

MRS. EMMA DENT JONES.

Mrs. Emma Dent Jones was born in Manhattan, Kas., in 1875. At an early age she began the study of music, and was a teacher of Piano Music before she came to Ottawa in 1895.

While in Ottawa she taught the Piano, and continued vocal work under Prof. Cravens. In June 1896 she graduated from this Department, and the same year took the first prize in soprano, at the Hutchinson Jubilee. She has done much work as a soloist, and is at present teaching Vocal Music at Emporia, Kas.
