

B. Smith Haworth

Haworth, Dean of Men

Do you know that Professor B. Smith Haworth is a past director of the First Baptist Church choir? Prof. Haworth says that there are only a few things about his life that the students do not know, and probably that is one of them.

The genial Dean of Men has been professor of History and Political Science as well as dean, for ten years. He has been at Ottawa that long also.

Prof. Haworth says he doesn't have a hobby any more, but he admits smilingly that he tried to raise roses for ten years and he is about to give up trying.

He was born in the Ozarks, and if you ever hear Jack Patty, or anyone else for that matter, shout "H. B." don't worry. The initials stand for Hill Billy, and it is Prof's cherished nickname. After moving from the Ozarks, the Haworth family lived for ten years near Winfield, Kansas. Mr. Haworth graduated from Winfield High School. The family then moved to Ottawa. Prof. Haworth went to Ottawa University for four years and then to the University of Pennsylvania.

Members of the First Baptist Church and the Kiwanis Club are familiar with the genial Haworth face. He is a great addition to both organizations.

Of his charming wife, Prof. says, "She is all that I expected, and I expected plenty."

The Haworths have a daughter who graduated from Ottawa University.

The major interest of the Dean of Men is in the students of O U. That has been proved to everyone of us so many times.

The college interests of his highly versatile gentleman were music and speech. He is No. 91 in Phi Kappa Delta.

He says his most unusual experience was being a crewboy on an old fashioned Chautauqua. A Chautauqua is a sort of assembly for everyone, a combination school and entertainment.

If you ever have any problems, trivial or otherwise, Prof. Haworth is always willing and ready to hear them, and advise accordingly. Don't you imagine that many problems have been solved over a cup of coffee in the campus store, with Prof. B. Smith Haworth lending a willing ear? The Dean of Men has much personality of the most wonderful variety. Learn to know him. You've really missed a treat if you have waited this long.
