Soccer Coach
George Jaworski

HEAD SOCCER COACH

George Jaworski began his second year as head soccer coach of the Braves. The 34-year-old is an OU alumnus, having received degrees in art and theatrical design in 1975.

Jaworski is no stranger to the OU system as he once dominated the field he now coaches on. He played center-back for four years as a Brave and was team captain his sophomore, junior, and senior years. One of his great accomplishments was being a member of the 1971 team which placed third nationally in the NAIA.

In the years since Jaworski left OU, he has been an avid supporter of the University soccer program. He has volunteered many hours to helping the coaches and students in any way possible, from teaching basic skills to scrimmaging with the team.

Last year, his first year coaching at OU, he was hired late in the recruiting season and was forced to work with a smaller number of players. Enthused by his increased roster size this year, Jaworski is looking forward to a promising season.
