Hi Nori!

15:31:44 From Regina McManigell to Everyone:

Apologies. I do not have an office yet. I am on my phone and there is no way for me to anchor it where my face is in the camera.

15:43:21 From Lauren Frazier to Everyone:

the meaningful, individual attention to students whole self. Academic, spiritual and vocation

15:43:41 From Nori Hale to Everyone:

OU's accessibility to faculty and staff....that doesn't happen at major colleges, even with an appointment. You will see a TA.

15:44:13 From Bill Tsutsui to Everyone:

Keep those comments coming in chat! Thanks, Lauren and Nori!

The SST model for the online campus is unique. Not many schools offer three specific staff members that are assigned to each student and are available to assist them with anything that arises during their time here at OU.

15:44:42 From nancy.wingert to Everyone:

Agree....we know our students!

15:44:45 From Tamira Cross to Everyone:

THAT is a HUGE point that I tell students when talking to them in the first conversation about the Counseling program.

15:44:56 From Kenzie Holden to Everyone:

The presence of the faculty and staff on campus. There's hardly a day where someone from any given office isn't there and ready to help with anything a student or other employee may need!

15:45:05 From Alicia Engel to Everyone:

We address the spiritual dimension, their "why" for what they want.

15:45:06 From Stephen Weiss to Everyone:

Relevancy. We offer relevancy over redundancy.

15:45:39 From Bill Tsutsui to Everyone:

Loving these comments! Proud of OU!

I think our commitment to communicating with families as well sets us apart. We know these families, we know their situations, we help them out. I connect with not only students, but the parents on so many things.

15:45:42 From ou.faculty to Everyone:

I agree with Dr. Thomas, Some students will contact me years after graduation asking for advise or guidance.

PGD is highly unique at the residential campuses. Also, the Flex Term schedule is an important feature for today's busy students.

ONLINE STUDENTS ARE NOT AN ISLAND! Support is offered at both the UG & Grad level academically & beyond.
