
THE GLEE CLUB.

First Appearance of Girls' Organization in Chapel Last Friday.

The Girls' Glee club made its initial appearance in chapel last Friday morning with two pleasing numbers. There are fifteen girls in the organization, each one an artist. A musical treat is promised from time to time. The club is directed by Prof. Bixel. "Mighty Lak, A Rose," by Nevins, and "The Sweetest Flower that Blows," by Hawley were rendered. The singers and their parts are as follows: First soprano, Lorena Cassidy, '10, Gertrude Barnes, '12, Emma Stang, ac. '09, Lena Scheufler '12; second sopranos, Bernice Allen ac. '10, Erma Black, ac. '09, LaRue Black, ac. '10; first altoes, Francis Allen, '12; Mildred Grass, '12, Millie Marvin, '12, Mildred Brown, '12; second altoes, Anna Wallace, '10, Myrtle Sunderlin, '09, Nelle Turner '10, Laura Sudduth '12,

The numbers were enthusiastically received by the student body. Prof. Bixel led the chapel singing and one of the numbers sung was Mendelssohn's hymn, "We Would See Jesus." the words are by Reynolds.