

shall then file the papers with the Historian. He shall also send a record of the standing of the members to the National President for filing in the Grand Catalog. The General Secretary shall receive and exchange the keys of the members of the new State chapter for keys proper to their standing. He shall furnish all blanks necessary to application for a State chapter to any member of the society free of charge.

3. Individual Membership Petitions. Petitions for individual membership (except charter membership) in Local chapters shall be made as provided in Article V, Section 4. Petitions for membership in State chapters shall be made as provided in Article VI, Section 3. Petitions for membership in the General chapter of the State organization shall be made on the official blank which may be obtained by application to the State President. When filled out such applications should be returned to the State President. It shall be his duty to place such applications before the State Council and upon their recommendation the applications shall be presented to the State Convention for final action, or if the Convention is not to meet within one month, the State Council may present the names before the members of the State chapter for election by referendum. Petitions for National membership shall be made as provided in Article VII, Section 3. All membership petitions when accepted shall be sent to the General Secretary who shall keep a record of the members on his books, and shall make a report of them to the National President for filing in the Grand Catalog. Local presidents and State presidents shall also make a report of the standing of all members to the National President annually as provided in Article IV.

ARTICLE XVI. RULES OF ORDER.

1. Robert's Rules of Order shall be the authority of this society in Parliamentary procedure.

ARTICLE XVII. AMENDMENTS.

1. This Constitution may be amended at a regular National Convention by a two-thirds vote of the delegates and members of the National chapter present, or by a three-fourths vote in a referendum initiated by the National Council and taken as provided for in Article IX of this Constitution.

ARTICLE XVIII. CHARTER MEMBERSHIP.

1. The following original signers of this Constitution, when they shall have signed the official copy and deposited with the General Secretary a complete statement of their respective attainments in Intercollegiate Oratory and Debate, and in Instruction shall become and constitute the Charter membership of Pi Kappa Delta. Each Charter member shall be entitled to become a member of the Local and State chapters of his choice, and shall connect himself with a Local and State chapter as soon as possible after the signing of this constitution. This article shall be binding regardless of, and in exception to, any contrary provisions as to membership that may be defined by this Constitution. The following persons shall be the officers of the National Chapter of this society from the time of the signing of this Constitution until their successors are elected and qualified: President, Egbert Ray Nichols, University of Redlands; Vice President, E. A. Vaughn, Kansas State Agricultural College; General Secretary, John A. Shields, Ottawa University; Historian, J. H. Krenmyre, Iowa Wesleyan. The signers above referred to shall be the officers just mentioned, and C. J. Boddy, Kansas Wesleyan University; Frank P. Johnson, Morningside College; A. L. Crookham, Southwestern College; P. C. Somerville, Illinois Wesleyan; H. O. Pritchard, Eureka College; Dan. C. Lockwood, College of Emporia.

We, signers of the Original Constitution, and Charter members of Pi Kappa Delta, do hereby recognize the foregoing constitution as the Revised Constitution of Pi Kappa Delta and hereby authorize its publication as such by the Editor of the Forensic of Pi Kappa Delta.

CARL OSTRUM.

Carl Ostrum, assistant professor of the English language and debate coach at Kansas Agricultural College, died at his home at Bunker Hill, Kansas, Dec. 14, 1914.

Mr. Ostrum is the first member of Pi Kappa Delta since its organization in 1913 to fall before the grim reaper. His loss will be greatly felt as he was rapidly gaining a wide influence in forensic affairs. The K. S. A. C. men write that they have lost their best friend in the faculty, the man who made Pi Kappa Delta possible at Manhattan.

Mr. Ostrum was a graduate of Bethany College, Kansas, held the A. B. and A. M. degrees from Yale, and had taught in Gustavus Adolphus College, Minn., Tabor College, Iowa, Oklahoma Agricultural and Mechanical College, and in the Kansas Agricultural College since 1912. He was a man of literary ability, forensic achievement, and of sterling character. He taught a Sunday School class at the Methodist Church in Manhattan and was one of the most influential instructors on the campus at K. S. A. C.
