

Elliott #1274

Mission AND "MANIFESTO"

--a 10-session,
20-hour evening course

especially for the laity of Mid-Manhattan and Harlem churches.....

under the direction of

The Eastside Lay Theological Education Consultants

and the sponsorship of, and at,

New York Theological Seminary.....

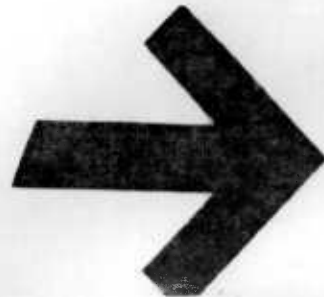

taught by Dr. Willis E. Elliott, a professor and the Lay Theological Education administrator at the Seminary, with numerous national church boards a consultant on the Black Manifesto

TUESDAY EVENINGS

7-9 o'clock

October 7 - December 9

1969

The first of a series of courses designed to enable laity to be effective participants in the integration of faith and life, MISSION AND MANIFESTO will work with this general goal by centering on the question In the Forman Event, what is God asking us American Christians to understand and do? what is "mission" face to face with the realities which James Forman symbolizes?

For further information, phone 355-4434 and ask for Dr. Anne Fried (course coordinator) or Mrs. Alma Karle. [Mrs. Karle can arrange for you also to have supper at the seminary before any or all sessions; please give at least 24 hours notice.]

REGISTRATION

I wish to register for the course MISSION AND MANIFESTO.

NAME:

ADDRESS:

PHONE:

CHURCH:

I am sending my fee ($30 check made out to the Seminary, address below) to Dr. Anne Fried.....

I shall pay at the first session, 7pm October 7.....

Please discuss the fee with my pastor, _____, whose phone is _____.....

OTHER TUESDAY-EVENING EVENTS AT THE SEMINARY:

Beginning September 23:

---"The Ethics of World Events," taught by Dr. Ralph Bultjens of Ceylon, a layman expert in international relations both political and business. A credit course, with the regular fee: $120. 6:40 - 8:20 pm, through December 16.

---Judaism Series, five lecturers 7.30-9pm + five responders + discussion. Sponsored by the American Jewish Committee and NYTS. No fee.

NEW YORK THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY

CONTINUING THE BIBLICAL SEMINARY IN NEW YORK
235 E. 49TH STREET • NEW YORK, NEW YORK 10017

