

Keeper of the Springs
The Account of the Keep in the Mountain

- The strange, quiet man who watched the Springs and kept them clean.
- His health and refreshment to the people.
- But a hard-boiled city council scammed the bridge and took him off the roll. Never saw him.
- Soon there came scar and slime, the machinery was stopped and a disease struck the village.
- So there was another meeting and the Keeper was hired again.

Our Home, the Keeper of the Springs

1. Healing and power are fused into all life.
2. Now when we dismiss the family as secondary the whole of society breaks down.
   - When we do not understand the Divine Nature of the Family,
   - When the things of life become the most important
   - When we do not use the price,
(3) Look at the results

- Breakdown of community.
- The heartache of children.
- The confusion over morals.
- Work of stagnation, which leaves us.
2.

Being Keepers of the Spring

1. The Home - A Place of Love
   - Have each other - Share the deepest.
   - Willing to forgive.
   - Letting people in the family be what they are.
   - Acceptance - See the best in the others.

2. The Home - A Place of Integrity
   - Practice of simple honesty.
   - Where we have decided what is important.
   - We will not be pushed by outside pressures.
   - Where we take our own responsibilities.
   - Husband and wife and children.

3. The Home - A Place of Faith
   - There will be a sense of gratitude, joy, and love.
   - Where God will very naturally be a part of our lives in common experience.
   - Prayer becomes significant experience.
The Church as The Ally

1. Making Love Real
   - Being a community of love.
   - In that we give meaning to the face that God is love.
   - Being inclusive and open.

2. Help You Understand What You Believe
   - Sharpen the issues of faith.
   - Keep you in the use of the Bible.
   - Lead you to materials that will help.

3. Encourage You to Work on Simple Disciplines
   - The covenant in people's hands.

The Young Woman With The Duty
   - Writing a list cleansing house.
   - Work all out for freedom.
   - Keep the faith.
   - How a great change.
My Covenant

Acknowledging the Lordship of Christ, and recognizing my constant need for SPIRITUAL RENEWAL, I covenant with God and the church regularly:

1. To engage in searching Bible study and reading,
2. To practice the presence of God through prayer and meditation,
3. To give thanks to God at meal time,
4. To use church-school study and reading materials at home,
5. To participate in the study and worship experiences of the church, to the end that I may witness to the gospel in every area of living.

"The Lord is my light and my salvation; whom shall I fear? The Lord is the strength of my life: of whom shall I be afraid?"

He sendeth the springs into the valleys, which run among the hills,
He watereth the hills from His chambers, the earth is satisfied with the fruit of Thy works.
When thus it shall be in the midst of the land among the people, there shall be as the shaking of an olive tree, and as the gleaning grapes when the vintage is done.
For as the earth bringeth forth her bud, and as the garden causeth the things that are sown in it to spring forth;
so the Lord God will cause righteousness and peace to spring forth before all the nations.
Praise the Lord from the earth, ye dragons, and all deeps;
Fire and hail, snow and vapours; stormy wind, fulfilling His word:
Mountains and all hills; fruitful trees and all cedars:
Let them praise the name of the Lord; for His name alone is excellent;
His glory is above the earth and heaven. Amen.

The first of a series of elective courses for adults to be held during the 11:00 hour will begin next Sunday, Oct. 16, in Room #111. The course will deal with church-state relationships, a very appropriate topic in this election year. The teacher will be Dr. Ralph Tingley, professor of history at Sioux Falls College. Dr. Tingley has just returned from the legislative seminar at Pierre where with other church leaders he considered this subject in relation to current problems of our state. Dr. Tingley is well qualified to lead this discussion, and is seriously preparing for the task. Every interested adult is invited.

And He loved Her

1. The Great Story with its discovery of love.

2. Finding love in unlikely places.
   We have been made in love to love.

The difficulty of accepting love

- We have been hurt.
- We feel we must work for it.
- So there is a contest
  - We want to love.
  - Need to protect our shaky selves.

We can trust love.

"God is love, and he who abides in love, abides in God and God abides in him."

Love.
Look at Christ

- In his life - companionship
- Death - sacrifice of his love
- Resurrection - triumph of his three.

Our experience made him look at:

- Always knowing
- Calls for commitment and effort
If we love - we listen to each other.

How we care:
- Under Chastening
- Husband's Disregard

He is not a two-way street

Responsible for each other

- We cannot live another person's life
- Ministering to each other's needs
- Particularly in offense.

Illustrations

- Middle Age Executive and Strained Deal.
- Couple who went to a Counselor
- Tried for six months.
3.

Acceptance Of One Another

Alcoholic - I love her, but I hate her alcoholism.

1. Her mean accepting oneself.
2. God's acceptance of us.

We Must Believe in Love

1. His belief - yours and of our experience that pretends to be love
2. Do not dominate, but sets free.

Always Growing

- Immaturity to Maturity
- Not Seeing to Seeing
"The Lord is my light and my salvation: whom shall I fear? The Lord is the strength of my life: of whom shall I be afraid?"
