

PHILLIPS UNIVERSITY

Reporter: Jennifer Rowland

The 1975 school year has started at Phillips University with many new students, tournaments, and activities for the Kappa chapter. Much of the fine new talent in our organization must be attributed to the continual recruitment efforts of our choral speaking group who entertain at many church and civic activities throughout the Midwest under the direction of chapter sponsor Dr. Douglas Faulkner.

On September 9, members elected Jennifer Rowland as president and Tim Fields as secretary-treasurer. With these offices come some of the responsibilities of organizing activities; however, every member is given responsibilities to keep the organization running smoothly. The chapter is planning the First Annual Phillips University National Speech Festival on Saturday, April 10, 1976, on the campus in Enid.

The festival will offer events in oratory (persuasive), humorous interpretation, dramatic interpretation, prose and/or poetry, rhetorical analysis, and American storytelling. Entries should be sent to Douglas Faulkner, Communications Department.

The chapter members participated in two tournaments, the latest held on October 24-25 at Kansas State University, Manhattan, Kansas. Those participating were Tim Fields, Angela Huff, Linn Jordan, and Floyd Nash. Two of the four students who won awards were Tim Fields winning second place with his interpretation of Man of La Mancha and Floyd Nash placing third for Chicken Every Sunday.

The rest of the season will be scheduled in midwest and western competition, where members hope to meet old friends and make new ones.

HARDIN-SIMMONS UNIVERSITY

Reporter: Emogene Emery

Pi Kappa Delta has been reactivated at Hardin-Simmons University. Officers are Wayne Shuffield, president; John Hurt, vice-president; and Mike Parker, secretary-treasurer.

Hardin-Simmons has participated in two tournaments this year. In the North Texas State tournament, one team won three of four debates, and one of the members of the team, Paul King, won the outstanding speaker award. At the Texas Tech tournament one of the teams won five of its eight debates. An initiation for eligible members is being planned in the near future.

MOUNT UNION COLLEGE

Reporter: Karen Ann Reed

Mount Union College revitalized its chapter of Pi Kappa

Delta under the direction of Dr. Sam C. Geonetta, new director of forensics and chapter sponsor.

The Ohio Mu chapter inducted six members in the degree of fraternity, three members in the degree of honor, and one honorary member at its final meeting in the spring of 1975. Ralph Jentes, Ed Barr, Robert DeBula, Ardie Kendig, Karen Reed, and Robert Melnick were inducted in the degree of fraternity. Jeff Rafn, Russ Mayer, and Dick Ingles were inducted in the degree of honor, while Thomas Calhoun, instructor in sociology, was inducted as an honorary member.

The chapter also elected officers: Ed Barr, president; Karen Reed, vice-president; and Dick Ingles, secretary-treasurer.

ROCKY MOUNTAIN COLLEGE

Reporter: Robert H. Lyon

Montana's new constitution adopted in 1972 provides that the voters in every city and county must be provided with a suggested alternative form of local government to be ratified or rejected late in 1976. Montana Alpha chapter is now planning a debate project involving college students and faculty members who will present a series of public debates for community citizens. The aim will be to provide them equal arguments for the new form of government and for the present form. Title I funding will be sought to help purchase materials, pay transportation costs in the city and country, and provide small stipends to participants.

Francis Orok, a freshman from Abak, Nigeria, has just become the newest member of our chapter. He participated in a model United Nations assembly and in two speech tournaments and presented speeches in the Billings area on aspects of his native country.

CALIFORNIA STATE COLLEGE (PA)

Reporter: Mona Harper

Penn Zeta chapter held its annual spring banquet on May 8, at which time thirteen new members were initiated. Highlighting the evening was the initiation of California State President George H. Roadman as an honorary member. Dr. Roadman, a former debater and debate coach at CSC, continues to support the general goals of forensics and serves as an inspiration to Pi Kappa Delta members. Those receiving the degree of fraternity were: William M. Andrew, Rosemary Bertini, Bonnie Dicks, Erik Grube, Martin Haberl, David Nixon, Joseph Onorato, Anthony Pietrcollo, Jim Shellenberger, Marybeth Trapani, Alison Wisnosky, and David Zema.

Kay Johnston and Debbie Bens were awarded the degree of highest distinction. The chapter is indeed proud of their accomplishments and will miss them when they graduate.

The 1974-75 year was a memorable one for Penn Zeta. Members held responsible offices at national and provincial levels, won numerous awards, and contributed significantly to the successful running of the Rare Bird Individual Events Tournament on campus.

