

John Stanton and Dennis Bergvall won the only superior award given for extemporaneous debate. Chris Schultheis won a superior rating in extemporaneous speaking and Marjorie Schaer was awarded an excellent in the same event. Catherine Colson and Dennis Bergvall earned excellent ratings in expository speaking. In oratory, Miss Colson won an excellent rating and Miss Schultheis received a good in that event.

Washington Theta Chapter looks forward to continuing their success under the guidance of Coach Remy Wilcox. Officers are: Marjorie Schaer, president; Catherine Colson, vice-president; Larry Stone, secretary.

FROSTBURG STATE COLLEGE MARYLAND

Reporter: Ellen Miller

The Beta Chapter started this semester by electing new officers: Dave Wiley, president; John Rodriguez, vice-president; Ellen Miller, secretary; and Lee Lofthus, treasurer. Miss Ann Williams has returned as the chapter's sponsor after being on sabbatical for a year. Last year Mr. Michael Wallinger served as sponsor.

The chapter was active in both debate and individual events this semester. The debaters include the teams of Lee Lofthus and Dave Wiley and John Rodriguez and Chris Hill. On the weekend of Oct. 18-19, debaters traveled to West Virginia Wesleyan College and returned with a second place trophy as a four-man team. They also traveled to Marshall University on Nov. 1-2 and attended a tournament at Duquesne University the weekend of Nov. 22-23.

As for as individual events, Frostburg participated in the Prince Georges Community College Novice Tournament Oct. 25-26 and the Individual Events Tournament at Parkersburg Community College Nov. 8-10. Those attending P.G. were Paul Lee, Marian McPhillips, Dave Thayer, and Gary Ellis. Miss McPhillips, an English exchange student, received a superior trophy of excellence in oral interper and a trophy of excellence in the category of impromptu interpretation of literature. Paul Lee received a certificate of excellence in informative speaking. Attending the tournament at Parkersburg were Keely West, Chris Hill, Paul Lee, Marian McPhillips, John Rodriguez, Jim Weber, and Ellen Miller. Miss McPhillips won first place in interpretation of poetry. Frostburg attended the I.E. Tournament at Kent State Dec. 6-7.

In March some new members were initiated into our chapter. They were: Dave Wiley, Lee Lofthus, Ellen Miller, John Rodriguez, Chris Hill, Keely West, and Susan Litwiller.

PLATTSBURGH STATE UNIVERSITY NEW YORK

The Plattsburgh Forensic Union captured the National Sweepstakes Championship for schools with enrollments between 2,500 and 8,000. This award took into account the entire 1973-74 season.

The chapter began the 1974-75 season in October with their home tournament. Six novice teams met their first competition and showed themselves to be a good squad with much promise.

From the Southern Connecticut tourney they brought home first affirmative novice speaker — John Jackson; 3rd place poetry — Diane Gangloff; 4th place prose — Kim Hubbard; and 3rd place sweepstakes.

Nov. 3, a group of 12 traveled to Central Michigan U. for Dr. Bert Bowen's oral interpretation festival with an experimental production of "Dr. Umlaut's Earthly Kingdom." The chapter performed a Readers' Theatre production presented the first weeks of the second semester. They also initiated monthly programs of readings to be open to the campus, each adapted and directed by a different student. The first was a program of "Winnie the Pooh," directed by Margo Barrett and presented to several grade school audiences as well as college.

Speakers' Bureau is in operation again with a dozen or so students participating. Programs on a wide variety of topics are made available to any group desiring a speaker.

Next on the agenda is the Legislative Assembly in Albany to which the chapter will send six students.

TRENTON STATE COLLEGE
NEW JERSEY

Reporter: George Boss

Until recently there was a Forensics Club at Trenton State College and then overnight, like a caterpillar changing to a butterfly, it became New Jersey Gamma Chapter of PKD. The new chapter was installed May 17 at the home of the forensics director, Prof. George Boss.

Supervising the proceedings with his usual unction, Prof. Seth Hawkins of Southern Connecticut State College welcomed eight eager candidates into the fraternity. The following received membership with the degree of fraternity: Judi Madigan, Mary Mooney, Melvin Sykes and Sandy Wolinsky. Others entering membership with the degree of Proficiency were George Boss, Jack DiMonte, Harry Isaacs and Marianne Swiecki. Four unable to attend the ceremonies were inducted later: Mike Azzolino, Tom Moffit, Jan Niedermaier and Lorraine Therborn.

Refreshments both liquid and solid were served and every one was congratulated by the installer, who has now fathered his eleventh chapter. Some discussion took place about past accomplishments and near misses. Prizes in IE were won this past year by Jack DiMonte and George Boss and in debate by Marianne Swiecki. In the Plattsburgh IE contests Trenton was not outstanding; however, we finished ahead of 26 other colleges.

One final word is in order about the fledgling chapter and that is to recognize the officers: President is Marianne Swiecki; vice-president, Sandy Wolinsky; treasurer, Jack DiMonte; and secretary, Melvin Sykes.

Without efforts put forth by others in past years as well as the interested efforts of all club members, our arrival into Pi Kappa Delta would have been impossible. Our gratitude is extended to all. In addition we wish to thank the chapters of Northeast who looked upon us with favor and voted us into their distinguished organization. We will do our best to further the goals of development in verbal and intellectual skills and growth of the total self.

The Crystal Ballroom of the Benjamin Franklin Hotel, where general business meetings and the formal banquet of the Convention will be held.
