

THIS mandala cross--designed by me and executed, as a 1978 New Year's gift, by Ralph Holdeman--combines traditional motifs with diagrammatic visuals I use in teaching and in meditation and prayer. As you use it, now and/or later, thus as mandala, work with several colors, neither excluding words nor limiting yourself to words.

