

As a person with a practical mind I sometimes find it hard to understand abstract ideas. To help me to understand some of these I try to reduce it to something concrete. With the Church's statement of the trinity I have worked up the following. "There is but one living and true God ---- And in unity of this Godhead there are three persons, of one substance ---- the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost."

"of one substance"

"the Father"

"the Father, and the Son"

"the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost"

When these are interwoven they are indivisible and are made known to us by the cross of Jesus Christ our Lord.

This knot is made with one piece of cord just as we believe in One God, One Faith, One Baptism.