A Word From The Editor...

We humans are curious creatures who love celebrating. Long before January, 1976 appeared on our calendars, the pre-party-party began. We bought commemorative medals, drum and bugle design ties, and cereals with flag transfers buried among the flakes. We geared up for Bicentennial Youth Debates and planned vacations to Boston, Philadelphia, and Williamsburg. We attended block parties and concerts and fairs, Colonial style shows, Colonial open houses, Colonial town meetings.

Now that we've officially fire-crackered our way into 1976, our celebrating is for real; this is it! Like octogenarians, we want everyone to take notice of our birthday and pass the compliments, deserved or otherwise.

When several weeks ago someone asked me what I thought of all the festivities, I quickly responded: "Oh, they're fun!" I surprised myself by that answer. I hadn't mentioned rites, symbols, or underlying meaning, nor had I made any attempt at a style worthy of the occasion and a professional communicator.

Since the time that question was posed, I've been thinking about the place of fun in any group's celebrations, whether the group be political, religious, or fraternal. Pi Kappa Delta, of course, has concerned me most. Do we, I wonder, take our fraternity so solemnly (or so lightly) that genuine, spontaneous mirth is impossible? Are we so intent on competition that we fail to develop bonds of friendship? Do we bulk-pack our provincials and leave no time for conversing around the dinner table, taking mountain walks, or lingering before the hearth? And what about our installations? Are they mechanical observances devoid of cohesive tradition and sentiment? In short, do we enjoy our fraternity?

The enjoyment I see as most satisfying in Pi Kappa Delta is not the temporary excitement of "having a good time," the sort which feels fine until it passes. Then there's nothing left—no growth, no enlarged vision, no deeper appreciation for life—just a roller coaster memory. The other kind of fun comes from rites, activities, and relationships which enact and further our goals. It is built upon an informed perspective of what we've been, what we are, and what we want to become. It is productive in that we use our problem-solving abilities, stimulate our creativity, get in touch with ourselves and our "brothers," appreciate more fully what is beautiful and just, and at the same time enjoy what we're doing.

If this is also what I meant by Bicentennial fun, I guess my response wasn't flip-pant, after all.

this price list, please write us for prices, and this will eliminate much of the extra correspondence and billing. We cannot order keys until they have been paid for, and a confused order only adds to the eight to ten weeks required now for key delivery.

This is about the last time we will have the opportunity to encourage you to participate in the Bicentennial Youth Debates. Those of you who are fortunate to be sectional participants, and then regional and national, should be proud indeed. For you who did not make the finals in any of the higher brackets, it is suggested that, rather than consider the preparation a waste of time, you might find opportunities for presenting an abbreviated debate or an extemp or persuasive speech to the community. Service clubs as well as many other organizations—even the PTA—are always looking for good programs, and the various topics of the BYD programs have great potential for such programs. You might have exciting results.

Again I see a patch of blue sky increasing in size, and my thoughts turn again to the province conventions. I want to extend encouragement to all chapters to bend every effort to attend and participate in all the activities that will be provided for your enlightenment and enjoyment. It is here that the real meaning of Pi Kappa Delta comes to the fore.

THE FORENSIC Announces . . .

THE BICENTENNIAL STUDENT COVER CONTEST

Have you ever looked at a clever magazine cover and thought: "Oh, I could design that—if only someone would ask"?

Now someone is asking you.

In recognition of our Nation's Bicentennial, The Forensic is sponsoring a cover contest and is giving you the chance to submit your original design. Read the following rules, and then let us see the product of your creative genius.

CONTEST RULES

1. The contest is open to undergraduate PKD members who are full-time students during the 1976 spring semester or term. Members of the editors' chapters are not eligible.
2. The design must relate to some aspect of the Bicentennial and Pi Kappa Delta. Drawings and/or photographs are acceptable, but they must be done in black and white. The treatment need not be serious.
3. The entire design (drawing, lettering, photograph, etc.) must be the original work of the contestant.
4. The designs will become the property of The Forensic and will not be returned unless adequate postage is included.
5. Judging will be done on the basis of originality, aptness of design, and suitability.
6. The first place design will be run on the cover of the October, 1976 Forensic. The winning designer will be featured in a story and be awarded a certificate. Second and third place winners will be announced in The Forensic and awarded certificates of merit.
7. All contest entries must be postmarked on or before July 10, 1976. Winners will be notified by mail before August 1, 1976.
