WORK THAT BRINGS JOY

1. Christ commands you to "Go—and make disciples." Matt. 28: 19-20.
2. There are three reasons why many Christians have never obeyed this command: 1st John 2: 15-17; Matt. 8: 26; Mark 9: 29.
3. Do you love Christ? He said, "If ye love me, ye will keep my commandments." John 14: 15.
4. There is great joy for you in this work. Luke 10: 1, 17.

Suggestions for Those Who Would Be PERSONAL WORKERS

To begin, memorize Jas. 5: 20, and find somewhere an unconverted soul; then

1. Pray earnestly in each case for guidance of the Holy Spirit. Ask other Christians to pray for him.
2. Only one worker for each soul. If you fail, call another. Seek opportunity to talk with him when he is alone.
3. Use tact. Be in earnest. Don't discuss creeds. Don't argue. Be courteous. Let love control your effort. Get him to state his difficulties.
4. Depend on God's Word. Have the lost soul read the passage himself. Usually one text made clear as the word of God to him, is sufficient, if chosen to meet his particular need.
5. Ask him to kneel with you that you may pray for him; and urge him to pray, too, if only the words "Lord help ME."
6. Your great purpose now is to get him to accept Christ as his personal Savior, by a definite decision. After conversion, follow him up, that you may make clear his need of baptism, association with Christian people, constant prayer, constant Bible study and constant effort to win others to Christ.
7. Memorize the selected texts and where located, so you will not have to refer to the list. Always use the same Bible or Testament, that you may quickly find desired text, and have all of these texts underlined. Never fail to carry it with you all the time.
8. Tactfully approach the one sitting next to you at church, or on trains, or on street cars. God will bless your effort. Many souls have been won by correspondence; Lorimer was won by a tract, and he won Russell Conwell. Personal letters are better than tracts.
9. Exercise faith. Remember Christ is actually present with you in this work. Matt. 23: 19-20.
