Dear Ellen Ann,

Thank you so much for your willingness to act as one of the Dining Room Hostesses during ABW Conference when we meet at Ottawa University. I feel certain that the women will be so pleased to have the first lady greet them. You are always so sweet and charming. With your warm smile, you'll "charm the socks off 'em!"

Thanks!!

Love,

Eoy

DINING ROOM HOSTESS

Duties and Responsibilities of the dining room hostess.

1. The hostess in the dining room is one of the focal points of the Conference and often sets the attitude for the persons who are attending. The dining room hostess should be courteous, hospitable, efficient and have a smile when being in the dining room.
2. Check with the food service people for game plan.
Suggested questions: tickets? lines? seated ahead of time? number of lines? procedure through the lines?
3. Take tickets if the food service doesn't and tickets need to be taken--maybe only a count will be required.
4. Direct seating.
5. Help direct traffic and be responsible for table rotation.
6. Report at least 15 minutes before each meal.

Dear Evy -
Then what a beautiful sight ^{saw} ~~to see~~ when we walked into the dining room. Your selection of colors and table decorations was outstanding, warm and pleasing to the eyes. I'm so sorry the food preparation was not what you had ^{hoped it would be,} ~~hoped it would be.~~ Sometimes an institution prepared food ~~in large quantities~~ loses some of the texture and flavor of good old home cooking. Anyway, your menu was well planned. Many commented to us that they liked the chowder. Willie, Wilbur's Sec. has already used your chowder recipe while Peter & Carol Sandstrom plan to make chowder this coming week-end.
It is a great thing to give thanks.

Dec. 16 - 17 - Open House - 18 - also Bill Howe's Open House at Meldonsburg

Nov. brings to us the festival time of harvest, autumn & Thanksgiving. The harvested fields speak to us of God and his goodness. It seems that men have always felt the urge to offer God something such as the fruit of their field, of their flocks and herds.
An earthly ruler, however large his kingdom & however many his subjects, is poor unless he wins the gratitude of those he rules. If he is their sovereign in name only, he is poverty-stricken. So, too, God is poor, although he rules over everything, if the whole wealth of his being, which he put into his creation, does not return to him in the shape of human gratitude. God needs our thanks.
Like the parable, the seeds that fell by the wayside

Like the parable, the seeds that fell by the wayside among stones and among thorns bore no fruit. The small amount of seed falling on good ground multiplied 30, 60 & a hundred fold - compensating for all that was lost. So it is when we give thanks to God. The goodness he has poured forth upon mankind is lost on many, but ~~for~~ those who bring forth fruit are precious to him. The act of giving thanks is an experience. He who thanks God with his whole heart experiences something. He is himself enriched. ~~When~~ Our lives seem empty and unsatisfied when we do not give thanks to God. So when we feel weak, lost, and sad, start giving thanks. Things will go better. If your heart objects, make it search for something to be grateful for. Once you find something other things will follow.

Thank you -
