

WHAT DOES A MINISTER DO ? ? ? ?

If you were entirely an outsider to church life, you would be entirely open to the answer to this question. But since you show an interest in your church, two things follow: [1] you have some idea of what your minister does, and [2] you are entitled to know more accurately what he does, both so that you may supplement his work and so that you may suggest how he may meet the needs for which our Church is responsible in God's Kingdom.

Here is how your pastor tries to spend the 83 work-hours of his week:

REMEMBER:
Jesus calls you to minister also. (Mt. 20. 26-28)
