLYN REED, '50, is teaching in the Mississippi School for the Deaf; ALICE HAMER, '44, is alumnae secretary, M. S. C. W.; DOROTHY HAMMIT, '51, is teaching speech at All Saints Junior College, Vicksburg; KENT FLOWERS, '51, is teaching at Leland; and BENNIE HARTZOG, '51, is teaching at Clarksdale.

Bethel College (Kansas Xi): MARY MOYER, '51, is teaching grade school, Hutchinson; GLADYS PEARL SCHMIDT, '51 and CLARENCE NILES, '51, were married during the summer and will teach at Moscow; ELMER NEUFELD, '51, is serving on the Mennonite Central Committee, Washington, D. C.; Pete EDIGER, '51, is attending the Mennonite Seminary in Chicago.

St. Olaf College (Minnesota Beta): HOWARD COLE, '51, WALDO JOHNSON, '51, and ARTHUR OLSON, '51, are attending Luther Theological Seminary at St. Paul; MORRIS ORMSETH, '51, is entering the Law School at Leland-Stanford; AUDRE RASMUSSEN, '51, is teaching in North Dakota.

Illinois Wesleyan (Illinois Alpha): JOAN ERICZON, '51, is employed as personnel worker, Stephen's Hotel, Chicago.

William Jewell College (Missouri Delta): DR. JAMES JENKINS, a Superior in discussion and debate at the Bowling Green National, is now a faculty member of the Psychology Department, University of Minnesota; JOE AMERY, former debate coach at William Jewell is now with the Du Pont Company, Liberty, Missouri.

McPherson College (Kansas Omicron): The Reverend A. BLAIR HELMAN, '46, was the commencement speaker at the sixty-third commencement, McPherson College, last May. He is a member of the faculty at Ottawa University. President D. W. BITTINGER served as moderator of the National Conference of the Church of the Brethren held at San Jose, California, last June.

ELVA BROMHALL, former debate coach, Simpson College (Iowa Epsilon), has accepted a position as speech correctionist at Sonomish, Washington.

Well, the "ole mail pouch" is dry and I'm longing for my "air foam" cushions so I'll quit Ridin' the Provinces for now and head for home.

If you meet or know PKD alumni, send in their names, school attended, year they graduated, present employment and address and we'll all know about them.

Sincerely,
Your Editor

The Province Of Missouri

These are but a few of the schools and their leaders in the province. Crossing the lower half of Iowa, we find William Penn (Iowa Nu) at Oskaloosa; Simpson (Iowa Epsilon) at Indianola; Drake University (Iowa Mu) at Des Moines, host to the province in 1933; and Coe College (Iowa Theta), host in 1948.

In Missouri, Central at Fayette (Missouri Gamma) has offered keenest PKD competition for well over a quarter century. Coach E. E. Leftwich and Culver-Stockton at Canton (Missouri Zeta) are almost synonymous. In the middle of the state, at Warrensburg, is Missouri Eta, where Central Missouri State College has acquired a reputation as host to the annual Missouri Forensic. Missouri Valley (Missouri Lambda) at Marshall has not let its famous football team entirely overshadow its debate activities. And ranging from the northern end of the state to the extreme south are Tarkio College at Tarkio (Missouri Mu) and Drury College at Springfield (Missouri Nu). Baby chapters of the province are Xi and Omicron, Rockhurst College in Kansas City and St. Louis University, respectively.

Anybody want to debate us in the Missouri Province? Come on over, up, or down, for Missouri Province likes competition and company.

CHAPTER NOTES

PACIFIC LUTHERAN RATES HIGH

Pacific Lutheran College started with a competitive forensic squad of approximately 40 students in the fall of 1950. Only three people in the senior division were available, the balance being freshmen and sophomores of junior division standing. The total results for the squad were 31 first places, including 7 sweepstakes awards. The most notable sweepstakes awards were at the College of Puget Sound's tyro tournament for junior division in debate and individual events, at the intercollegiate invitational tournament at Linfield College, and all three sweepstakes awards at the third annual St. Martin's tournament at St. Martin's College, Lacey, Washington.

