Dear Pastors: Because I always work on Thurs PM I shall have to miss the service. I'm so sorry as I know it will be very special.

With respect to my discipline and discovery group, I should report that while they were evaluating the whole business, they were most appreciative of the example of the temple veil and the analogies concerning it. I should say too, that the fact they were so conscientious about attendance made my job a lot easier. They seemed enthusiastic about a course in simple theology, but they hoped that you'd do the study of Acts afterwards.

The fact that I missed the Governor's Conference for librarians in order to be on hand for the last Wednesday night with the group indicates how highly I regarded the opportunity.

It was customary for the Jews to eat Passover together.

- For centuries, they had done this.
- It was the celebration of their Deliverance.

Then that night it took on new meaning.

1. Your new promise to them.
2. The deepening of their fellowship.
3. Ease of remembrance and thanks.
4. The renewal of their vows.

What he did:

1. John 13:1. I washed their feet.
2. He accepted them.