Mary Larson, graduating senior from Mennow, South Dakota, won two firsts, a second, and a third in the senior women's division at the Western Speech Association Tournament at Pepperdine College, November; Jon Ericson, a junior from Richland, Washington, won four firsts, including one-man debate championship in senior division; and Bill Rieke, a sophomore from Cashmere, Washington, won six first places in junior division, including first place in two-team debate at the Western Speech Association Tournament at Pepperdine College.

Added to the staff during the past year was Mr. Vernon Utzinger, formerly speech departmental chairman at Carroll College, Waukesha, Wisconsin and more recently at Occidental College, Los Angeles, California.

Ericson and Rieke represented Pacific Lutheran College at the National Pi Kappa Delta Tournament at the Oklahoma A & M College, winning six and losing two for an excellent rating. This same team also formed the competition for the Cambridge University Debate Team visiting the Pacific Northwest and defeated the team according to the Englishmen's own interpretation of the debate. Both men will return for competition next year.

Work is now being completed on the new $625,000 chapel-speech-music building which will house all the equipment for the speech department including classrooms, speech correction laboratory, stage for dramatic productions (72 ft. by 72 ft. high by 36 ft. deep), and a radio studio, seating 125 people, wired for television and radio broadcasting.

WAKE FOREST HAS BUSY SEASON

The year 1950-51 was an active one for the North Carolina Beta Chapter of Pi Kappa Delta at Wake Forest College. Having conducted a summer workshop for high school debaters, the group returned in the fall and began the year's activities by attending the tournament at Columbia, S. C., where Clara Ellen Francis was rated the best woman debater in the tournament. The debaters then moved to Charlotte, N. C., where the women's team composed of Elva Lawrence and Cecyle Arnold placed first in the women's division. At the Hickory, N. C. tournament Wiley Mitchell won first place awards in radio and oratory. The Cherry Blossom Tournament in Washington, D. C. next claimed the attention of the debaters. Here the men's team composed of Moorefield, Mitchell, Charles Barham, and L. W. Pullen, president of Pi Kappa Delta for '50-51, tied with Kansas State for second place. Among the teams they defeated were—Army, Notre Dame, Vermont, and Kansas State. Ten days later, a team composed of Lawrence, Arnold, Pullen, Mitchell, Moorefield, accompanied by Professor Franklin R. Shireley, PKD Governor of the Province of the Southeast, embarked on a 4,000 mile tour. After warming up at the Savage Tournament in Durant, Oklahoma, they participated in the PKD National where they achieved an over-all school rating of excellent and Moorefield received superior in extemporaneous speaking. At the final tournament of the trip in Gainesville, Florida, the team climaxed the '50-51 season with Pullen, Mitchell, and Moorefield ranking superior in men's debate. Mitchell, Moorefield, and Miss Lawrence received individual awards of superior in debate. Moorefield also placed first in after-dinner and was rated a "superior legislator" in the Congress, while Pullen and Mitchell attained distinction by winning "superior legislator" and superior in extemporaneous speaking, respectively. Twenty students participated in 149 debates, winning 67% of their decision debates.

Texas A & I Debaters.

TEXAS A & I

Texas A & I (Texas Nu) has sixteen active members with which to start its forensic program for 1951-52. Four members attended the PKD National at Stillwater last spring. Lloyd Riddle received a superior rating in men's extemporaneous speaking and teamed with J. Edd Walton to win five of eight debates for a rating of Good.

MSCW PLANS 1951-52 SEASON

The PKD girls at Mississippi State College for Women (Mississippi

Gamma) are planning an active year in forensics and debate. Plans include participating in the University of Alabama Discussion Tournament, the Mississippi Youth Congress, the Memphis State College Tournament, the Deep-South Debate Tournament, the PKD Provincial, and the Southern Speech Association Tournament and Congress. Next spring, on February 29 and March 1, they will hold the Sixth Annual Magnolia Speech Tournament for college and university Women. They invite you to come, see the South, and participate with them. Write Mary Alice Goings, corresponding secretary, Box 1003, M.S.C.W., Columbus, for tournament data. Active members are Valerie Threlkeld, Dorothea Drane, Jean Wilson, Judy Garretson, Dorothea Osterloh, Mary Alice Goings, Peggy Ross Russell, Lenore Loving, Josie Shannon.
